PARADE TO HIGHLIGHT DAY . . .

First Lady Faces Busy Visit To Nebraskaland

By DON WALTON
Star Staff Writer

The nation's First Lady comes to Nebraska Wednesday for a 10-hour schedue of events climaxed by her participation in the third annual Nebraskaland Days parade through downtown Lincoln.

Some 75,000 persons are expected to jam downtown streets to view the parade commemoratisg Nebraska's Old West frontier heritage. Thousands more will watch the proceedings on television.

Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, born Claudia but known best as Lady Bird, will arrive in the Capital City at noon for a 12:30 luncheon meeting of the Governor's Conference on Natural Beauty in the ballroom of the Cornhusker Hotel.

MRS. LYNDON JOHNSON
she leads the big 90-minute western parade.

Address Slated

The President's wife will address some 400 delegaets at 1:30 p.m., then join Gov. and Mrs. Frank Morrison at a hotel reception for the luncheon guests.

Mrs. Johnson's next public appearance — following a rest and private visit with the Morrisons at the governor's mansion—comes at 5 p.m. when she leads the big 90-minute western parade.

After completing the parade route, Mrs. Johnson and the Morrisons will return to the reviewing stand at 12th and O to present the "Buffalo Bill Award" to actor Charlton Heston for his contribuitons to western family entertainment.

Parade Route

(The parade begins at the State Fairgrounds, traveling south on 14th to O, down O to 11th, south to N, down N to 15th, north to R, west to 14th and back north to the Fairgrounds.)

Mrs. Johnson and her party will leave Lincoln Municipal Airport by chartered plane for Washington at 6:45 p.m.

Her Lincoln apearances follow a morning of activities at Offutt Air Force Base, in downtown Omaha and at Boys Town.

Motor Tour

Mrs. Johnson is scheduled to arrive at Offutt at 8:45 a.m., then tour the Old Fort Crook area and the Strategic Aerospace Museum by motorcade.

Following the tour, the First Lady will go directly to the lawn in front of Strategic Air Command headquarters where she will plant a two-year-old seedling from the John Quincy Adams elm on the White House grounds.

Next on her public schedule is a 9:50 a.m. address before 700 invited guests at an Omaha Civic Auditorium assembly hall meeting honoring Omaha city and public utility employes and neighborhood councils who have participated in a beautification program initiated by Mayor A. V. Sorensen.

Painting

At the Omaha ceremony, Mrs. Johnson will be presented with a painting of rural Nebraska countryside sketched by University of Omaha Professor Thomas Palmerton.

Mrs. Johnson will arrive at Boys Town at 10:45 a.m. for a tour and an outdoor ceremony in front of the auditorium in which the 900 citizens of Boys Town will make her an honorary citizen.

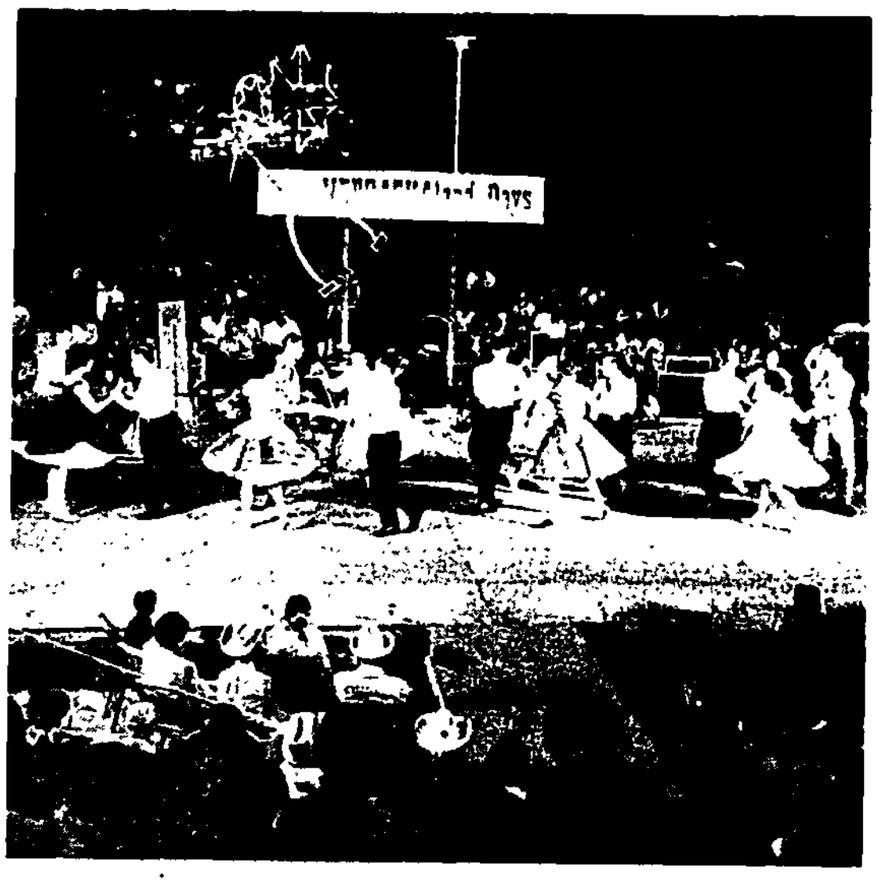

The First Lady will then travel by car to Lincoln, stopping at the governor's mansion before her appearance at the beautification conference.

Grand Marshal

Mrs. Johnson will be grand marshal for the huge parade, following the Lancaster County mounted sheriff's posse at the head of the marching units.

Mrs. Johnson will ride in an open car with the governor and his wife if weather permits. In the event of rain, the parade will continue as scheduled, but the car will be closed.

The parade will feature 15 bands, floats, marching units, Indian dancers, stage coaches, covered wagons, horse-drawn buggies, horses, ponies and the Nebraskaland oxen, Neb. and Raska.

Capitol Steps Scene Of Old-Time Fiddling, Dancing As 'Days' Continue

Old-time singers, fiddlers and dancers fiddled and stomped Tuesday evening on the north steps of the State Capitol as Nebraskaland Days geared for the appearance of the nation's First Lady, Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson.

Mrs. Johnson will address the Govenor's Conference on Natural Beauty at a Wednesday noon luncheon and then lead an "Oregon Trail Day" parade at 5 p.m. through downtown Lincoln. Some 115 units from 50 communities are expected.

Foot stamping and hand clapping accompanied a great deal of the Wild West Show Tuesday.

Time after time audience participation marked the program. At one point, dozens of kids swarmed onto the stage to help clear it following a bull whip act.

Beginning the proceedings was the presentation of Miss Nebraskaland, Patricia Knippelmier.

Another feature of the program was the presentation of the Nebraskaland Essay contest winner, Lynn Banlam of Orleans. Game Commission Director Mel Steen, who made the presentation pointed out "the contributions of the dozens and dozens of farmers . . . and thousands and thousands of your neighbors" which made the show possible.

Karate Exhibit

What would the old West have been like if the sheriffs had had karate? This question was answered by a number of students in the Lincoln School of Karate.

Other groups presented were the Sioux Indian Dancers, the Nebraska Oldtime Fiddlers, Yvonne Ulsperger, a baton act, Dallas Lee, Western Folk songs; the Lincoln Square Dance Club, Shirley Gillispie, Western and cowboy songs, Ed Elridge, bull whip act, the Wacisa Indian Dancers, and the Homesteaders Folksingers.

Background music was provided by the Nebraskaland Rangers, pre-show entertainment by the Country Strings, and the pre-show cannon firing by the Second Nebraska Cavalry.

Earlier Tuesday, Omaha's Tribe of Yessir and the Lincoln Sowers — Chamber of Commerce good will organizations — paraded through downtown Lincoln to the Cornhusker Hotel for the Buffalo Bill banquet.

Viewers Drawn

The Nebraskana Art Show in the Capitol's Great Hallway and Rotunda and the early settler's cabin, Conestoga wagon, frontier artillery and Wells Fargo stagecoach on the Statehouse lawn continued to draw viewers.

While Wednesday will mostly be Lady Bird Day, the Nebraskaland Days celebration will feature a free pancake breakfast at Gateway Shopping Center, the Wilber High School Czech band at the Capitol, and muzzle-loading rifle championship shooting and vacation booths along O St.

A street square dance on M between 14th and 15th will climax the evening.

Four-Day Run

The Nebraskaland Days Championship Rodeo will begin a four-day run Thursday at Pershing Municipal Audium.

The indoor rodeo — the first to be held in Lincoln — will feature nightly shows at 8 p.m. and the final session at 2 p.m. Sunday.

IT'S $931 MILLION ABOVE REQUEST

. . . House Applauds Rivers

Washington (UPI)—The House approved Tuesday a $17.8 billion defense bill that included nearly $931 million for projects opposed by President Johnson and Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara.

The vote was 356 to 2. Voting against the bill were Reps. George Brown Jr., D-Calif., and Thomas Curtis, R-Mo.

Rivers Wins

The action was a victory for Rep. L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, who had called for the extra funds. There is no assurance that McNamara will spend it.

The bill would authorize appropriations during the fiscal year starting July 1 for ships, missiles, planes, tanks and related research and development.

It now goes back to the senate which previously passed a $17.2 billion measure.

The House bill also carries authority for an across-the-board, 3.2% pay raise for all members of the armed forces. The salary hike, which would cost an additional $356 million, was not requested by the administration but it is not opposing it.

More Speed

Bearing the imprint of Rivers and his strongly held views on military policy, the bill would direct McNamara to move faster in building a nuclear Navy and commit him to develop an advanced conventional bomber for the 1970s.

At one point, Rivers told the House: "So help me God, we are going to have a follow-on bomber if it kills everyone in the DOD (Department of Defense) and I die in the process."

Before Rivers opened debate, the House gave him an unusual standing ovation. More than 300 members present rose and applauded Rivers for more than a minute after Speaker John W. McCormack termed him a valued friend, able legislator, and "one of the greatest Americans I've ever met."

He Suffered

The tribute was a welcome back to Rivers on his return from a hospital stay in which, he told members, he suffered "lots of pain" from bursitis and a calcification of joints in the neck area.

There was another round of applause for Rivers after Democratic floor leader Carl Albert of Oklahoma praised him for having led the armed services committee "with honor, distinguished ability, courage and dedication." Albert said Rivers offered to come back last week and handle the bill, but that the leaders told him to wait until he felt better.

Some of the plaudits no doubt were in response to a critical column about Rivers by Drew Pearson, though no direct reference was made to the column. Rivers himself came closest to mentioning it, noting that he had "got in the newspaper this morning" and that he hoped to stay out of the hospital in the future "because of the publicity I get."

Part of the extra money would go for controversial and expensive projects favored by Rivers and most members of his committee, but opposed by McNamara and Johnson. They included:

—$258 million for construction of two unrequested nuclear powered frigates. The Senate authorized one in place of a requested conventional destroyer.

—$167 million for preliminary work on the Nike X antimissile system, a step which if followed up could lead to the spending of about $15 billion. The Senate voted for this, too.

—$23 million for studies aimed at the development of a manned supersonic bomber for the 1970s.

Police Clamp Down On Northwest Side

Chicago (AP) — More than 500 policemen patroling a riot-torn 16-block Puerto Rican neighborhood literally emptied the streets of more than 2,000 persons Tuesday night and arrested 26.

Police later said 11 of the persons arrested were picked up 13 blocks from the Puerto Rican neighborhood when two homemade bombs were thrown at a police car. The car was not hit.

Police said the 11 were part of a crowd of 200 and that six more bombs were found during a search.

Included Whites

Police said the 26 arrested included Puerto Ricans and whites.

No shots were fired and there was little disturbance.

Residents moved into their homes after police warned they would arrest anybody on the street. The 26 arrests were made during scattered rock-throwing episodes.

By late Tuesday, police officials said they had a firm grip on the tense Northwest Side situation, which was touched off Sunday when a policeman shot a Puerto Rican youth. The policeman said the youth pulled a gun as the officer tried to break up a fight.

Two nights of rioting followed the shooting.

A policeman was hit with a rock and injured at dusk Tuesday when 150 persons massed in a park were being dispersed.

Nine of the 26 persons arrested were seized when police moved in through a hail of rocks to break up a street corner crowd.

The residents clogged side streets, prodded by police to "keep moving."

The extra security was ordered by Police Supt. O. W. Wilson, who shook up his department in an effort to halt the rioting in which eight persons were shot and wounded, scores injured and more than 80 arrested.

Police helicopters buzzed overhead. On the perimeter of the strife-torn area, 120 reinforcements stood ready to move in.

Drilled

Before dusk, police commanders moved their patrolmen through close order drill for a double reason — to keep them alert and to break up small groups on the streets.

Capt. James Holzman, named by Wilson as acting deputy chief of patrol to supervise the area, directed his men.

The situation was tense. An Associated Press photographer made his way to the roof of a building to take pictures. Within minutes a police helicopter dropped to investigate, radioed to a control point and five policemen were immediately on the roof to check his identity.

A task force lieutenant and his sergeants spent the afternoon studying maps of the trouble zone and planning strategy against possible new outbreaks. Mayor Richard J. Daley met privately with Spanish-speaking community leaders and called for obedience to law and preservation of order.

Call Police Dogs

Wilson also ordered that only officers holding the rank of district commander or higher are authorized to call for the use of police dogs for controlling crowds.

"The presence of dogs stimulated the disorder" in the Puerto Rican rioting Sunday night, he said.

Neighborhood social and civic leaders blamed much of the rioting on a lack of communication between the residents and the police.

The area, colonized in Chicago's earlier days by Polish and German immigrants, has gradually been settled by Puerto Ricans since World War II.

Viet Assembly's Powers Limited

. . . POLICE BEAT 3 FOREIGN NEWSMEN

Saigon (AP)—The government of South Viet Nam announced Wednesday it will limit the power of the coming constituent assembly to writing a constitution. The decision could have the effect of prolonging the life of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military regime for at least three, possibly six months.

The announcement came as Buddhist-led demonstrators spilled into Saigon's streets for the third straight day and other hundreds began an all-day fast in the northern rebel stronghold, Hue, in memory of Buddhists killed last month fighting government troops.

The government ansouncement said the assembly to be elected Sept. 11 will be dissolved after the promulgation of the constitution, thus preventing it from transforming itself into a law-making body and naming a civilian government.

Aussie Hurt Badly

The noisy disorders were small in scale and had little outward effect on the life of Saigon. But three foreign newsmen were beaten up by the police and one of them—Australian Martin Stuart-Fox, 26, of United Press International — was injured about the head as the police arrested two truckloads of medical students.

Stuart-Fox was treated for a cut over his left eye and injuries on the back of his head, then released from the U.S. Navy hospital. The other newsmen were David Burrington, 35, and You Young Sang, 33, a Korean cameraman, both of the National Broadcasting Company. The police smashed You's TV sound camera.

The decision to limit the assembly's powers was made by the expanded military-civilian junta.

Maj. Gen. Pham Xuan Chieu, secretary-general of the 20-man junta, said the assembly will have 123 members and not 159 as recommended by the electoral commission.

Likely To Stay

It seemed clear that after its recent victories over the Buddhist opposition, the military regime was not likely to give up power after the first elections.

The new wave of demonstrations has met stiffened government resistance.

Riot police and tough Vietnamese rangers met three new demonstrations Wednesday in the capital with a barrage of tear gas.

Robed Buddhist monks were seen in all three groups, each numbering about 100 persons.

One group gathered about a mile from the capital's downtown business section and the other two formed in Cholon, the Chinese quarter.

CEREAL BLEND DEVELOPED BY STATE . . .

Nebraska Freedom Meal May Help Combat Hunger

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

Gov. Frank Morrison and State Agriculture Director Pearle Finigan announced Tuesday the development of a blended cereal food product to help meet the demand for feeding the starving peoples throughout the free world.

Named the Nebraska Freedom Meal by the governor, the nutritionally-balanced blend of milo, corn, soy meal, wheat and nonfat dry milk was developed by the Nebraska Agresearch Program.

Morrison said the Nebraska formula meets President Johnson's criteria for a balanced, inexpensive food product to help save the world's starving people and particularly fight against malnutrition in children in the Food for Peace program.

"Milions of bushels of grains could be put to use throughout the world by using the Nebraska cereal process," he said.

The Midwest Research Institute of Kansas City developed the formula for Agresearch under a $15,000 development project begin in March.

Ben Gerrish, Midwest's food science chief, said, "Calories alone are not enough in the hunger fight. Stunt an individual's growth and his mind is stunted, also."

Gerrish said the balanced formula of the Nebraska cereal product contains 20% protein in nutritional balance with supplementation of vitamins and minerals. It cooks in one to two minutes.

Finnigan said the commercial cost of the meal would be less than ten cents per pound.

"The Nebraska Freedom Meal is a genuine breakthrough in research," the governor said. "Nebraska is the first state to develop this vital formula for feeding starving peoples of the free world."

Finigan said the formula would be presented within the next two weeks to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

In late July, Morrison and Finigan will go to Washington to demonstrate the new food to President Johnson.

Morrison said he will call a meeting of Nebraska millers and grain processors and USDA officials to work out details for contracts with the Food for Peace Agency.

Gov. Morrison Signs Special Session's Bills

Gov. Frank Morrison Tuesday signed into law the short-term, emergency intantigible tax program that he had called the Legislature into special session to enact.

The governor signed the three special session bills at 5:22 p.m.

LB1 provides that stock of foreign corporations be taxed at "fair market value" and will restore the state's traditional method of valuing stock before it was wiped out a month ago by a State Supreme Court decision.

LB2 blocks the refund of past taxes, but provides for refund of tax penalties under claims filed within 60 days of the Supreme Court's final judgment.

LB3 transfers $19,000 from unexpended funds to pay the cost of the extraordinary session.

The state and its political subdivisions — cities, schools and counties—had faced a $6 million revenue loss without the two bills enacted Monday by the special session.

Viet Assembly's Powers Limited

. . . POLICE BEAT 3 FOREIGN NEWSMEN

Saigon (AP)—The government of South Viet Nam announced Wednesday it will limit the power of the coming constituent assembly to writing a constitution. The decision could have the effect of prolonging the life of Premier Nguyen Cao Ky's military regime for at least three, possibly six months.

The announcement came as Buddhist-led demonstrators spilled into Saigon's streets for the third straight day and other hundreds began an all-day fast in the northern rebel stronghold, Hue, in memory of Buddhists killed last month fighting government troops.

The government ansouncement said the assembly to be elected Sept. 11 will be dissolved after the promulgation of the constitution, thus preventing it from transforming itself into a law-making body and naming a civilian government.

Aussie Hurt Badly

The noisy disorders were small in scale and had little outward effect on the life of Saigon. But three foreign newsmen were beaten up by the police and one of them—Australian Martin Stuart-Fox, 26, of United Press International — was injured about the head as the police arrested two truckloads of medical students.

Stuart-Fox was treated for a cut over his left eye and injuries on the back of his head, then released from the U.S. Navy hospital. The other newsmen were David Burrington, 35, and You Young Sang, 33, a Korean cameraman, both of the National Broadcasting Company. The police smashed You's TV sound camera.

The decision to limit the assembly's powers was made by the expanded military-civilian junta.

Maj. Gen. Pham Xuan Chieu, secretary-general of the 20-man junta, said the assembly will have 123 members and not 159 as recommended by the electoral commission.

Likely To Stay

It seemed clear that after its recent victories over the Buddhist opposition, the military regime was not likely to give up power after the first elections.

The new wave of demonstrations has met stiffened government resistance.

Riot police and tough Vietnamese rangers met three new demonstrations Wednesday in the capital with a barrage of tear gas.

Robed Buddhist monks were seen in all three groups, each numbering about 100 persons.

One group gathered about a mile from the capital's downtown business section and the other two formed in Cholon, the Chinese quarter.

Gov. Morrison Signs Special Session's Bills

Gov. Frank Morrison Tuesday signed into law the short-term, emergency intantigible tax program that he had called the Legislature into special session to enact.

The governor signed the three special session bills at 5:22 p.m.

LB1 provides that stock of foreign corporations be taxed at "fair market value" and will restore the state's traditional method of valuing stock before it was wiped out a month ago by a State Supreme Court decision.

LB2 blocks the refund of past taxes, but provides for refund of tax penalties under claims filed within 60 days of the Supreme Court's final judgment.

LB3 transfers $19,000 from unexpended funds to pay the cost of the extraordinary session.

The state and its political subdivisions — cities, schools and counties—had faced a $6 million revenue loss without the two bills enacted Monday by the special session.

CEREAL BLEND DEVELOPED BY STATE . . .

Nebraska Freedom Meal May Help Combat Hunger

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

Gov. Frank Morrison and State Agriculture Director Pearle Finigan announced Tuesday the development of a blended cereal food product to help meet the demand for feeding the starving peoples throughout the free world.

Named the Nebraska Freedom Meal by the governor, the nutritionally-balanced blend of milo, corn, soy meal, wheat and nonfat dry milk was developed by the Nebraska Agresearch Program.

Morrison said the Nebraska formula meets President Johnson's criteria for a balanced, inexpensive food product to help save the world's starving people and particularly fight against malnutrition in children in the Food for Peace program.

"Milions of bushels of grains could be put to use throughout the world by using the Nebraska cereal process," he said.

The Midwest Research Institute of Kansas City developed the formula for Agresearch under a $15,000 development project begin in March.

Ben Gerrish, Mldwest's food science chief, said, "Calories alone are not enough in the hunger fight. Stunt an individual's growth and his mind is stunted, also."

Gerrish said the balanced formula of the Nebraska cereal product contains 20% protein in nutritional balance with supplementation of vitamins and minerals. It cooks in one to two minutes.

Finnigan said the commercial cost of the meal would be less than ten cents per pound.

"The Nebraska Freedom Mel is a genuine breakthrough in research," the governor said. "Nebraska is the first state to develop this vital formula for feeding starving peoples of the free world."

Finigan said the formula would be presented within the next two weeks to the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

In late July, Morrison and Finigan will go to Washington to demonstrate the new food to President Johnson.

Morrison said he will call a meeting of Nebraska millers and grain processors and USDA officials to work out details for contracts with the Food for Peace Agency.

King Presents Vote Demands

From Press Reports

Grenada, Miss.—Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. calmed an angry crowd of Mississippi freedom marchers Tuesday night with word that Grenada County officials bowed to his list of Negro voter registration demands.

The crowd was angered when it discovered the voter registrar's office was closed Tuesday night after being assured it would remain open at King's request.

Some 500 Negroes marched to the courthouse office from the New Hope Baptist Church, many of them seeking to register.

Wires Crossed

King said the office closed at 9 p.m. CST. "It was a breakdown in communication on our part," King said.

City Atty. Bradford Dye assured the group the registrar's office would reopen at 8 a.m. CST Wednesday and remain open until 5 p.m. The courthouse is normally closed on Wednesday afternoon.

King, who has been in Chicago rejoined the march after demonstrators marched 600 strong into the town square and held a rally at the Confederate monument.

Hundreds

Following the rally, 300 trooped into the courthouse to register.

The FBI announced that between 150 and 175 Negroes registered as voters during the day.

At one point during the rally, the Negroes hoisted an American flag on the monument. They removed it after several minutes and a white youth then tried to attach a Confederate flag to the monument, but the banner fell.

At Ripley, Aubrey James Norvell, an unemployed white man from Memphis charged with shooting Meredith from ambush, failed Tuesday in a bid to have his $25,000 bond reduced.

In denying a writ of habeas corpus, Circuit Judge Walter M. O'Barr commented that it had not been proved Norvell's health had been impaired or that he would be unable to make bond.

Norvell's physician, wife, father, brother and a family friend testified that his imprisonment since the June 6 shooting had left him tense and extremely emotional.

Yankee TV Station On Moon Sends Eerie Sunset Pictures

Pasadena, Calif. (AP) — Surveyor 1 televised eerie, almost surrealistic, panoramas of a sunset on the moon Tuesday and then shut down — halting perhaps forever a historic flow of photos.

Some pictures, made as the sun dipped slowly, showed a faint glow on the horizon which scientists at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory said could indicate the moon has a light atmosphere. The gas could come from the sun or from the moon's interior, they said.

In the distance were long horizontal streaks of light, possibly the sun shining on ridge tops. In the foreground was deep blackness, with tiny spots of light where rocks caught the sun's rays.

After the sun vanished, there remained faint illumination from the glow of Earth a quarter-million miles away. With this dim light Surveyor made a final shot — reminiscent of its first — looking downward at one of its three feet. The picture showed the foot clearly.

Moon-Orbiting Camera Planned

Cape Kennedy, Fla. (UPI)—The U. S. space agency said Tuesday it plans to rocket a picture-taking satellite into orbit around the moon, possibly to photograph Surveyor 1 on the lunar surface, during a six-day period starting July 12.

The 850-pound spacecraft, called Lunar Orbiter, is designed to fly within 28 miles of the moon's crust to take a series of detailed pictures of potential Apollo astronaut landing sites.

This first of seven Surveyors, launched May 30 from Cape Kennedy, landed gently 63 hours later in a technical triumph against long odds, and in the day's since has sent earthward more than 10,000 close-ups of the pebbled surface of the Sea of Storms where astronauts someday may land.

Its television camera was turned on at 2 a.m. CST Tuesday, as sunset neared, and transmitted more than 400 shots as the sun set — 28 times slower than on earth — before being turned off at 8:24 a.m.

During the two-week lunar night the temperature will dip to 260 degrees below zero, perhaps freezing Surveyor's battery. Should this happen, it will send no more pictures. If the camera survives, more photos will be sought after the lunar sunrise.

Doped Marine Shot Vietnamese

Washington (AP) — A former Marine Corps crew chief and machine gunner told senators Tuesday of shooting friendly Viet Nam forces while under the influence of drugs.

The husky 23-year-old honorably discharged Marine, identified only as Frank, testified in a Senate judiciary subcommittee hearing that pep pills, barbituates and even heroin are readily available to servicemen in this country and overseas. Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y., asked for a Defense Department report on that.

Frank, accompanied by his young wife, identified only as Dorothy, was introduced by Dr. Robert W. Baird, director of a narcotics treatment center in Harlem in New York City.

Dr. Baird testified on the basis of his personal experience that there are "a minimum of 10,000 to 15,000 heroin and barbituate addicts in the service and easily 100,000 marijuana smokers."

Chopper Crewman

Frank said he flew some 125 combat missions in Viet Nam and was crew chief and gunner aboard a helicopter.

He said he had taken several "goofballs" during a quiet period in Viet Nam but there was an emergency call to evacuate some U.S. officials.

On this flight, Frank said, he was overcome by the drugs, thought South Viet Nam troops were Viet Cong and began shooting.

A Viet Nam major and sergeant major were wounded, Dr. Baird said, but the Marine sergeant was not disciplined because no one was aware he was drugged.

The ex-Marine said he joined as a 17-year-old and soon learned it was regarded as clever to try pep pills and "goofballs" along with beer and wine.

The hearing was before the Senate subcommittee to investigate juvenile delinquency on an administration bill which would offer certain drug addicts a chance at treatment and rehabilitation instead of prison.

24th Red Regiment Useless

Saigon (AP)—U.S. paratroopers wrote off North Viet Nam's 24th Regiment as an effective fighting force in the Kontum Plateau battle Tuesday and their commander said, "I believe this battle has set the Viet Cong timetable back several months."

Ground action esewhere was generally light and scattered.

Highlighting the air war was a predawn strike by two U.S. Navy F4C Phantom jets against two propeller-driven planes they spotted over North Viet Nam's coast about 70 miles southwest of the port of Haiphong. Briefing officers said one probably was shot down.

Killed 1,000

A field spokesman for the 1st Brigade, U.S. 101st Airborne Division, estimated the Americans, South Vietnamese troops and supporting airplanes in Operation Hawthorne have killed more than 1,000 of the 1,400 to 2,000 North Vietnamese making up the 24th Regiment in the fight that opened June 7. That would more than double the official count, raised Tuesday to 533 with the finding of more bodies.

The brigade commander, Brig. Gen. Willard Pearson, told newsmen at Dak To, 290 miles north of Saigon, the regiment "is no longer a fighting force." He said he expects the kill ratio to favor the allies by as much as 14 to 1. Inversely, that could mean 72 or more allied dead.

Paratroopers, however, still skirmished with a Red remnant on the ridges, a company of about 150. The encounter was still under way at nightfall, with no conclusive word of the outcome.

Withdrew To Laos

Most of those not killed or captured were believed to have withdrawn into the Communist-dominated eastern sector of Laos. Intelligence sources said other North Vietnamese regiments are across the border in Laotian staging areas, poised for a possible monsoon drive into the highlands in an effort to cut South Viet Nam in two.

Disarm Pact Pinned To U.S. Departure . . . FROM VIET NAM

Geneva (UPI)—The Soviet Union informed the 17-nation disarmament conference at its resumption Tuesday no new agreements are possible until the United States gets out of Viet Nam.

Soviet negotiator Alexei A. Roshchin delivered a lengthy tirade denouncing U.S. "aggression" in Viet Nam and "provocations and hostile actions" in Communist Cuba.

Chief U.S. negotiator William C. Foster said he "deplored" the Russian's polemics and told the conference the Soviet envoy's speech amounted to no more than a "propaganda blast."

Deeper Pessimism

The conference resumed following a six-week recess and the Soviet position quickly deepened general pessimism over chances of breaking the East-West deadlock over disarmament.

Roshchin said the Soviet Union "bitterly condemned" U.S. involvement in Viet Nam.

He said the conference was resuming as the United States sent "divisions, aircraft carriers, powerful bombers, poisonous gases and napalm against a small but freedom-loving Vietnamese people."

20 Years To Day

Foster told the delegates it was 20 years ago Tuesday the United States first proposed to the United Nations that nuclear weapons be banned for all time. He said it was exactly nine years ago that the Soviets agreed with the West that some form of international inspection was necessary for a ban on all nuclear tests.

Reds, Right Set Back In Italian Vote

Rome (AP)—Results of weathervane local elections pointed Tuesday to a possible new voting trend in Italy with steady postwar gains of the Communists at least checked and the Fascist right badly beaten.

Italy's biggest party, the Christian Democrats, which has the backing of the Roman Catholic Church, registered slight gains.

In the Sunday and Monday balloting for new administrations in 168 municipalities and three provinces, the Christian Democrats and their Socialist allies in the center-left national government won majority control of the Rome city council.

They got 41 of the council's 80 seats, making it possible to govern without the support of defectors from other parties.

The coalition also won majorities for the first time in two of the three provincial assemblies up for a change, Rome and Foggia.

The belligerent Fascist Party, along with the tiny die-hard Monarchists, suffered losses of up to 50%.

The Democratic Socialists, party of President Giuseppe Saragat and members of Premier Aldo Moro's coalition, were the biggest winners. Their gains brought them closer to even footing with the bigger Socialist Party in maneuvers for Socialist reunion this fall.

Was Test

With nearly five million persons voting—a seventh of the entire electorate—the weekend balloting became a major test for the national parties two years away from the next parliamentary election in 1968.

Rome was the main cockpit of the struggle. And there the Communists had their worst setback. This prompted the center-left parties to claim that the steady advance the Communists have enjoyed in the most important postwar elections had been halted.

Yet despite their setback in the capital, the Communists showed gains in their strongholds regions, mainly in the industrial "Red Belt" sections of the north. They had vote increases in Florence and Genoa.

Although they lacked outright majorities, they marshaled enough strength to make center-left government impossible in Genoa, Florence, Pisa and Forli.

But the setback in Rome hurt the Communists most. They had soft-talked in a move to lull Roman Catholic opposition, and had made it a goal to outvote the leading Christian Democrats for the first time since the war.

Snap Medicare Meet Called

Washington (UPI) — Doctors, hospital administrators and other health officials from all parts of the nation will meet with President Johnson Wednesday to discuss the medicare program which goes into operation July 1.

The White House conference on medicare was called on short notice in response to a suggestion by Sen. Clifford P. Case, R-N.J.

Case said in a letter to John W. Gardner, secretary of health, education and welfare, that the medicare program might get off to a smoother start if medical leaders were called in for last-minute consultation on problems that seem likely to arise.

Among the problems which have been causing concern to physicians is the amount of paperwork that may be involved in filing claims, and the outside scrutiny of doctors' bills that may result from the determination of "reasonable charges" reimbursible under medicare's optional insurance plan.

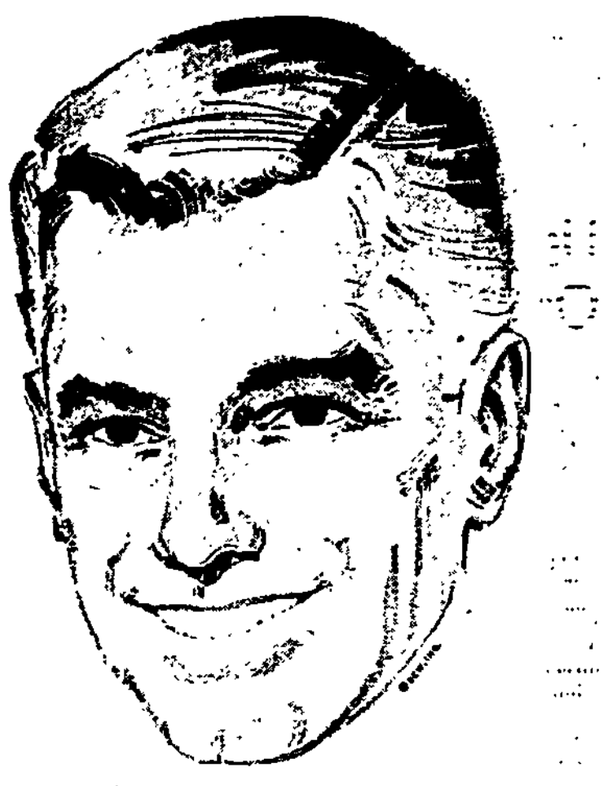

State Health Director Dr. E. A. Rogers said Dr. Harold S. Morgan of Lincoln, state medical liaison officer for the medicare program, would represent Nebraska at the conference.

Schools Will Seek U.S. Funds To Study Base-Aviation Training

By LUCILLE HUTCHINSON
Star Staff Writer

Federal funds to study the feasibility of developing aviation training at the Lincoln Air Force Base as a part of the Lincoln Community College will be sought by the Lincoln Public Schools, the School Board decided Tuesday.

Board of Education members unanimously approved a resolution authorizing the administrative staff to apply for a planning grant under the Higher Education Facilities Act.

The Lincoln Chamber of Commerce aviation committee had voted to recommend that the School Board apply for such a grant to explore the practibility of expanding present aviation training under the Community College.

Application for planning funds, about $30,000, must be submitted by June 30, emphasized Supt Steven Watkins.

Insurance Fund Doubled

In other action the board approved doubling the total amount of money allocated to pay part of the group health and accident insurance program for school employes. Board member Ed Copple said that the recommended $50,000, up from $25,000 paid last year, would "pay almost exactly half of the cost of each participant."

However, Lincoln Education Association (LEA) Executive Secretary Ely Feistner said that on the basis of 1,200 participants in the program counting some increase in the number of persons, the board would have to contribute about $60,000 to pay 50% of the cost.

The LEA requested that the board raise the amount to 60%, or approximately $68,000. Feistner pointed out that unless the board contributed to the insurance plan on a percentage basis the amount to each participant would decrease as more employes entered. But board member James Stuart countered that the board needs to know a specific amount to include in its budget planning.

Feistner also presented several resolutions approved by the LEA legislative council, including a proposal for sabbatical leave with School Board guarantee of 50% of the individual's salary.

Supt. Watkins criticized the resolution delearing that "we should be thankful for what we've got," noting that the district's sabbatical system has been in force just one year

Quicker Start Approved

A resolution urging that school be started a week earlier in the fall also met opposition from the superintendent, indicating that previous attempts to hold school during the State Fair had been unsuccessful.

The "question is whether schools are run for the convenience of the staff or for the children," he said, noting that Lincoln "never had over two-thirds of the youngsters in school any one day during Fair week."

Dr. Watkins also objected to another LEA resolution calling for a maximum of 30 students in any regular academic classroom and a maximum of 15 in a remedial class. He termed it an "unreasonable request" and declared, "We have to teach the kids where they are."

In a discussion of the recent LEA criticism of the approved salary increases for teachers board President Robert Magee maintained that the board "certainly took under consideration your (LEA) salary proposal, discussed it, and the decision reached showed we gave consideration to it."

'Work Together'

New LEA President Lonnie Johnson suggested that in the future representatives of the school board and LEA work out a salary proposal together in the same manner that the insurance program was prepared

School Athletic Director Ralph Beechner reviewed junior and senior high participation in the newly instituted intramural-extramural program In the junior highs, he noted, participation doubled from 37,482 to 74,000 Senior high participations jumped from 48,982 to 88,359.

Recommending added facilities to conduct the program, Beechner said participation would have been even higher if space had not been limited.

No action was taken on closing General Arnold, the Air Force Base school, but Dr Watkins indicated that the 150 children who will be in the area could be handled in available space at Lake View, Hayward, West Lincoln and Clare McPhee Schools

In other action the board approved a policy of assigned regular high school teachers, paid $7.33 per call to high school homebound pupils whenever there are special subject areas in which the regular homebound teachers are not adequately prepared

School Administrators Get Pay Hikes

Lincoln school administrative personnel received salary increases ranging up to $2,000 as a result of Board of Education action Tuesday.

Board members approved raises of $1,000 for Vice Supt. Arzell Ball to $18,500, board attorney Willis Hecht to $7,500, and Supt. Steven Watkins to $25,000.

Increases of $750 were voted for Asst. Supt. Rudy Bauer, to $15,750, and Asst. Supt. R. L. Fredstrom to $17,250.

All administrative and supervisory salaries are established on a merit system within a maximum-minimum range.

Administrative and supervistory salaries for personnel employed under federal programs and the Community College were set at levels ranging from $6,000 to $14,000.

Dean of the Community College, combined with the position of director of vocational and industrial education, is slated to receive $14,000. Salaries for the three associate deans will range between $10,000 and $12,500.

Range $8,500-$12,000

Salaries for federal project coordinators and directors were scheduled in a maximum-minimum range of $8,500-$12,000. Project supervisors for ASERT, not yet selected, and Head Start were set at $11,000. Others ranged between $9,200 and $11,000

The salaries approved for employes working in federal projects may be 25%-100% funded by the federal government, Supt. Watkins explained.

The board increased salaries for elementary principals of schools with 1-15 teachers by $500, setting the range between $8,000 and $10,000. Raises for elementary principals in schools with 16-34 teachers were increased by $260 to as much as $1,300, within a range of $8,500-$10,500.

The principal at Meadow Lane was awarded a $1,500 pay raise.

One group of school coordinators, within a salary range of $8,500-$11,000, rated increases ranging between $300 and $1,400

$2,000 More

The coordinator of elementary education will receive $2,000 more than last year, as will the director of budgeting and accounts

Pay raises for junior high school principals were under $1,000, except for the Millard Lefler principal, who will receive $1,050 more

Principals' Salaries Set

High school principal salaries were set at $14,750 for Lincoln High, $14,250 for Northeast, $14,250 for Southeast and $14,000 for Lincoln East.

Pay to the administrative assistant in charge of governmental services was boosted $2,000 to $12,000.

Administrative pay increases will cost the district approximately $50,000 more this year, according to Dr. Watkins

An approved salary schedule for food service employes will cost an additional $26,000 for 370 workers. The superintendent said that it is expected an increased number of meals served will meet the salary increases, without raising meal prices.

In other action the board approved for inclusion in the budget estimated building fund expenditures of $689,150, including $226,000 for Lincoln East Educational Complex equipment, $38,127 for concrete slabs at elementary schools for basketball courts, and $172,548 in building improvements, primarily the remodeling of Irving Junior High.

Also tentatively approved for next year is a bond sinking fund of $1,518,166; retirement fund expenditures of $519,350, and bond interest fund expenditures of $501,661.

4 New Schools

Watkins announced that it is expected four new elementary schools will have to be built before 1970 at the Trendwood site, Branson site, Southwood Addition and Rosemont Third Addition

High on the school district's priority list in the next four years are gymnasium additions to Irving and Millard Lefler Junior High Schools and a proposed kitchen and cafeteria at Lincoln Northeast High School

Lightbody New Dean Of Community College

James E. Lightbody, returning to the Lincoln Public Schools after a year's leave of absence, was named dean of the Lincoln Community College and director of vocational and industrial education by the Board of Education Tuesday.

Lightbody, who is finishing work on his Ph.D. in education at the University of Nebraska, succeeds Dr. Chester A. Gausman who resigned as director of vocational and adult education.

Former principal of the Adult High School nd coordinator of general adult education, Lightbody also has been a teacher at Whittier Junior High. He received his M.A. from NU and his B.A. from Nebraska Wesleyan University.

James Huge, former assistant principal in charge of instruction at Southeast High School, was appointed Community College associate dean of general education and supervisor of the college Lincoln East center.

Schwartzkopf Named

The position of Community College associate dean of occupational education and supervisor of the Lincoln High center will be filled by Edward Schwartzkopf, former coordinator of industrial arts and industrial education.

The dean of distributive education and supervisor of the Whittier Center has not yet been assigned.

Robert Law, former secondary teacher, was named college department head of industrial education and coordinator of secondary industrial arts and industrial education.

Former Whittier principal Emory Priefert was designated administrative assistant in charge of Manpower student services.

Personnel Changes

New Lincoln principal assignments announced Tuesday include Francis Arthur at Everett Junior High, Dr. Corwin Enevoldsen at Whittier Junior High, Fred Esser at Hawthorne School and Marvin Heller at Lake View and Willard Schools.

Assistant principal changes included Mrs. Beverly Ashley at Holmes, Mrs. Luella Craig at Sheridan, Marlan Kaufman at Randolph, Robert Knaub at Everett Junior High, David Myers at Southeast High, and Gerald Oehring at Bethany.

1,182 Enroll In Summer School Here

Summer school enrollment totaled 1,182 in the Lincoln Public Schools on opening day Tuesday.

University High School, operating summer school for secondary students, reported 661

The schools have 507 students registered in the Elementary and Secondary education Act remedial reading and speech program for children from low-income families.

However, enrollment in the special program is expected to reach 600 for the elementary, junior and senior classes, according to summer school director L. K. Bargman.

Head Start children, in the federal program for preschool disadvantaged youngsters, numbered 150, continuing the session started in March.

The regular tuition summer school for elementary students reported 525 registrants.

Summary of Conditions

A high pressure cell, dominant in the two state area, is moving southward allowing moisture to be brought northward from the Gulf. A broad area of weak high pressure is bounded on the east by a trough of low pressure and on the west by a weak cold front. Low pressure continues to prevail over the Pacific coast, the Great Lakes and much of the eastern U.S.

Both at the surface and aloft, moisture is being drawn northward from the Gulf through western portions of Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma. Thus widely scattered showers are likely over Nebraska with little general change in temperature

Extended Forecast

NEBRASKA: For the five-day period, Thursday through Monday, temperatures are forecast to average 1 to 6 degrees below normal. Normal highs are 80 to 86 for Nebraska. Normal lows are 56 to 61. Temperatures will be cooler Friday and warmer Saturday or Sunday. Precipitation is forecast to average light to moderate in western sections and moderate to heavy in eastern sections occuring as showers and thunderstorms Thursday and again Saturday through Monday. Amounts average one-half to one inch in western sections and one to two inches eastern sections.

KANSAS: For the five-day period, Thursday through Monday, temperatures are forecast to average 3 to 9 degrees below normal. Normal highs are 84 to 89, lows 55 to 65. Temperatures will be cooler Friday and warmer Saturday or Sunday. Precipitation is forecast to average light to moderate western sections and moderate to heavy in eastern sections occurring as showers and thunderstorms Thursday and again Saturday through Monday. Amounts average one-half to one inch in western sections and one to two inches in eastern sections.

Total 1966 precipitation to date 8.94 in.

Summary of Conditions

A high pressure cell, dominent in the two state area, is moving southward allowing moisture to be brought northward from the Gulf. A broad area of weak high pressure is bounded on the east by a trough of low pressure and on the west by a weak cold front. Low pressure continues to prevail over the Pacific coast, the Great Lakes and much of the eastern U.S.

Both at the surface and aloft, moisture is being drawn northward from the Gulf through western portions of Nebraska, Kansas and Oklahoma. Thus widely scattered showers are likely over Nebraska with little general change in temperature.

Extended Forecast

NEBRASKA: For the five-day period, Thursday through Monday, temperatures are forecast to average 3 to 6 degrees below normal. Normal highs are 80 to 86 for Nebraska. Normal lows are 56 to 64. Temperatures will be cooler Friday and warmer Saturday or Sunday. Precipitation is forecast to average light to moderate in western sections and moderate to heavy in eastern sections occuring as showers and thunderstorms Thursday and again Saturday through Monday. Amounts average one-half to one inch in western sections and one to two inches eastern sections.

KANSAS: For the five-day period, Thursday through Monday, temperatures are forecast to average 3 to 6 degrees below normal. Normal highs are 84 to 89; lows 55 to 65. Temperatures will be cooler Friday and warmer Saturday or Sunday. Precipitation is forecast to average light to moderate western sections and moderate to heavy in eastern sections occurring as showers and thunderstorms Thursday and again Saturday through Monday. Amounts average one-half to one inch in western sections and one to two inches in eastern sections.

The 'Mail Explosion'

By DAVID SMOTHERS

(Note: William O. Dobler, The Star's editor, is out of town briefly. Today's column is by UPI writer David Smothers, and explains some of the postal system's current problems and what it is doing to cope with them.)

CHICAGO—Neither snow, nor rain nor heat, nor gloom of night may stay the nation's mailmen from the swift completion of their appointed rounds. But maybe, many Americans are complaining, automation does. Harassed by zip codes, bugged by area codes, badgered by junk mail and hankering for that really important letter which doesn't seem to come in time, Americans are peppering their mailmen with more complaints than at any time in the nation's recent postal history.

To which the Post Office Department reports, things are not as bad as they seem.

New Test Of Service

And if they are, authorities say, they're doing something about it. One of the things they're doing is a test this spring of one of their newest gimmicks, a child of zip code called the "sectional center" program. The test is simple: The Post Office Department is mailing letters to itself to see how fast they get there. UPI anticipated the Postal Department by asking news bureaus around the country and abroad to mail letters to a certain man in southern Illinois. The man was Sam Hancock, manager of UPI's bureau in Marion, a community of 11,500, 115 miles southeast of St. Louis. Marion is deep in Illinois coal mining country and its problems in getting the mail are similar to those of communities of similar size throughout the country.

All the letters to Hancock were mailed at noon local time last April 18. Some were sent air special, some air mail, some by zip code, some regular without zip code. Hancock was asked to check when the letters arrived in his office in the Marion Republican building, and came up with the following findings:

Air mail special and straight air mail letter mailed from Anchorage, Alaska, arrived at the same time on April 20 as did letters mailed the same way in Atlanta, Ga.

A straight air mail letter from Charleston, S.C., arrived 20 hours ahead of air mail special, zip code and regular mail. The last three showed up in a dead heat on April 20.

A zip code letter from Providence, R.I., came in the day after a letter from Providence without zip code.

A straight air mail letter from Springfield, Mass., was checked in on April 19, four and a half hours ahead of an air mail special.

An air mail special from Miami breezed in on the 19th. Air mail, zipe code and regular limped in at 9 a.m., on the 21st.

These were the quirks in Hancock's accounting. Generally, the mail performed as advertised, although in a town the size of Marion, it was often difficult to measure the nuances between air special and air mail and zip code and regular mail. Delivery times ranged from less than 24 hours, from such cities as nearby Springfield, Ill., to three days.

Hancock's foreign mail, all of it airmailed, averaged three to four days' travel time—about the same as air mail from Honolulu. Making it in three days were letters from Copenhagen, Rome, Stockholm, Frankfurt, Brussels, Helsinki, Vienna, the Hague and Paris. Four-day laggards were from Barcelona, Oslo, Lisbon and Belgrade. The test of Poland's mail delivery didn't measure up to these standards. A letter mailed from Warsaw got to Hancock almost two months later, on June 10.

The three-day delivery from Rome to Marion beat that enjoyed—or suffered—by many Romans. The UPI Rome bureau wrote "a letter can sometimes take four days to get from one side of Rome to the other." Some of the European postal reports could make Americans jealous. Britain set the pace with 24-hour service, and many other countries matched it. A Portuguese mailman will find you even if the envelope carries just your name and the word "Lisbon."

A special delivery letter mailed from one point in Vienna to another arrives in three hours (although in Oslo it may take days to get a letter from one zone of the city to another). Copenhagen mailboxes are emptied 13 times a day. Such records don't impress U.S. mailmen. Their answer is that this country has more mail. Much more. In the "mail explosion" of the 60's, the U.S. mails handle 74 billion pieces of mail a year. On an average day, the United States processes as much mail as the rest of the world combined. The combined volume of mail in Los Angeles, New York, Chicago and Washington, the Post Office Department says, would almost equal that of Britain and top those of France, Italy or Japan. Every year, the mailmen figure, the average American gets 371 pieces of mail. By 1970, they say, the national mail volume will be 90.3 billion and by 1980 115 billion.

U.S. Load Is Heavy

The postal system used to be geared to the railroads. But in the last 10 years, the volume of mail has risen 30 percent while the train service has dwindled by 66 percent. Postal manpower is harder to get, is more expensive, post offices are bulging, and there aren't enough of them.

Meanwhile, mailmen stoutly endure the brickbats and insist that the five-cent stamp is still the best buy for the money in the country. Of course, there are embarrassing moments such as the Mountain View, Calif., postmaster's explanation of why 150 postal employes didn't get their paychecks in time last April. They had been lost in the mail.

Cities Have Worst Problem

DALLAS — Kind words and earnest promises were the gifts of the Johnson administration to the restive mayors of America's cities at their annual conference here. Offered up with appropriate flourishes by Vice President Hubert Humphrey and other articulate spokesmen, they are nevertheless unlikely to allay the disquiet that is the prevailing mood.

The men who struggle from day to day with the problem of the cities must run hard just to stay in place. Whether it is air and water pollution, the tragic human waste of inadequate education, foul housing, the rising crime rate or traffic jams, they know they are falling behind all the time.

The attack on the continuing decay must be on a far greater scale than anyone has yet dared to propose. The mayors understand that only too well. Yet just as this comes into sharp focus, with an administration in Washington understanding the need, the demands of the war in Viet Nam cut across even the limited proposals the Johnson administration has put forward.

A mayor's life is not a happy one. He and his representatives must beat a path to Washington and the federal treasury in many instances merely to keep afloat. In addition, he must cope with a state legislature and a governor who may be bent on doing him in.

Mayor John V. Lindsay could stay only a day before rushing back to confront Gov. Nelson Rockefeller in Albany in the hope that the legislature can be persuaded to pass a compromise tax bill. New York City is poised on the brink of bankruptcy, and the issue is whether teachers, police, hospital attendants — the city's 300,000 employees — will be paid in the months ahead.

Looking like everybody's ideal of the reform mayor, Lindsay began his administration with a subway strike shutting the city down and ending in a 26 percent wage increase that is a target for other city employees.

The mayors deal with the nuts and bolts of politics—sewers, water systems, parking meters. They must meet the daily needs of an ever-expanding urban population, and the glamor issues of foreign policy and states rights versus federalism are outside their province. In contrast to the annual conclave of state governors, where three or four potential presidents are on display, no one here is on that trajectory.

Yet there are two candidates for the United States Senate with a conspicuous potential. One is mayor Jereome P. Cavanagh of Detroit. Cavanagh, running against the choice of organized labor and the Democratic establishment in Michigan, G. Mennen (Soapy) Williams, is responsive to the deep undercurrent of uncertainty over the Viet Nam war. Campaigning throughout the state, he has found almost every audience applauding his call for a greater effort to negotiate a peaceful settlement and a pause in the escalation of the war.

The other candidate is Mayor John F. Collins of Boston. A tough, hard fighter, Collins is also battling the Democratic organization. It happens that both, and notably Cavanagh, have been first-rate mayors.

The squeeze that cripples the cities at the very point at which they need greatly expanded services can be shown in cold, hard figures. Mayor Ralph S. Locher of Cleveland pointed out that while local government debt had increased 395 percent between 1946 and 1964, the total federal debt had gone up only 16 percent. Locher presented these figures in making the case for a $6 billion federal program for construction of sewage treatment plants and other water pollution controls.

Inflation is adding to the squeeze. In the three years after 1960 according to Mayor Neal S. Blaisdell of Honolulu, president of the conference, per capita municipal expenditures in large cities rose by an average of 36 percent. And this was only for the fundamental services that mean survival.

Regardless of party affiliation, the mayors almost without exception stressed the importance of persuading Congress to come through with more money for the cities. But in this there is an unwitting irony. For if some of the more astute politicians assembled here are correct — and mayors are inevitably close to the grass roots — the Democrats in Congress will suffer heavy losses in November. This will mean a revival of the conservative coalition of southern Democrats and Republicans and the curtailment if not the end of the programs the mayors consider vital.

Misery, as the old saw has it, loves company. And these men who carry such a heavy burden of responsibility like nothing better than to talk shop and compare notes on the respective problems they face. They are members of one of the most restricted trade unions in the country.

Sought Contract For Nazi Factory

WASHINGTON — One important chapter in the unique career of Maj. Gen. Julius Klein, close confidant of Sen. Tom Dodd, D-Conn., is his lobbying for a former Nazi company to get a $75,000,000 contract to manufacture arms for the U.S. Armed Forces.

Klein is the foreign agent who induced Sen. Dodd to go to Germany to rescue his, Klein's, public relations accounts at a time when those accounts were jeopardized by a Senate investigation.

Thanks to the fact that a U.S. senator who is a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, a close friend of President Johnson's, and a former Nazi war crimes prosecutor undertook this mission, Klein was able to retain his West German clients.

One of these is Rheinmetall of Dusseldorf, Hitler's second largest arms manufacturer, which had been seeking a Defense Department contract to manufacture the 20 mm Hispano-Suiza rapid-firing cannon. Klein lobbied vigorously for this contract, a contract which had the following reverberations in the United States:

1. It contributed to the closing of the century-and-a-half-old Springfield, Mass., armory which has been turning out weapons for the American Army ever since the Revolutionary War.

2. It was opposed by Jewish leaders throughout the United States because of Rheinmetall's past Nazi connections.

Gen. Klein has made much of his religion. He has boasted that he is a past commander of the Jewish War Veterans, and in one of his many lengthy letters to editors protesting this column's reporting of his connections with Sen. Dodd, Gen. Klein mentioned the fact that he was a Jew no less than eleven times.

Nevertheless, Klein served as a paid agent and did his best to get a U.S. contract for a company which employed slave labor during the war, never made restitution to these unfortunate victims, and is run by five officers, three of whom are former Nazi party members.

Two, President Otto Paul Caesar and Ernest Boume, are reported to have been plant managers for Rheinmetall Borsig AG during the war.

According to a protest registered with Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara by Adolph Held, president of the Jewish Labor Committee, Rheinmetall "sought out and employed concentration camp inmates for exploitation in its arms factories.

"A special camp for Jewish women and girls recruited from Buchenwald by Rheinmetall was built by Rheinmetall at Sommerda in Thuringia. Over 1,200 Jewish women were employed in that camp alone. The evidence is overwhelming that they were forced to work under the most inhumane circumstances."

Smart-Alecks

Lincoln, Neb.

I doubt if anyone will read or pay any attention to this but I have a suggestion for the city head men, when they run the maintainer over the dirt streets, why not pad that loose dirt down a bit with the city sprinkler? Not a lot but just enough so that when the smart-alecks come along and a person is walking, they can't blow dirt in our faces.

If they think that's smart, they have a lot to learn before they're 40. They need to learn that they will get back just what they dish out in this life or the next one, and maybe more by way of meanness.

The Contrast

Lincoln, Neb.

The United States is not the only one that builds dams, just the one that destroys irreplaceable marvels of nature. Egypt, too, is having water problems. In January, 1964, work was started to protect the Temples of god King Ramses. Engineers from all over the world figured and gave estimates of cost on saving these fabulous creations by men around 1274 B.C.

They were cut from a rock bluff 3,200 years ago, are 673 feet high and the temples so built that only twice yearly will the sun shine into the innermost chambers, blessing the statues of the ruler.

Today the proposed flooding of the Nile threatened these treasures of antiquity. At a beginning cost of $36 million, Egypt and the United States began this project. As workmen struggle to save man-made art of centuries past, the entirety must be moved back 690 feet from the shore of the Nile. The new reservoir for irrigation and power will ultimately stretch 310 miles and average six miles in width. It must be completed by August, 1966.

As they strive to protect, many more are planning to destroy forever the grandeur of the Grand Canyon here in our country, which could never be replaced by the puny hands of man.

Vine Street Crossing

Lincoln, Neb.

The Vine Street crossing of the Rock Island railroad tracks has become nearly unbelievable and certainly unbearable. I should like to ask who has the responsibility for maintaining such crossings, the city or the railroad? If it is the city, I should like to know who is responsible for this travesty to the modern automobile. If it is the railroad, I should like to know how much they are paying the city to avoid their responsibility.

C. DAVID ROBERTS

Editor's Note: The responsibility for maintaining such crossings lies with the railroad.

Use Of Interstate

Lincoln, Neb.

The accident rate and the number of fatalities on our highways thus far in 1966 is an appalling figure and as we go into the summer vacation season, there is every indication that the situation will be even worse the last half of the year.

It's a crying shame that the 18 miles of the finished Interstate, west of the Milford Interchange at Highway 15 to the Beaver Crossing intersection and then north to Highways 2 and 34 are not open to general passenger car traffic.

This brings a person back to Highways 2 and 34, just east of Utica and one thus bypasses the many curves on the narrow and treacherous highway in the Seward area.

A similar situation existed at Grand Island at a very dangerous intersection and now since the Interstate bypasses Grand Island, the situation has been corrected.

Since the first of the year, there have been many high property damage accidents and one or possibly more fatalities in the Seward area. It is reasonable to believe that many of these accidents and the loss of life could have been avoided if we were making use of this finished portion of our Interstate.

It is also reasonable to believe that if our politicos in office directed more of their attention to the work at hand, namely, "The Watchfulness of the Citizenry," instead of spending so much of their time galavanting around promoting their own selfish aspirations, slinging dirt and mud into the political arenas, many lives and many dollars in the way of property damage accidents could be saved.

The accident rate, the high number of fatalities on our highways, the manner in which we are handling this special session of the Legislature are a mess. How can any politician do a good job for his constituents from Washington if he can't properly administer or handle situations at home?

We Have Two Governors

The annual elections are over.

Nebraska has a new Boys State governor and a new Girls State governor.

The young people in their separate sections filled other state, county and school posts.

As usual it was a good election. The candidates treated their opponents with civility. The issues were all constructive and argued on their merits. Good will was in evidence everywhere.

Soon now, the young citizens will return to their respective homes, full of heady memories, a keener appreciation of their state and a better grasp of the political practices. We hope they will proceed from here into the deeper philosophies of government in a free society. This would complete their very good training for citizenship.

The promotion of Boys State and Girls State was a happy one, constructive in every point of view for, in our society, the citizen has the responsiblity of proprietorship and if he is a good citizen he must acquire the knowlege that makes such responsibility real and constructive.

While the two States provide examples of leadership, how it is attained and what qualities are essential to it, they are more valuable in teaching the proper performance of citizenship. Many of these young people will never run for office, but their sessions in Boys State and Girls State will keep them ever familiar with their life long public duties.

They Are OUR Scoundrels

We have just been treated to a great human mystery.

They held an election in Russia. And the people believed they were exercising their democratic rights by voting.

The hitch was, there wasn't any real contest. The communist apparatus did all the nominating and saw to it in most instances that there was only one nominee for an office, the man they had picked for the office. Woe to the voter who was a bad enough citizen to write in a more preferable candidate.

The election, therefore, was actually settled long before there was any voting and it came out exactly as expected.

In this country that would be called political corruption. We are always trying to get rid of it.

But it recalls the old days in some of the Nebraska small communities there was, now and then, a similar piece of skulduggery. There would be times when a local political wheel horse or a small group of such would dominate both party caucuses and they would see to it that their candidates for an office would be nominated. That way they couldn't lose the election.

One night after such goings on an honest man was riding home with a wheel horse who had succeeded in getting both of his men nominated for a key office. He objected saying, "Why both of the candidates are scoundrels. How could you do this?"

The wheel horse replied. "You forget. They may be scoundrels. But they are OUR scoundrels."

The City Problem

President Johnson recently comforted the mayors of our large cities who were meeting for joint worry over great and increasing urban problems.

Local debt has increased ten times as fast as national debt as cities have striven to serve their increasing populations and their increasing problems. Yet it is a losing battle.

Smog, the keenest problems of poverty, inability of enforcement against crime, bureaucracies too massive to deal with problems in detail, traffic problems, tax burdens and any number of other burdening concerns are combining to overcome the advantages of urban living.

What to do about it? One doubts that anything can be permanently accomplished by dealing with symptoms. It is like trying to combat the frigidity of the frozen arctic. Building furnaces over all that waste space can give a little local heat, but the fact remains that cold is an abiding article in the arctic and will reclaim it utterly once the fires are out.

We must face the fact that things like smog result from too many people doing too many things in too small an area. We must face the fact that large cities, by their largeness, create most of the problems we are trying to solve.

A further fact is we have permitted our cities to become too large for their own good and there is no act of Congress that can remedy this short of making it illegal to be so large.

We should force the dispersal of cities of more than 500,000 simply for the reason that when bigger than that they enter into the area of diminishing returns. But of course nothing short of revolution will do that.

Open Housing Is Stumbling Block

WASHINGTON—Civil rights legislation is locked up in a House Judiciary subcommittee while Chairman Emanuel Celler, New York Democrat, and Rep. William McCulloch of Ohio, ranking Republican, research the possibilities for compromise, particularly in its open-housing provisions.

They are much at the mercy of outside events. When James Meredith was shot in the back on his Mississippi pilgrimage, pressure mounted for fast action. The California primaries, with their unmistakable overtones of a white backlash against open housing, suggested the need for political caution on the new breakthrough.

More feared are the disorders and rioting that summer may bring. Framers of the new bill realize that all bets are off in that case. A bitter struggle of uncertain outcome could follow, or the issue could be dropped, with political risks ensuing which are equally uncertain.

Celler and McCulloch have in past years managed to find a middle ground making it impossible for civil rights to become an issue between the parties nationally. It has never been easy to do, and this year is the more difficult because open housing is an economic issue which cuts across party lines.

A further problem arises this summer. The old master of the flexible position which makes instant decision either way possible until the last moment, Sen. Everett Dirksen, is back at work but not yet himself in grasp and vigor.

House Republicans are not eager to commit themselves to any solution until they can be sure what the Senate Republican leader will do. To date they have not been able to get light and leading, or any relevant clues to Dirksen's thinking.

McCulloch is the more immediately troubled. Yet it is a fact that Sen. Mike Mansfield is reluctant to commit a Democratic majority on civil rights until he can be sure that Dirksen is satisfied. Mansfield believes Republican votes are indispensable in this area, but he knows also, though he will never admit it, that his friend, Ev, is adept at mischief-making. It is only discreet to get the Dirksen terms in advance.

The South is being cagey as it awaits the new federal patterns now being discussed. Even extremists there seem content to let liberals outside the South wrestle with their own consciences as the first real crunch on civil rights afflicts them in their own constituencies. Only one House Southerner attacked the measure before the Celler subcommittee.

California is not unique, the liberals admit. Many are getting heavy mail opposing open housing even from states where racial moderation has been the rule.

UPI anticipated the Postal Department by asking news bureaus around the country and abroad to mail letters to a certain man in southern Illinois. The man was Sam Hancock, manager of UPI's bureau in Marion, a community of 11,500, 115 miles southeast of St. Louis. Marion is deep in Illinois coal mining country and its problems in getting the mail are similar to those of communities of similar size throughout the country.

All the letters to Hancock were mailed at noon local time last April 18. Some were sent air special, some air mail, some by zip code, some regular without zip code. Hancock was asked to check when the letters arrived in his office in the Marion Republican building, and came up with the following findings:

Air mail special and straight air mail letter mailed from Anchorage, Alaska, arrived at the same time on April 20 as did letters mailed the same way in Atlanta, Ga.

A straight air mail letter from Charleston, S.C., arrived 20 hours ahead of air mail special, zip code and regular mail. The last three showed up in a dead heat on April 20.

A zip code letter from Providence, R.I., came in the day after a letter from Providence without zip code.

A straight air mail letter from Springfield, Mass., was checked in on April 19, four and a half hours ahead of an air mail special.

An air mail special from Miami breezed in on the 19th. Air mail, zipe code and regular limped in at 9 a.m., on the 21st.

These were the quirks in Hancock's accounting. Generally, the mail performed as advertised, although in a town the size of Marion, it was often difficult to measure the nuances between air special and air mail and zip code and regular mail. Delivery times ranged from less than 24 hours, from such cities as nearby Springfield, Ill., to three days.

Hancock's foreign mail, all of it airmailed, averaged three to four days' travel time—about the same as air mail from Honolulu. Making it in three days were letters from Copenhagen, Rome, Stockholm, Frankfurt, Brussels, Helsinki, Vienna, the Hague and Paris. Four-day laggards were from Barcelona, Oslo, Lisbon and Belgrade. The test of Poland's mail delivery didn't measure up to these standards. A letter mailed from Warsaw got to Hancock almost two months later, on June 10.

The three-day delivery from Rome to Marion beat that enjoyed—or suffered—by many Romans. The UPI Rome bureau wrote "a letter can sometimes take four days to get from one side of Rome to the other." Some of the European postal reports could make Americans jealous. Britain set the pace with 24-hour service, and many other countries matched it. A Portuguese mailman will find you even if the envelope carries just your name and the word "Lisbon."

A special delivery letter mailed from one point in Vienna to another arrives in three hours (although in Oslo it may take days to get a letter from one zone of the city to another). Copenhagen mailboxes are emptied 13 times a day. Such records don't impress U.S. mailmen. Their answer is that this country has more mail. Much more. In the "mail explosion" of the 60's, the U.S. mails handle 74 billion pieces of mail a year. On an average day, the United States processes as much mail as the rest of the world combined. The combined volume of mail in Los Angeles, New York, Chicago and Washington, the Post Office Department says, would almost equal that of Britain and top those of France, Italy or Japan. Every year, the mailmen figure, the average American gets 371 pieces of mail. By 1970, they say, the national mail volume will be 90.3 billion and by 1980 115 billion.

U.S. Load Is Heavy

The postal system used to be geared to the railroads. But in the last 10 years, the volume of mail has risen 30 percent while the train service has dwindled by 66 percent. Postal manpower is harder to get, is more expensive, post offices are bulging, and there aren't enough of them.

Meanwhile, mailmen stoutly endure the brickbats and insist that the five-cent stamp is still the best buy for the money in the country. Of course, there are embarrassing moments such as the Mountain View, Calif., postmaster's explanation of why 150 postal employes didn't get their paychecks in time last April. They had been lost in the mail.

We Have Two Governors

The annual elections are over.

Nebraska has a new Boys State governor and a new Girls State governor.

The young people in their separate sections filled other state, county and school posts.

As usual it was a good election. The candidates treated their opponents with civility. The issues were all constructive and argued on their merits. Good will was in evidence everywhere.

Soon now, the young citizens will return to their respective homes, full of heady memories, a keener appreciation of their state, and a better grasp of the political practices. We hope they will proceed from here into the deeper philosophies of government in a free society. This would complete their very good training for citizenship.

The promotion of Boys State and Girls State was a happy one, constructive in every point of view for, in our society, the citizen has the responsiblity of proprietorship and if he is a good citizen he must acquire the knowlege that makes such responsibility real and constructive.

While the two States provide examples of leadership, how it is attained and what qualities are essential to it, they are more valuable in teaching the proper performance of citizenship. Many of these young people will never run for office, but their sessions in Boys State and Girls State will keep them ever familiar with their life long public duties.

They Are OUR Scoundrels

We have just been treated to a great human mystery.

They held an election in Russia. And the people believed they were exercising their democratic rights by voting.

The hitch was, there wasn't any real contest. The communist apparatus did all the nominating and saw to it in most instances that there was only one nominee for an office, the man they had picked for the office. Woe to the voter who was a bad enough citizen to write in a more preferable candidate.

The election, therefore, was actually settled long before there was any voting and it came out exactly as expected.

In this country that would be called political corruption. We are always trying to get rid of it.

But it recalls the old days in some of the Nebraska small communities there was, now and then, a similar piece of skulduggery. There would be times when a local political wheel horse or a small group of such would dominate both party caucuses and they would see to it that their candidates for an office would be nominated. That way they couldn't lose the election.

One night after such goings on an honest man was riding home with a wheel horse who had succeeded in getting both of his men nominated for a key office. He objected saying, "Why both of the candidates are scoundrels. How could you do this?"

The wheel horse replied. "You forget. They may be scoundrels. But they are OUR scoundrels."

The City Problem

President Johnson recently comforted the mayors of our large cities who were meeting for joint worry over great and increasing urban problems.

Local debt has increased ten times as fast as national debt as cities have striven to serve their increasing populations and their increasing problems. Yet it is a losing battle.

Smog, the keenest problems of poverty, inability of enforcement against crime, bureaucracies too massive to deal with problems in detail, traffic problems, tax burdens and any number of other burdening concerns are combining to overcome the advantages of urban living.

What to do about it? One doubts that anything can be permanently accomplished by dealing with symptoms. It is like trying to combat the frigidity of the frozen arctic. Building furnaces over all that waste space can give a little local heat, but the fact remains that cold is an abiding article in the arctic and will reclaim it utterly once the fires are out.

We must face the fact that things like smog result from too many people doing too many things in too small an area. We must face the fact that large cities, by their largeness, create most of the problems we are trying to solve.

A further fact is we have permitted our cities to become too large for their own good and there is no act of Congress that can remedy this short of making it illegal to be so large.

We should force the dispersal of cities of more than 500,000 simply for the reason that when bigger than that they enter into the area of diminishing returns. But of course nothing short of revolution will do that.

Sought Contract For Nazi Factory

WASHINGTON — One important chapter in the unique career of Maj. Gen. Julius Klein, close confidant of Sen. Tom Dodd, D-Conn., is his lobbying for a former Nazi company to get a $75,000,000 contract to manufacture arms for the U.S. Armed Forces.

Klein is the foreign agent who induced Sen. Dodd to go to Germany to rescue his, Klein's, public relations accounts at a time when those accounts were jeopardized by a Senate investigation.

Thanks to the fact that a U.S. senator who is a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, a close friend of President Johnson's, and a former Nazi war crimes prosecutor undertook this mission, Klein was able to retain his West German clients.

One of these is Rheinmetall of Dusseldorf, Hitler's second largest arms manufacturer, which had been seeking a Defense Department contract to manufacture the 20 mm Hispano-Suiza rapid-firing cannon. Klein lobbied vigorously for this contract, a contract which had the following reverberations in the United States:

1. It contributed to the closing of the century-and-a-half-old Springfield, Mass., armory which has been turning out weapons for the American Army ever since the Revolutionary War.

2. It was opposed by Jewish leaders throughout the United States because of Rheinmetall's past Nazi connections.

Gen. Klein has made much of his religion. He has boasted that he is a past commander of the Jewish War Veterans, and in one of his many lengthy letters to editors protesting this column's reporting of his connections with Sen. Dodd, Gen. Klein mentioned the fact that he was a Jew no less than eleven times.

Nevertheless, Klein served as a paid agent and did his best to get a U.S. contract for a company which employed slave labor during the war, never made restitution to these unfortunate victims, and is run by five officers, three of whom are former Nazi party members.

Two, President Otto Paul Caesar and Ernest Boume, are reported to have been plant managers for Rheinmetall Borsig AG during the war.

According to a protest registered with Secretary of Defense Robert McNamara by Adolph Held, president of the Jewish Labor Committee, Rheinmetall "sought out and employed concentration camp inmates for exploitation in its arms factories.

"A special camp for Jewish women and girls recruited from Buchenwald by Rheinmetall was built by Rheinmetall at Sommerda in Thuringia. Over 1,200 Jewish women were employed in that camp alone. The evidence is overwhelming that they were forced to work under the most inhumane circumstances."

Open Housing Is Stumbling Block

WASHINGTON—Civil rights legislation is locked up in a House Judiciary subcommittee while Chairman Emanuel Celler, New York Democrat, and Rep. William McCulloch of Ohio, ranking Republican, research the possibilities for compromise, particularly in its open-housing provisions.

They are much at the mercy of outside events. When James Meredith was shot in the back on his Mississippi pilgrimage, pressure mounted for fast action. The California primaries, with their unmistakable overtones of a white backlash against open housing, suggested the need for political caution on the new breakthrough.

More feared are the disorders and rioting that summer may bring. Framers of the new bill realize that all bets are off in that case. A bitter struggle of uncertain outcome could follow, or the issue could be dropped, with political risks ensuing which are equally uncertain.

Celler and McCulloch have in past years managed to find a middle ground making it impossible for civil rights to become an issue between the parties nationally. It has never been easy to do, and this year is the more difficult because open housing is an economic issue which cuts across party lines.

A further problem arises this summer. The old master of the flexible position which makes instant decision either way possible until the last moment, Sen. Everett Dirksen, is back at work but not yet himself in grasp and vigor.

House Republicans are not eager to commit themselves to any solution until they can be sure what the Senate Republican leader will do. To date they have not been able to get light and leading, or any relevant clues to Dirksen's thinking.

McCulloch is the more immediately troubled. Yet it is a fact that Sen. Mike Mansfield is reluctant to commit a Democratic majority on civil rights until he can be sure that Dirksen is satisfied. Mansfield believes Republican votes are indispensable in this area, but he knows also, though he will never admit it, that his friend, Ev, is adept at mischief-making. It is only discreet to get the Dirksen terms in advance.

The South is being cagey as it awaits the new federal patterns now being discussed. Even extremists there seem content to let liberals outside the South wrestle with their own consciences as the first real crunch on civil rights afflicts them in their own constituencies. Only one House Southerner attacked the measure before the Celler subcommittee.

California is not unique, the liberals admit. Many are getting heavy mail opposing open housing even from states where racial moderation has been the rule.

MARQUIS CHILDS

Cities Have Worst Problem

DALLAS — Kind words and earnest promises were the gifts of the Johnson administration to the restive mayors of America's cities at their annual conference here. Offered up with appropriate flourishes by Vice President Hubert Humphrey and other articulate spokesmen, they are nevertheless unlikely to allay the disquiet that is the prevailing mood.

The men who struggle from day to day with the problem of the cities must run hard just to stay in place. Whether it is air and water pollution, the tragic human waste of inadequate education, foul housing, the rising crime rate or traffic jams, they know they are falling behind all the time.

The attack on the continuing decay must be on a far greater scale than anyone has yet dared to propose. The mayors understand that only too well. Yet just as this comes into sharp focus, with an administration in Washington understanding the need, the demands of the war in Viet Nam cut across even the limited proposals the Johnson administration has put forward.

A mayor's life is not a happy one. He and his representatives must beat a path to Washington and the federal treasury in many instances merely to keep afloat. In addition, he must cope with a state legislature and a governor who may be bent on doing him in.

Mayor John V. Lindsay could stay only a day before rushing back to confront Gov. Nelson Rockefeller in Albany in the hope that the legislature can be persuaded to pass a compromise tax bill. New York City is poised on the brink of bankruptcy, and the issue is whether teachers, police, hospital attendants — the city's 300,000 employees — will be paid in the months ahead.

Looking like everybody's ideal of the reform mayor, Lindsay began his administration with a subway strike shutting the city down and ending in a 26 percent wage increase that is a target for other city employees.

The mayors deal with the nuts and bolts of politics—sewers, water systems, parking meters. They must meet the daily needs of an ever-expanding urban population, and the glamor issues of foreign policy and states rights versus federalism are outside their province. In contrast to the annual conclave of state governors, where three or four potential presidents are on display, no one here is on that trajectory.

Yet there are two candidates for the United States Senate with a conspicuous potential. One is mayor Jereome P. Cavanagh of Detroit. Cavanagh, running against the choice of organized labor and the Democratic establishment in Michigan, G. Mennen (Soapy) Williams, is responsive to the deep undercurrent of uncertainty over the Viet Nam war. Campaigning throughout the state, he has found almost every audience applauding his call for a greater effort to negotiate a peaceful settlement and a pause in the escalation of the war.

The other candidate is Mayor John F. Collins of Boston. A tough, hard fighter, Collins is also battling the Democratic organization. It happens that both, and notably Cavanagh, have been first-rate mayors.

The squeeze that cripples the cities at the very point at which they need greatly expanded services can be shown in cold, hard figures. Mayor Ralph S. Locher of Cleveland pointed out that while local government debt had increased 395 percent between 1946 and 1964, the total federal debt had gone up only 16 percent. Locher presented these figures in making the case for a $6 billion federal program for construction of sewage treatment plants and other water pollution controls.

Inflation is adding to the squeeze. In the three years after 1960 according to Mayor Neal S. Blaisdell of Honolulu, president of the conference, per capita municipal expenditures in large cities rose by an average of 36 percent. And this was only for the fundamental services that mean survival.

Regardless of party affiliation, the mayors almost without exception stressed the importance of persuading Congress to come through with more money for the cities. But in this there is an unwitting irony. For if some of the more astute politicians assembled here are correct — and mayors are inevitably close to the grass roots — the Democrats in Congress will suffer heavy losses in November. This will mean a revival of the conservative coalition of southern Democrats and Republicans and the curtailment if not the end of the programs the mayors consider vital.

Misery, as the old saw has it, loves company. And these men who carry such a heavy burden of responsibility like nothing better than to talk shop and compare notes on the respective problems they face. They are members of one of the most restricted trade unions in the country.

Smart-Alecks

Lincoln, Neb.

I doubt if anyone will read or pay any attention to this but I have a suggestion for the city head men, when they run the maintainer over the dirt streets, why not pad that loose dirt down a bit with the city sprinkler? Not a lot but just enough so that when the smart-alecks come along and a person is walking, they can't blow dirt in our faces.

If they think that's smart, they have a lot to learn before they're 40. They need to learn that they will get back just what they dish out in this life or the next one, and maybe more by way of meanness.

The Contrast

Lincoln, Neb.

The United States is not the only one that builds dams, just the one that destroys irreplaceable marvels of nature. Egypt, too, is having water problems. In January, 1964, work was started to protect the Temples of god King Ramses. Engineers from all over the world figured and gave estimates of cost on saving these fabulous creations by men around 1274 B.C.

They were cut from a rock bluff 3,200 years ago, are 673 feet high and the temples so built that only twice yearly will the sun shine into the innermost chambers, blessing the statues of the ruler.

Today the proposed flooding of the Nile threatened these treasures of antiquity. At a beginning cost of $36 million, Egypt and the United States began this project. As workmen struggle to save man-made art of centuries past, the entirety must be moved back 690 feet from the shore of the Nile. The new reservoir for irrigation and power will ultimately stretch 310 miles and average six miles in width. It must be completed by August, 1966.

As they strive to protect, many more are planning to destroy forever the grandeur of the Grand Canyon here in our country, which could never be replaced by the puny hands of man.

Vine Street Crossing

Lincoln, Neb.

The Vine Street crossing of the Rock Island railroad tracks has become nearly unbelievable and certainly unbearable. I should like to ask who has the responsibility for maintaining such crossings, the city or the railroad? If it is the city, I should like to know who is responsible for this travesty to the modern automobile. If it is the railroad, I should like to know how much they are paying the city to avoid their responsibility.

C. DAVID ROBERTS

Editor's Note: The responsibility for maintaining such crossings lies with the railroad.

Lincoln, Neb.

The accident rate and the number of fatalities on our highways thus far in 1966 is an appalling figure and as we go into the summer vacation season, there is every indication that the situation will be even worse the last half of the year.

It's a crying shame that the 18 miles of the finished Interstate, west of the Milford Interchange at Highway 15 to the Beaver Crossing intersection and then north to Highways 2 and 34 are not open to general passenger car traffic.

This brings a person back to Highways 2 and 34, just east of Utica and one thus bypasses the many curves on the narrow and treacherous highway in the Seward area.

A similar situation existed at Grand Island at a very dangerous intersection and now since the Interstate bypasses Grand Island, the situation has been corrected.

Since the first of the year, there have been many high property damage accidents and one or possibly more fatalities in the Seward area. It is reasonable to believe that many of these accidents and the loss of life could have been avoided if we were making use of this finished portion of our Interstate.

It is also reasonable to believe that if our politicos in office directed more of their attention to the work at hand, namely, "The Watchfulness of the Citizenry," instead of spending so much of their time galavanting around promoting their own selfish aspirations, slinging dirt and mud into the political arenas, many lives and many dollars in the way of property damage accidents could be saved.

The accident rate, the high number of fatalities on our highways, the manner in which we are handling this special session of the Legislature are a mess. How can any politician do a good job for his constituents from Washington if he can't properly administer or handle situations at home?

POSTCARD by Stan Delaplane

Sunny days around our suburban scatter. "It takes a heap of living to make a house a home," said the poet.

It takes a heap of people to hold a house together.

The pest control man ($6.50 per month) came this morning. He puttered around under the house and came out and said: "You've got some kind of plumbing leak down there."

I said: "What do I care about down there? You should see the leak we've got in the bathroom."

He said: "Well, it's getting into the wood, and the foundations might collapse. I thought I'd tell you."

My personal foundations are collapsing daily, confound it. (However, the mortgage is as good as new.)

Mending the plumbing is chancy business. Plumbers around here got themselves a raise lately — $14 per hour.

If they only come for a minute and look at the leak, it is still $14.

I figure we have about $11.50 worth of leak now. I am waiting for a $3.50 leak—for our $14 worth. But if we spring say a $4 leak, we get into the second hour. Another $14.

It's a gamble. Meanwhile, things are getting pretty soggy.

Once I went into soft water to save money. A soft water man came around and figured on the back of an envelope.

"Figures don't lie," he said. "Less soap, more lather. You save the cost of soft water in soap."

He put in the soft water thing — it was a lease basis.

Well, I don't know whether it saved soap. But it certainly made soap work for a living.

You soaped up in the shower. Rinsed it off. Only it didn't rinse off. Just kept on bubbling and lathering. It was like a champagne aftermath. Every time you put water on yourself, you gave off clouds of bubbles.

Consequently, everything got more rinsing. Us and the dishes.

The water bill went up tremendously.

The garden needs attention — and gardeners cost a pretty penny. You can get the most expensive blooms from the nursery. Put them in vitamin-enriched top soil. And they curl up and die miserably.

A couple of doors are beginning to warp. Why should a door — nicely treated, seldom slammed — change its shape? It is one of life's mysteries.

How can a rust-proof screen begin to rust?

How can a mere child tear the rabbit ears antenna off a TV set? With one hand?

Why does a vacuum cleaner stop sucking in dust and start blowing it out?

A house is like war. You never know where your reserves will be called next.

The agonizing reappraisal: "If we fix the record player, can we get a new top for the incinerator?"

The backyard emergency: "Johnny broke the swing again!"

The hand-to-hand combat: "Who took the pliers?"

The night patrol: "Do you smell something strange? Like smoke?"

The armistice: "Call the repair people."

There should be some sort of federal aid for my program. If the President wants to war on poverty, I can show him the battlefield. If Mrs. LBJ wants to beautify the country, take a look at my garden.

I am fighting inflation by being deflated. I am a patriot. Help!

Distribution Of May Gas Tax Receipts Announced

State Treasurer Fred Sorensen announced Tuesday the distribution of $1,471,544 in May state gasoline tax receipts, with Douglas County getting the largest share, $164,716

Other major county allotments included $87,026 to Lancaster, $42,650 to Scotts Bluff, $35,526 to Gage, $33,771 to Hall and $30,096 to Adams.

Omaha received $69,915 to top cities and villages in the allotment of May gas tax funds to municipalities. Also receiving major shares were Lincoln, $29,793; Grand Island, $5,967; Hastings, $4,963; Fremont, $4,566; North Platte, $3,983; Kearney, $3,294, and Scottsbluff, $3,101.

A total of $1,583,638 was distributed to counties and $227,128 to cities and villages. The state general fund received $53,907.

The gasoline tax allotments are made in accordance with a formula adopted by the 1965 Legislature.

How medical knowledge fights

acid indigestion

A leading stomach specialist reports that a little white penny tablet, with a special calcium-magnesium formula beats products costing five and six times as much in fighting acid indigestion. The proof came from tests on over 100 people at a famous medical center. What is this remarkable tablet? TUMS®. Stomach specialists know TUMS is no mere candy mint. Tests show it is the medicine for acid indigestion. TUMS.

Once I went into soft water to save money. A soft water man came around and figured on the back of an envelope.

"Figures don't lie," he said. "Less soap, more lather. You save the cost of soft water in soap."

He put in the soft water thing — it was a lease basis.

Well, I don't know whether it saved soap. But it certainly made soap work for a living.

You soaped up in the shower. Rinsed it off. Only it didn't rinse off. Just kept on bubbling and lathering. It was like a champagne aftermath. Every time you put water on yourself, you gave off clouds of bubbles.

Consequently, everything got more rinsing. Us and the dishes.

The water bill went up tremendously.

The garden needs attention — and gardeners cost a pretty penny. You can get the most expensive blooms from the nursery. Put them in vitamin-enriched top soil. And they curl up and die miserably.

A couple of doors are beginning to warp. Why should a door — nicely treated, seldom slammed — change its shape? It is one of life's mysteries.

How can a rust-proof screen begin to rust?

How can a mere child tear the rabbit ears antenna off a TV set? With one hand?

Why does a vacuum cleaner stop sucking in dust and start blowing it out?

A house is like war. You never know where your reserves will be called next.

The agonizing reappraisal: "If we fix the record player, can we get a new top for the incinerator?"

The backyard emergency: "Johnny broke the swing again!"

The hand-to-hand combat: "Who took the pliers?"

The night patrol: "Do you smell something strange? Like smoke?"

The armistice: "Call the repair people."

There should be some sort of federal aid for my program. If the President wants to war on poverty, I can show him the battlefield. If Mrs. LBJ wants to beautify the country, take a look at my garden.

I am fighting inflation by being deflated. I am a patriot. Help!

Col. Carl Yost To Coordinate ROTC Summer Training

Col. Carl R. Yost, professor of military science at the University of Nebraska, will coordinate the summer encampment for more than 1,500 ROTC cadets at Fort Riley, Kansas this summer.

Students from 38 colleges and universities will participate in the six-week summer training program beginning June 25.

Colonel Yost will serve as deputy camp commander; last year he was assistant deputy camp commander. Sixty-three University of Nebraska ROTC cadets will take part in the camp.

A veteran of 30 years of service in the Army, Col. Yost will retire from military service this summer. He will become comptroller at the university this fall.

Distribution Of May Gas Tax Receipts Announced

State Treasurer Fred Sorensen announced Tuesday the distribution of $4,471,544 in May state gasoline tax receipts, with Douglas County getting the largest share, $164,716.

Other major county allotments included $87,026 to Lancaster, $42,650 to Scotts Bluff, $35,526 to Gage, $33,771 to Hall and $30,096 to Adams.

Omaha received $69,915 to top cities and villages in the allotment of May gas tax funds to municipalities. Also receiving major shares were Lincoln, $29,793; Grand Island, $5,967; Hastings, $4,963; Fremont, $4,566; North Platte, $3,983; Kearney, $3,294, and Scottsbluff, $3,101.

A total of $1,583,638 was distributed to counties and $227,188 to cities and villages. The state general fund received $53,907.

The gasoline tax allotments are made in accordance with a formula adopted by the 1965 Legislature.

How medical knowledge fights
acid indigestion

A leading stomach specialist reports that a little white penny tablet, with a special calcium-magnesium formula, beats products costing five and six times as much in fighting acid indigestion. The proof came from tests on over 100 people at a famous medical center. What is this remarkable tablet? TUMS®. Stomach specialists know TUMS is no mere candy mint. Tests show it is the medicine for acid indigestion. TUMS.

Willis Offers Anti-Klan Bill

Washington (AP)—Rep. Edwin E. Willis, D-La., introduced Tuesday a bill "to punish, curb and eliminate the reprehensible, terroristic activities" of the Ku Klux Klan.

Willis is chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, which has been investigating the Klan.

Willis said in a speech to the House that his measure would not be limited to the Klan.

It is intended, he said, "to curb and punish all organized terroristic activities of the kind the Klans have used — and to punish them, no matter what organization attempts to use them."

A key portion of the bill would permit the attorney general to seek federal court injunctions against activities by clandestine organizations aimed at breaking federal laws or at violence, harassment or intimidation of individual citizens.

Such injunctions — if violated — could be punished through contempt-of-court proceedings. Such a procedure had been urged earlier by Rep. Charles L. Weltner, D-Ga., a committee member. Weltner introduced Tuesday a bill similar to Willis's.

The Willis bill also would provide for contempt proceedings against any witness who refuses to testify or produce records in such a case after being given immunity by the court.

Seven men identified by the committee as Klan leaders—among them Imperial Wizard Robert M. Shelton, have been indicted on contempt-of-Congress charges after refusing to provide records asked by HUAC.

Another part of the bill Willis introduced would provide penalties up to life imprisonment for members or agents of clandestine organizations convicted of murdering, assaulting or kidnaping any person in interstate commerce.

Bedbugs May Sniff Out Viet Cong

Aberdeen, Md. (AP) — The Army showed off its man-sniffing bedbugs Tuesday.

They were the real thing in what the Army called an "insect personnel detector," an accordion-type cylinder which has a wire mesh hooked up to an electric amplifier.

Hopefully, a U.S. soldier walking along heavy underbrush in Viet Nam could point the detector ahead of him and, as the bedbug smelled humans, he could perhaps detect Viet Cong laying in ambush.

Here's the way the device works:

The bugs become highly active when they sense humans. The scraping of their movement on the sensitive mesh sends an amplified noise to a headset carried by the soldier.

In Early Stage

Col. Robert W. McEvoy, commanding officer of the Army's Limited War Laboratory, told the first press group escorted around the facility near here that the detection device is in early development stage.

"There are indications we might have something," McEvoy said, "but we are not pinning high shopes on it."

The detector shown Tuesday, McEvoy said, probably cost about $200 to make at the laboratory, which was set up in 1962 to help provide relatively quick scientific answers to hardware problems that developed in such areas as Viet Nam.

In the rugged, jungle area of Viet Nam, locating the enemy is a tremendous problem.

McEvoy said the bedbug-powered manhunter has one obvious drawback. A soldier carrying the detector must have the wind blowing toward him to carry the scent of humans ahead into a small piece of plastic tubing which carries air to the bugs housed in a small plastic chamber.

Prevents Sniff

This same tubing prevents the blood-hungry bugs from getting a sniff of his master or friendly troops behind.

Four to six bugs are carried in the device, which is squeezed like an accordion to pull air and odor inside.

What do they eat?

"We feed them rabbit blood in the laboratory," McEvoy said.

He smiled. "They require very little logistics," he said.

And, he noted, they seem to work better when hungry.

Do they bite people?

"We haven't tested that," he replied.

Grand Coulee Would Regain No. 1 Position

Washington (AP)—Grand Coulee Dam, on the Columbia River Northwest of Spokane, Wash., would become the largest single source of water power in the world under a new law signed by President Johnson Tuesday.

The law authorizes a third power plant, to cost $390 million, at the dam. Johnson asked Congress for $3 million now to get the project started.

The new Grand Coulee plant will add 3.6 million kilowatts to make the total capacity there 5.6 million kilowatts.

Grand Coulee Dam, completed in 1941, is the largest concrete dam and the greatest single source of water power in the United States.

When it was completed wtih its first powerhouses, it was the world's biggest hydroelectric producer.

Since then, Russia has built three larger, the biggest being on the Angara River in Siberia with a 3.5 million kilowatts capacity.

Princess Suga Returns

Tokyo (AP) — Mrs. Takaka Shimazu, the former Princess Suga and youngest daughter of Emperor Hirohito and Empress Nagako, returned with her husband and 4-year old son after residing in the United States for two years. Her husband, Hisanaga Shimazu, 32, an employe of the government export-import bank of Japan, was reassigned to the home office from Washington, D.C.

Graham Draws 18,500

London (UPI) — American evangelist Billy Graham preached to a less-than-capacity crowd of 18,500 in the Earls Court Exhibition Hall but still drew inquiries from 550 people seeking to widen their knowledge of religion.

Dodd Wins Two Points

Washington (AP)—Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., won a couple of preliminary arguments Tuesday in his $2 million libel suit against columnists Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson.

(1) Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff denied a motion by the columnists' lawyers that the senator's suit be dismissed on the ground the complaint is too prolix (repetitious and bulky).

(2) The judge disagreed with the columnists' argument that James P. Boyd Jr., disaffected former administrative assistant to Dodd, acted under a compelling legal obligation when he entered the senator's office, removed hundreds of documents and had copies turned over to Pearson and Anderson.

If He Hadn't

Warren Woods, counsel for Anderson, contended that Boyd would have been open to a charge of concealment of felony if he had not divulged alleged illegal misconduct by Dodd

Holtzoff said that if Dodd committed any felony, and Boyd knew about it, Boyd would have been obligated only to tell the district attorney, the FBI or other authorities.

John Donovan, lawyer for Pearson, argued that the Dodd side, by filing a 28-page complaint and a big bundle of exhibits, infringed a court rule that such complaints must contain a "short and plain statement of the claim."

But the judge ruled that what's prolix in one case may not be so in another.

Among other things, Dodd accuses the columnists of illegally publishing one of his income tax returns; falsely alleging that in return for expensive gifts he acted as an "errand boy" for Julius Klein, registered agent for West German business interests; and falsely alleging that he acted in concert with Michael Struelens, former representative of Katanga province, to frustrate U S policy in the Congo.

Dodd Wins Two Points

Washington (AP)—Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., won a couple of preliminary arguments Tuesday in his $2 million libel suit against columnists Drew Pearson and Jack Anderson.

(1) Federal Judge Alexander Holtzoff denied a motion by the columnists' lawyers that the senator's suit be dismissed on the ground the complaint is too prolix (repetitious and bulky).

(2) The judge disagreed with the columnists' argument that James P. Boyd Jr., disaffected former administrative assistant to Dodd, acted under a compelling legal obligation when he entered the senator's office, removed hundreds of documents and had copies turned over to Pearson and Anderson.

If He Hadn't

Warren Woods, counsel for Anderson, contended that Boyd would have been open to a charge of concealment of felony if he had not divulged alleged illegal misconduct by Dodd.

Holtzoff said that if Dodd committed any felony, and Boyd knew about it, Boyd would have been obligated only to tell the district attorney, the FBI or other authorities.

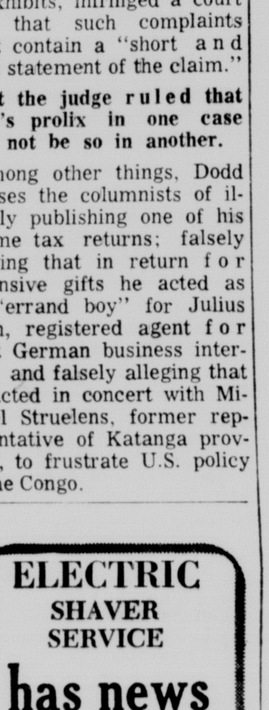

John Donovan, lawyer for Pearson, argued that the Dodd side, by filing a 28-page complaint and a big bundle of exhibits, infringed a court rule that such complaints must contain a "short and plain statement of the claim."

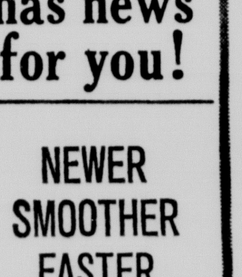

But the judge ruled that what's prolix in one case may not be so in another.

Among other things, Dodd accuses the columnists of illegally publishing one of his income tax returns; falsely alleging that in return for expensive gifts he acted as an "errand boy" for Julius Klein, registered agent for West German business interests; and falsely alleging that he acted in concert with Michael Struelens, former representative of Katanga province, to frustrate U.S. policy in the Congo.

Lancaster, Gage Add Requests

For Drought Designation

Gage and Lancaster Counties have asked to be designated drought disaster areas and a similar request is expected from Saline County, Hans Jensen, state Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) chairman, said Tuesday.

No immediate action will be taken on the requests, he indicated.

"We're going to rest on our oars momentarily and see if any more come in," he said.

Seven Nebraska counties already have been recommended by Gov. Frank Morrison for drought disaster designation, which would permit farmers to harvest hay and graze livestock on diverted and conservation reserve acreage

Federal approval in the case of these seven counties is awaited.

The counties are Franklin, Webster, Nuckolls, Fillmore, Thayer, Jefferson and Pawnee.

Rains of the past week have been helpful although the area involved in the drought disaster request did not share as heavily in the rain as did some Nebraska areas, Jensen noted.

The moisture helped the wheat crop "but for pasture and hay, it'll take a lot more than this," he said.

Three Delaware Tourists Burned In Camper Blast

Valentine (AP)—Three tourists from Delaware were burned Tuesday when an explosion occurred in a camper parked in the Ferris Trailer Court on the east edge of Valentine.

Hospitalized were Calvin Smith, 37, of Greenwood, Del.; his wife, Joyce, 35, and their daughter, Joyce Ann, 14.

A family traveling with them, the Ralph Smiths of Greenwood, were in another camper and were not hurt.

Police Chief Jim Roush of Valentine said apparently the explosion resulted from a propane gas leak when Smith lighted a cigarette. The camper and its contents were damaged.

Get FASTEETH today at drug counters everywhere.

A SHOT IN THE ARM

When your doctor gives you a shot, you assume it's powerful because it stings. It sometimes eludes us that many of the capsules and tablets our doctors prescribe are every bit as potent and effective as an injection. Only the ouch is gone. The variety of powers in a pill is why some kinds of prescriptions cost more than others. And it's also the reason why all prescriptions should be put away safely, out of the reach of children. Rates OK'd On Cement Shipments

The State Railway Commission cleared the way Tuesday for truckers to get a piece of the multi-million dollar bulk cement shipment business in Nebraska.

The business is now almost exclusively handled by railroads.

The commission on a 4-1 vote approved "workable" mileage rates and rules on the transportation of cement in bulk and bags between points in Nebraska. Commissioner Richard H. Larson dissented.

The rates were requested by Lawrence Brockman, owner of Ready Mix, Inc., of Bloomfield, who received his bulk cement by rail until the Chicago and North Western Railway abandoned its line to Bloomfield.

Brockman told the commission at a March hearing that past class rates for bulk cement shipping by truck, which were nearly four times as great as corresponding rail rates, were so excessive they in effect prohibited such operations.

The Nebraska Sand, Gravel and Ready Mix Concrete Association and the Western Truck Lines Railroads opposed Brockman's application.

The association said the rates proposed by Brockman were higher than those of the railroads and commission approval could force an increase in present rail rates for bulk cement shipments.

The railroads said present rail shipment of bulk cement is more than adequate.

Rates OK'd On Cement Shipments

The State Railway Commission cleared the way Tuesday for truckers to get a piece of the multi-million dollar bulk cement shipment business in Nebraska.

The business is now almost exclusively handled by railroads.

The commission on a 4-1 vote approved "workable" mileage rates and rules on the transportation of cement in bulk and bags between points in Nebraska. Commissioner Richard H. Larson dissented.

The rates were requested by Lawrence Brockman, owner of Ready Mix, Inc., of Bloomfield, who received his bulk cement by rail until the Chicago and North Western Railway abandoned its line to Bloomfield.

Brockman told the commission at a March hearing that past class rates for bulk cement shipping by truck, which were nearly four times as great as corresponding rail rates, were so excessive they in effect prohibited such operations.

The Nebraska Sand, Gravel and Ready Mix Concrete Association and the Western Truck Lines Railroads opposed Brockman's application.

The association said the rates proposed by Brockman were higher than those of the railroads and commission approval could force an increase in present rail rates for bulk cement shipments.

The railroads said present rail shipment of bulk cement is more than adequate.

Senator Russell Loses South Carolina Primary

By The Associated Press

An incumbent senator was defeated handily in the South Carolina Democratic primary Tuesday while in Illinois, two veteran congressmen from Chicago withstood challenges from men half their ages.

Former Gov. Ernest F. Hollings, 44, swept to an unexpectedly easy victory over Sen. Donald S. Russell, 60, in the South Carolina Democratic primary.

Unofficial returns from 682 of the state's 1,615 precincts gave Hollings, a close personal friend of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy of New York, 65,538 votes to 39,026 for Russell, who became one of the earliest casualties of the 1966 congressional elections.

Attention On Chicago

In Illinois, attention centered on the Chicago congressional races involving challenges to Rep. William Dawson, 80, and Rep. Barratt O'Hara, 84.

Dawson, seeking nomination to a 13th term in the House from a district on Chicago's South Side, defeated two other Negroes.

O'Hara, oldest man in the House, had a tougher time defeating State Rep. Abner Mikva, 40.

3,000 Margin

Returns from 302 of 423 precincts gave O'Hara 32,466 votes to 29,371 for Mikva.

O'Hara and Dawson both are longtime allies of the Chicago Democratic organization headed by Mayor Richard J. Daley. The mayor put his prestige on the line in support of both men for renomination.

Charles H. Percy, Chicago industrialist, was nominated in a contest for the Republican nomination for the Senate, but he had only token opposition. Sen. Paul Douglas had no Democratic primary opposition.

Area Horsemen View Drawing Of Suspect

The composite picture of a man possibly involved in the series of horse mutilations occurring in and around Lincoln during the past year was released Tuesday night by the State Safety Patrol.

The picture was passed around a meeting of horse owners for possible identification. The meeting was called to discuss recent developments in the case.

SUSPECT . . . in Safety Patrol drawing.

The composite was made by law enforement artists, combining the various features of the description. The incident which led to the composite, dating back to more than a year ago, was filed with law enforcement agencies recently.

Noose

The witness who described the suspect, a horse owner in northern Lincoln, said that he noticed the man while working in his barn. The suspect, unaware of the horseman's presence, entered the barn and threw a noose around the neck of a Shetland pony.

As he did so, the owner stepped out from where he had been hiding, but the suspect turned and ran as soon as he realized he had been observed.

The suspect is described as about 30, 5-9, stocky, and weighing around 180. He has a gold cap on the second or third tooth from the middle on the left side of his mouth.

He has a scar on the left side of his head just inside the hair line about one inch long. He was wearing a gold ring on the third finger of his left hand similar to a high school class ring.

Lt. L. V. Parks of the Patrol reported several additional calls and letters naming suspects which were being checked out.

Knows About It

"Quite possibly it's being done by more than one man," Parks said. "And judging by the comments of veterinarians who've viewed his work, I'd say it was being done by somebody who knew quite a bit about it."

Earlier, the horse owners of the Lincoln area had posted a $1,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the mutilator.

Airlines Like Board's Plan To Avert Strike

Washington (UPI) — Five major airlines Tuesday accepted the recommendations of an emergency presidential board as the framework for settlement of a strike-threatening contract dispute with the International Association of Machinists.

The union already has denounced the panel's findings as unsatisfactory, and there was no sign of an immediate accord as the two sides began renewed negotiations with Labor Department mediators.

William J. Curtin, chairman of an airline negotiating committee representing TWA, United, Eastern, Northwest and National, wrote President Johnson that the board's recommendations would be "very costly" to the carriers.

Union and airline officials met for about two hours to discuss the report of the panel headed by Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore. It had called for wage boosts for 35,000 union employes involved but rejected several major IAM demands.

Asian, Pacific Nations Agree To Establish Non-Red Organ

Seoul (AP)—Nine Asian and Pacific nations agreed Wednesday to set up a new noncommunist regional organization to promote broad cooperation in many fields, an informed source said. It probably will be called ASPAC for Asian-Pacific.

The agreement came at a closed meeting of foreign ministers and other delegates attending a three-day Asian-Pacific ministerial conference here.

Members of the new organization would be Japan, South Korea, South Viet Nam, the Philippines, Malaysia, Nationalist China, Thailand, Australia and New Zealand. A tenth country, Laos, also attended the meeting, but only as an observer.

Several of the countries were known to favor continuing consultations on a regular basis, but not a new organization. The informed source said, however, that there was agreement to establish a permanent setup with some kind of secretariat.

The source said details about the secretariat and other matters still had to be worked out and that the new organization, at least at first, would be largely consultative.

Controversy also might develop over how binding the organization may be.

Ghana Plans Theater

Accra, Ghana (AP) — "Job 600," a multimillion - dollar building complex erected hurriedly for an African conference last fall by the now exiled ex-President Kwame Nkrumah may become an elaborate theater setup run by the Ghana Tourist Corp. Its 1,000-seat banquet hall, residential building and conference hall seating 2,000 — all air-conditioned — would be converted by the corporation for presentation of world known performers.

3 Whites Charged In Negro's Murder

Natchez, Miss (AP) —Sheriff Odell Anders, Tuesday night charged three white men with murder in the death of a 65-year-old Negro whose bullet-riddled body was found in a creek two days ago.

Two of the men were listed earlier this year by the House Un-American Activities Committee as past or present members of either the White Knights of the Ku Klux Klan of Mississippi or the United Klans of America.

Anders said Claude Fuller 46, of Kingston; Ernest Avants, 35, of Washington, and James Lloyd Jones, 56, of Natchez were being held in Adams County jail without bond

The sheriff identified all three as employes of the International Paper Co. mill here

Shot June 10

Anders said Ben Chester White was shot to death June 10 in the Kingston community near Natchez. His body was found two days later in Pretty Creek.

White had been shot 16 times in the chest and arms with a rifle said the sheriff. In addition, the head had been partially blown away by a shotgun blast.

Dist Atty Lennox Foreman said White had no connection with any civil rights activities in this area. Natchez had been the scene of Negro demonstrations within the past year and civil rights forces led a boycott of white merchants for a time.

The area has been repeatedly described as a hotbed of Klan activity.

Published List

The Un-American Activities Committee, during its probe of Klan activities, made public last Feb. 4 a list of the names of persons it said were employed by the International Paper Co. at Natchez as of late last year and "who are past or present members" of one of the two Klan

The list included the names of Ernest H. Avants, and Claude W. Fuller. There was also a "Tommy L. Jones" on the list.

The Associated Press learned that Sheriff Anders had taken Fuller, Avants and Jones to state police headquarters in Jackson for lie detector tests

Close Watch Kept

It was further learned that federal authorities kept a close but unofficial watch on the investigation of White's death but did not step into the case, which was handled entirely by Anders department with the aid of the highway patrol

A federal source said the White case was the first with racial angles which had been handled entirely by a local authorities in "a long time."

Natchez is the home of E. L. McDaniel, Mississippi grand dragon of the United Klans of America.

Education Group Picks 32 For Steering Organ

Chicago (UPI)—The Education Commission of the States Tuesday selected a 32-man permanent steering committee and chose Denver, Colo., as its organizational headquarters

The steering committee is composed of eight state governors, eight congressmen and senators and 16 educators

The officers, who occupy their posts both on the steering committee and within the commission, are: Delaware Gov. Charles L. Terry Jr., chairman; Dr. Fred H. Harrington, president; University of Wisconsin, vice chairman; and John Driscoll, chairman, New Hampshire State Board of Education, treasurer.

Denver was selected as commission headquarters over three other cities—Philadelphia, Dallas and Chicago Denver had been recommended by the site selection committee, and the interim steering committee recommended it in turn to the full commission, the spokesman said.

In addition to Terry, the other governors on the steering committee are John Love, Colorado; Ned Breathitt, Kentucky; Otto Kerner, Illinois; Richard Hughes, New Jersey; John Chafee, Rhode Island; Robert McNair, South Carolina, and Calvin Rampton, Utah.

Plans Made For Saigon Troops' Exit

Saigon (AP) — New plans to move American forces out of crowded Saigon were reported Wednesday

The Saigon Daily News quoted Secretary of State Bui Huu Tuan in charge of public works as saying three steps were being considered by U.S. and Vietnamese officials to move both U.S. military and civilian personnel from the capital.

—American authorities would halt building or renting new accommodations for American personnel.

—Headquarters of the American military assistance command in Viet Nam would be moved to Saigon's huge Tan Son Nhut Airport.

—Units coming to Viet Nam in the future would be stationed outside the city.

Kosygin Likes Finn Leader's New Policies

Helsinki, Finland (AP)—Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin expressed approval Tuesday of policies of the new Finnish government formed by Social Democratic leader Rafael Paasio

The approval was of significance for this little neutral nation next to the Soviet Union. The Social Democratic Party had been in the Finnish political wilderness since 1958 because of anti-Soviet policies. The new government includes three Communists.

Kosygin held discussions with Finnish leaders on Viet Nam without discovering anything new. Trade was also discussed.

Federal Planning Money Endorsed

. . . BY HOSPITAL COUNCIL

By BOB SCHREPF
Star Staff Writer

Lincoln Hospital and Health Council members Tuesday endorsed pending federal legislation that would provide funds to strengthen the State Health Department and promote comprehensive health planning and public health services.

The council directed that the endorsement be forwarded to the Nebraska congressional delegation, asking its support.

The companion House and Senate bills "imply less dependence on the federal government, or at least no more than before," said council member E. J. Faulkner, who asked support of the legislation.

Keystone

State Health Director Dr. E. A. Rogers called the bills the "keystone of the President's health measures."

"There is hope for their passage this session," he added.

The bills provide for a six-year program of formula grants for state health planning, calling for the formation of a designated health planning agency and a health planning council.

Comprehensive statewide and area planning for general health needs would be funded the first three years with 100% federal money and the remaining three with matching funds, probably on a 75% federal—25% state and local basis, Dr. Rogers said.

"What is most important is that it includes special project funds for area, or local, studies and planning," he told the council

In addition to health planning aims, the bill would provide a formula grant program for general health services as opposed to federal grants for limited purposes—such as heart disease prevention and water pollution control—according to Dr. Rogers.

State Decides

"These are rigid and inflexible—but the new bills provide for the state to spend its formula grant money in the way it determines it should be spent, as a result of the statewide planning effort," he said

Other features of the House and Senate bills, as outlined to the hospital council by Dr. Rogers:

—Fifteen per cent of the formula grants must be spent on mental health activities, 85% on general health A total of 70% of both expenditures must be spent at the local level.

—Funds must be matched on a per capita state income basis Nebraska, being average, would likely contribute 48%, the federal government not more than 52%

No Hazard

"This legislation will provide more useful public health services of the type we are offering now. There is no greater hazard in federal control, this will allow us more flexibility, Dr. Rogers said

Both measures have been endorsed by the State Health Board The Senate bill has been heard but not reported out of committee; theh House version will receive a committee public hearing soon.

City-County Health Dept. Budget Dips

The proposed 1966-67 budget for the City-County Health Department will show a decrease of $14,320 over the present fiscal year, instead of an increase as was previously reported.

The new budget was correctly reported as $265,183, however, the budget for 1965-66 was $279,503, rather than $188,976, which was the salary figure for this year.

City's Officials View Missouri Channel Work

City officials Tuesday viewed channel improvements and flood control activities along the Missouri River near Omaha.

The two-hour boat trip was at the invitation of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers.

On the tour were Mayor Dean Petersen, members of the City Council and City-County Planning Commission and Planning Director Douglas Brogden.

Marriage Revealed

Announcement has been made by Senhor and Senhora Joaquim Pedro of Albufeira, Algarve, Portugal, of the marriage of their daughter, Maria Josefa da Purificacao, to Peter Norton Jacobson, son of Charles F. Jacobson, Jr., of Lincoln, and the late Mrs Jacobson

The wedding took place at a high noon ceremony, Tuesday June 14, at Bromley, Kent, England

Mr and Mrs. Jacobson left on a wedding trip through England, France and Portugal, en route to Lincoln

In September, Mr. and and Mrs. Jacobson will reside in Madison, where the bridegroom will continue his studies at the University of Wisconsin

The marriage of Miss Natalie Ruth Jones, daughter of the Rev and Mrs. Berwyn E. Jones of Kouts Ind., to Bryan Lee Jones, son of Dr. and Mrs Lowell Jones of Columbus, was solemnized Sunday afternoon, June 5, at the Christian Church in Boone Grove, Ind. The lines of the ceremony, written by the bridegroom, were read by his father, who is minister of the First Methodist Church of Columbus, assisted by the Rev. Berwyn Jones, former minister of the Christian Church at Rolling Prairie, Ind

Wearing long-skirted frocks of buttercup yellow cotton were Miss Anita Jones, as her sister's maid of honor; and the bridesmaids, Miss Virginia Koon, Tempe, Ariz.; Miss Deanna Bleyle, Scottsbluff; and Miss Fyllis Greiner, Mt. Vernon, N.Y.

Warren Lee Jones of McCook, served as best man, and the ushers were Ken Nelson and Larry Churchill, Lincoln; Charles Bumgartner, Geneva; and Louis Astbury, Jr., Indianapolis.

The bride chose a gown of white cotton for her wedding. A narrow edging of tatted lace framed the rounding neckline. She carried an arrangement of white roses

The bridegroom is a senior at Roosevelt University in Chicago, and a member of Theta Chi fraternity. Mrs Jones is a June graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan University, a member of Willard sorority, Alpha Mu Gamma and Cardinal Key honoraries

Luncheon

The 70th anniversary of the Deborah Avery Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, will be observed Friday when the members meet for a 12:30 o'clock luncheon and program at the Hotel Cornhusker.

Past regents of the chapter will be honored guests, and hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. R. B. Stapleton, Mrs. Bruce B. Davis, Mrs R. B. Doan, Mrs Donald K. Jones, Mrs. Gerald Rosenberger, Mrs Harvey J Hales Mrs G. G Duling, Mrs Richard Dinges and Mrs. Fred Wells.

The program will be presented by Children of the American Revolution and Junior DAR members.

OLD navy friends have reunion

There was a reunion on Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor who were host and hostess at a Patio party. The guest list included not only a group that was stationed at Norfolk, Va., during a tour of duty, but who also are former classmates at the University of Nebraska.

But the main attraction was Mrs Paul Olson, the former Mai-Thi-Lien of Viet Nam, who became the bride of Lt. (JG) Olson on May 22.

Lt Paul Olson and Lt (JG) David Olson who, by the way, are unrelated, were at the navy base in Norfok, Va., when Mr. and Mrs. Taylor were there. Lt. Paul Olson has been spending the past year in Viet Nam—the Taylors have been in Lincoln, and Lt. and Mrs. David Olson are en route from Washington D.C. to Hong Kong, Lt. Olson's new assignment.

Tuesday Ceremony

Miss Pat DePauw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Omer E DePauw of David City, became the bride of James E. Cloupek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cloupek of Rising City, at an afternoon wedding, Tuesday, June 14. The service was solemnized by the Rev. Edwin Stander at St. Mary's Church in David City.

The bride's attendants, frocked in apricot satin, were Miss Dianne Bartek, Lincoln, as the maid of honor; and the bridesmaids, Miss Dianne Richter, Shelby, and Miss Conchy Dias, Lincoln.

Jack Chloupek of Rising City, served as best man, and the groomsmen were Tom Morgan, David City; Paul Harris, Rising City; Glenn Bongers, Brainard; and Ralph Cloupek, Seward.

The bride appeared in a sleeveless, slim-skirted gown of white Chantilly lace, designed with a long-sleeved jacket of the lace. A cap of lace and organza petals held her bouffant veil of illusion.

Mr. and Mrs. Chloupek will live in Lincoln, where the bridegroom is a student at the University of Nebraska.

Opening lead — jack of clubs.

This hand occurred in the Vanderbilt team of four championship of 1964. East's two notrump bid was the "usual notrump" and showed minor suit length with limited high-card values. South then proceeded to six spades on the bidding shown.

It is highly unlikely that South would have made the slam had East stayed out of the bidding. With normal play he would probably have gone down either one or two tricks.

But South made the slam as a result of the two notrump bid. He credited East with five diamonds and five clubs, as well as a singleton spade and doubleton heart, all of which he more or less needed to assure the contract.

He won the club with the ace and cashed the ace of spades, deliberately relinquishing the chance of a successful spade finesse. He then played four rounds of hearts on which he discarded a club and a diamond.

The fifth heart in dummy was now a trick, but South could not yet afford to cash it and discard a diamond, since West would be able to ruff with the nine and take the setting trick with the king of spades.

Instead, South ruffed a club at trick seven and led a low spade towards the jack. It did not matter whether West took the king now or later; in either case, South would be able to discard the jack of diamonds on the eight of hearts.

There is considerable doubt that East should have used the unusual notrump after South bid a spade and North responded affirmatively with two hearts.

It was far more likely that North-South would ultimately buy the contract and take advantage of the two notrump bid than that East-West would buy the contract in a minor suit and at a profitable level. East would have been better off to keep quiet.

To Entertain

Entertaining at a 10 o'clock coffee Wednesday morning will be Mrs. Ray F. Mitchell, whose guests will be Camp Fire Day Camp counsellors and junior counselors. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Eldon Nelson, Mrs. Carl Erickson and Mrs. Ray Soukup.

Church Wedding

The chancel of the First Christian Church at Fairbury was decorated with yellow and white daisies for the candlelight wedding of Miss Gay Gallamore, daughter of Mrs. Samuel E. Gallamore of Lincoln, and the late Judge Gallamore, and Ens. David C. Denney, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Denney of Fairbury, on Sunday evening, June 12. The service was solemnized at 7 o'clock by the Rev. Virgil Willits.

Empire frocks fashioned with basques of moss green chiffon and crepe skirts in antique white were worn by Miss Sandra Peck, Fairbury, the maid of honor; and the bridesmaids, Miss Susan Sizer, Kearney; Miss Cynthia Henney, Fairbury; and Mrs. Frederick Figi, Lincoln.

Ens. Charles McGibbons, USN, Sandusky, Ohio, served as best man, and seating the guests were Daniel Denney, Washington, D.C.; Ronald Schwab and Michael denney, Fairbury.

Chantilly lace trimmed the bride's gown of silk taffeta in antique white. The short-sleeved bodice was mantled with the lace, which also formed vertical panels at each side of the bell skirt and was repeated at the hem of the aisle-wide train. Her illusion veil was held by a crown of seed pearls.

The couple will reside in Pensacola, Fla., where the bridegroom, a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., will enter Navy flight training. Mrs. Denney will receive her degree in August from Nebraska Wesleyan University, where she is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

A picnic for all unaffiliated PEO members in Lincoln has been planned for Thursday evening at Peter Pan Park. The members and their families will gather at 6 o'clock.

Outdoor Beauty

That lovely fair complexion of yours was never meant to stand up to the harsh summer weather. Be kind to it, see that it is well protected when you're golfing, lazing on the beach, or anywhere in the great outdoors. Wear a wide, shady hat and sunglasses—this will keep you from squinting your eyes. Before you venture out smooth on your oil of Olay before making up, and don't forget your neck. Your skin will maintain a milky look despite the drying effect of the summer.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	Pass	2 ♥	2 NT
Dble	Pass	Pass	3 ♣
3 ♠	Pass	4 ♠	Pass

Opening lead — jack of clubs.

This hand occurred in the Vanderbilt team of four championship of 1964. East's two notrump bid was the "usual notrump" and showed minor suit length with limited high-card values. South then proceeded to six spades on the bidding shown.

It is highly unlikely that South would have made the slam had East stayed out of the bidding. With normal play he would probably have gone down either one or two tricks.

But South made the slam as a result of the two notrump bid. He credited East with five diamonds and five clubs, as well as a singleton spade and doubleton heart, all of which he more or less needed to assure the contract.

He won the club with the ace and cashed the ace of spades, deliberately relinquishing the chance of a successful spade finesse. He then played four rounds of hearts on which he discarded a club and a diamond.

The fifth heart in dummy was now a trick, but South could not yet afford to cash it and discard a diamond, since West would be able to ruff with the nine and take the setting trick with the king of spades.

Instead, South ruffed a club at trick seven and led a low spade towards the jack. It did not matter whether West took the king now or later; in either case, South would be able to discard the jack of diamonds on the eight of hearts.

There is considerable doubt that East should have used the unusual notrump after South bid a spade and North responded affirmatively with two hearts.

It was far more likely that North-South would ultimately buy the contract and take advantage of the two notrump bid than that East-West would buy the contract in a minor suit and at a profitable level. East would have been better off to keep quiet.

To Entertain

Entertaining at a 10 o'clock coffee Wednesday morning will be Mrs. Ray F. Mitchell, whose guests will be Camp Fire Day Camp counsellors and junior counselors. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Eldon Nelson, Mrs. Carl Erickson and Mrs. Ray Soukup.

Church Wedding

The chancel of the First Christian Church at Fairbury was decorated with yellow and white daisies for the candlelight wedding of Miss Gay Gallamore, daughter of Mrs. Samuel E. Gallamore of Lincoln, and the late Judge Gallamore, and Ens. David C. Denney, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert V. Denney of Fairbury, on Sunday evening, June 12. The service was solemnized at 7 o'clock by the Rev. Virgil Willits.

Empire frocks fashioned with basques of moss green chiffon and crepe skirts in antique white were worn by Miss Sandra Peck, Fairbury, the maid of honor; and the bridesmaids, Miss Susan Sizer, Kearney; Miss Cynthia Henney, Fairbury; and Mrs. Frederick Figi, Lincoln.

Ens. Charles McGibbons, USN, Sandusky, Ohio, served as best man, and seating the guests were Daniel Denney, Washington, D.C.; Ronald Schwab and Michael denney, Fairbury.

Chantilly lace trimmed the bride's gown of silk taffeta in antique white. The short-sleeved bodice was mantled with the lace, which also formed vertical panels at each side of the bell skirt and was repeated at the hem of the aisle-wide train. Her illusion veil was held by a crown of seed pearls.

The couple will reside in Pensacola, Fla., where the bridegroom, a graduate of the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., will enter Navy flight training. Mrs. Denney will receive her degree in August from Nebraska Wesleyan University, where she is a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

PEO Picnic

A picnic for all unaffiliated PEO members in Lincoln has been planned for Thursday evening at Peter Pan Park. The members and their families will gather at 6 o'clock.

PARTY

ends busy year for "Stripers"

The pleasant conclusion of a very busy year for the Candy Stripers of Lincoln General Hospital was the informal "tea" held Thursday afternoon at the Capitol Beach lakeshore home of Mrs Duane Ackhe.

Mrs Ackhe was hostess to nearly one hundred teens and their mothers, assisted by members of the hospital auxiliary, and a highlight of the 2 o'clock to 4 o'clock event was the presentation of awards to the girls who have volunteered many hours of service to the hospital and its patients.

Candlelight Service Madam Chairman

The chancel of the East Lincoln Christian Church was lighted by white candles for the Sunday evening wedding of Miss Janet Marie Moock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rolan Latchaw of Guthrie, Okla. The Rev Gerald Peters of Fremont, read the lines of the service at 7:30 o'clock.

Wearing long-skirted frocks of yellow brocade and carrying bouquets of white daisies were Miss Barbara Ellis of Bennet, the maid of honor, and Miss Nancy Moock, who was her sister's bridesmaid.

Bennie Joe Latchaw of Sierra Vista, Ariz., served his brother as best man, and seating the guests were Barry Bentley of Lawton, Okla., and the bride's brothers, Roger Moock and Thomas Moock.

The bride selected traditional white satin for her wedding gown. The satin sheath was complemented by an overbodice of French lace, designed with a portrait neckline and long sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil of illusion was held by a coronet of pearl-trimmed lace, and she carried a crescent of yellow daisies.

Mr Latchaw and his bride will make their home in Enid, Okla., where the bridegroom, a graduate of Phillips University, is a member of the Enid High School faculty. Mrs. Latchaw is a student at Phillips University in Enid.

THERE'S

variety in news of the suburban areas

There's no room for "lazybones" in Suburbia today. Everyone here has been too active, both indoors and out. For example, either visiting or receiving visitors, either partying or being "partied," Suburban residents have a lot to talk about. And it's "only the beginning, folks, only the beginning."

NORTHEAST HEIGHTS

Mr. and Mrs. Ralf Holmes and their children, Roger and Candy, are entertaining visitors. Arriving June 4 for a three-week visit in Lincoln were Mrs. Holmes's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy V. Newcomer of North Ft. Myers, Fla., formerly Lincoln residents.

Before coming to Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Newcomer were the guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stuntz and family at Greene, Iowa, who not only accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Newcomer to Lincoln, but flew them to the Capital City in their own plane with Mr. Stuntz as pilot.

A family dinner was organized by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Klein in Bellwood, last Sunday. Among those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Klein of Seward, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Willemsen of Lincoln, brother and sister of the host.

COTNER TERRACE

A calm visit to Gateway and a return home to a "horrible noise in the basement" preceded a surprise housewarming for Mr and Mrs Darrell Karr, former Cotner Terrace residents, now of 7621 Colby. Hiding in the Karr's basement were friends and former neighbors, the James Schlegelmilchs, the Richard Mueller's, and the Donald Wendts, who planned and executed the surprise last Thursday evening.

PRAIRIE HILLS

Mr. and Mrs Joe Kessler and their son, John, are anticipating a quiet summer beginning on Wednesday. That is the Red Letter Day for Jennifer Kessler, 15, and brother Joey, 13, who will board a plane for the west coast and weeks of fun and travel. Jennifer and Joey will be the guests of their uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Allen Carman, at San Diego, Calif., who have planned trips to Mexico as well as to the Pacific Northwest and Canada for their visitors. Dr. and Mrs. Carman will accompany the young Nebraskans home in August — by way of Yellowstone Park — and stay for a visit with Dr. Carman's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Kessler. During their travels, Jennifer and Joey also will visit with former Lincoln residents, Dr. Evelyn Thoman and her daughter Ruth, in Palo Alto, Calif.

EASTRIDGE

Junior League provisional training is keeping Mother busy, so Tom and Cindy Hicks, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Hicks, are visiting their Omaha relatives for about a week and a half. While there they will stay with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Hicks and Mr. and Mrs. J. Robert Pilling, and do a little sightseeing.

A June graduate of Southeast High School, Tim Burroughs, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max A. Burroughs, is currently counseling at Camp Chief Ouray in Grandby, Colo. A novice counselor, Tim will have a busy summer.

ABBY

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: This nut I am engaged to says if I want to be married in a formal wedding gown, it's O. K. with him, but HE is not going to get all dressed up in a "monkey suit."

When we went to the wedding rental place, the man showed Sandor what he was supposed to wear for a formal wedding, and Sandor said, "Over my dead body!"

He would only have to wear it once, Abby, and it could be made to fit him comfortably, but Sandor says he is going to wear his new dark blue suit with a regular shirt and tie. And when Sandor says something, that is final! How do you reason with a man like that?

IN TEARS

DEAR IN: Your fiance is an individualist. Wear what you wish, and let Sandor do the same. It will appear odd, but the ties will be no less binding.

DEAR ABBY: What can be done for a 77-year-old woman with a drinking problem? That woman is my mother, and it breaks my heart to see her destroying herself. It all began several years ago when dad retired and they started spending their winters in Florida. Why would a loving, respected grandmother turn to alcohol after having done practically no drinking previously?

Dad is strictly a one-drink-before-dinner man. I finally got the courage to speak to mother about it, and she said she could quit anytime, but I know she can't. She drinks alone and thinks no one knows it. I can't force my mother to go to a doctor, and I can't accuse my father of lying when he says she is "better." I am an R. N. and know where she's heading. How can I help her, Abby?

HEARTBROKEN DAUGHTER

DEAR HEARTBROKEN: No one can overcome alcoholism unless he admits that that he is powerless against drink. That is the first step in the Alcoholics Anonymous method. Your mother could possibly be helped by joining that group. It's worth a try.

If she were to see a psychiatrist and he unearthed the reason your mother was trying to destroy herself, he might be able to rescue her. But it is a sad fact of life that no one can be helped who will not help himself.

3.5% Salary Hike Limit Is Favored

Gov. Frank Morrison has advocated that agencies under his direct control hold their salary increases in the next biennium to 3.5% per year.

The same wage ceiling policy is advocated for other state departments and agencies generally.

The chief executive's views were made known in budget preparation manuals to be distributed Wednesday and Thursday at explanation sessions telling agency heads how the 1967-69 program budget requests should be completed.

Morrison also recommends that programs which cannot be defended in terms of current use should be reduced or discontinued, and new programs should not be proposed unless they are designed "to meet current essential needs."

All agencies are required to have their 1967-69 budget requests into the new Department of Administrative Services by Sept. 15.

Although Morrison is the outgoing governor, he is required by the constitution to submit a budget to the new Legislature. The incoming governor also submits a budget.

Sen. Bowen, Sorensen In U.S. Capital

Washington (UPI) — Lt. Gov. Philip C. Sorensen and Sen. Kenneth L. Bowen, speaker of the Nebraska Legislature, were in the nation's capital Tuesday to attend a two-day White House conference for state legislative leaders.

The conference was called by Farris Bryant, director of the Office of Emergency Planning.

The purpose, according to Bryant, is "to discuss federal-state problems and steps which should be taken to establish a better dialogue between the federal government and the states."

Sorensen said Nebraskans are sending many tax dollars to Washington. He said the state should be aware of those federal programs which can be helpful to Nebraska.

Application Filed For Grand Island Bank, Dunn Says

State Banking Director Byron Dunn Tuesday reported a bank charter application has been filed to establish the Bank of Grand Island Inc.

Charter applicants are Warren A. Connel, Donald Diers, Ralph D. Kelly, Richard E. Kurtz Sr., C. C. Nelson, Robert D. Marcotte, Fred W. Hawkins and Lawrence R. James.

Proposed bank capitalization is $400,000. Dunn said a hearing date would be announced later.

State Draft Call 129 For August

The State Selective Service Tuesday reported Nebraska's August draft call has been set at 129, compared to 120 in July and 90 in June.

The Selective Service also said it is having no problem filling the July-August call for 28 Nebraska doctors.

Last month the Defense Department reduced the quota for doctors by 13. Some physicians were notified their induction was deferred.

Bride, Groom Fined

Kampala, Uganda (AP) — Francis Balamaze and his bride, still in her wedding gown, were among more than 300 persons fined 1 pound ($2.80) each for violation of the curfew imposed three weeks ago in connection with Uganda government steps to abolish the subsidiary Kingdom of Buganda.

YOUR CHILD MAY HAVE

PIN-WORMS

1 OUT OF 3 DOES

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms...ugly parasites that medical experts say infest 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

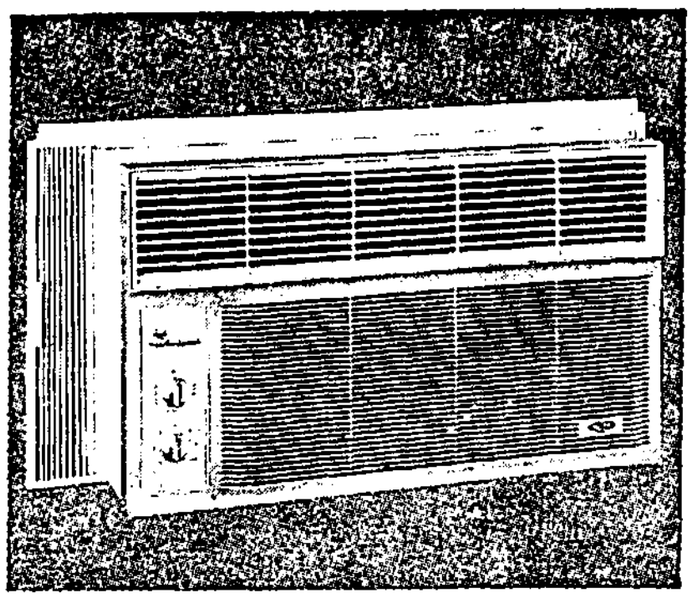

To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do... and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with dangerous, highly contagious Pin-Worms which infect entire families. Get genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . small, easy-to-take tablets . . . special sizes for children and adults.

Although Morrison is the outgoing governor, he is required by the constitution to submit a budget to the new Legislature. The incoming governor also submits a budget.

Sen. Bowen, Sorensen In U.S. Capital

Washington (UPI) — Lt. Gov. Philip C. Sorensen and Sen. Kenneth L. Bowen, speaker of the Nebraska Legislature, were in the nation's capital Tuesday to attend a two-day White House conference for state legislative leaders.

The conference was called by Farris Bryant, director of the Office of Emergency Planning.

The purpose, according to Bryant, is "to discuss federal-state problems and steps which should be taken to establish a better dialogue between the federal government and the states."

Sorensen said Nebraskans are sending many tax dollars to Washington. He said the state should be aware of those federal programs which can be helpful to Nebraska.

Application Filed For Grand Island Bank, Dunn Says

State Banking Director Byron Dunn Tuesday reported a bank charter application has been filed to establish the Bank of Grand Island Inc.

Charter applicants are Warren A. Connel, Donald Diers, Ralph D. Kelly, Richard E. Kurtz Sr., C. C. Nelson, Robert D. Marcotte, Fred W. Hawkins and Lawrence R. James.

Proposed bank capitalization is $400,000. Dunn said a hearing date would be announced later.

State Draft Call 129 For August

The State Selective Service Tuesday reported Nebraska's August draft call has been set at 129, compared to 120 in July and 90 in June.

The Selective Service also said it is having no problem filling the July-August call for 28 Nebraska doctors.

Last month the Defense Department reduced the quota for doctors by 13. Some physicians were notified their induction was deferred.

Bride, Groom Fined

Kampala, Uganda (AP) — Francis Balamaze and his bride, still in her wedding gown, were among more than 100 persons fined 1 pound ($2.80) each for violation of the curfew imposed three weeks ago in connection with Uganda government steps to abolish the subsidiary Kingdom of Buganda.

YOUR CHILD MAY HAVE PIN-WORMS
1 OUT OF 3 DOES

Fidgeting, nose-picking, a tormenting rectal itch are often telltale signs of Pin-Worms...ugly parasites that medical experts say infest 1 out of every 3 persons examined. Entire families may be victims and not know it.

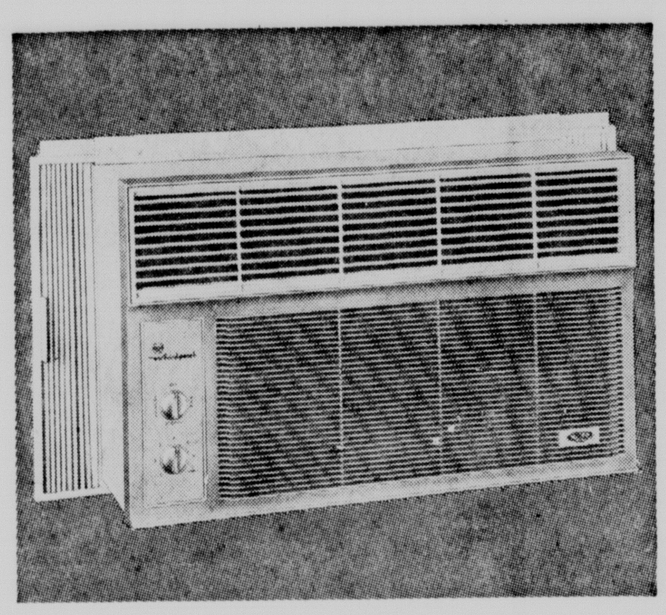

To get rid of Pin-Worms, they must be killed in the large intestine where they live and multiply. That's exactly what Jayne's P-W tablets do . . . and here's how they do it:

First—a scientific coating carries the tablets into the bowels before they dissolve. Then—Jayne's modern, medically-approved ingredient goes right to work—kills Pin-Worms quickly and easily.

Don't take chances with dangerous, highly contagious Pin-Worms which infect entire families. Get genuine Jayne's P-W Vermifuge . . . small, easy-to-take tablets . . . special sizes for children and adults.

OEO OKs Funds For Camp Plan

Educational camping experiences for Lincoln children from low-income families financed by the federal government received approval from the Office of Economic Opportunity, it was announced here Tuesday.

However funds approved under the Economic Opportunity Act by the OEO were cut from the $17,972 application request to $14,612. Another 10% in funds will be provided locally to match the $14,612 federal money.

The camping proposal sponsored by the Lincoln Public Schools was designed to provide a week's camping experience to 500 youngsters from low-income families, giving priority to those children who are participating in the summer remedial reading project.

Between Aug. 8 and Sept. 3 the schools intend to transport 125 children each week to the YMCA Camp Kitaki on the Platte River near South Bend.

James Arnot, camp director, and 35 other adults will be employed to staff the camp.

Demo Chiefs To Consider Fund Sharing

The Democratic state executive committee will meet in Lincoln Wednesday to consider distribution of party campaign funds to its 1966 primary nominees.

The meeting will be held at the Cornhusker Hotel at 10 a.m.

Nominees will not participate in the meeting.

At issue generally is the question of whether major nominees should receive equal amounts of party financial assistance, or whether money should be distributed with regard to which nominees have the best prospects of general election victory.

County Board Approves 152 Tax Refunds

Lancaster County Commissioners Tuesday approved 152 more claims for refunds totaling $2,011 for illegal tax penalties assessed in 1962 and 1963.

Two of the claims were for 1962, while the remainder were 1963. The total refunded for 1962 to date is $23,933 on the 1,114 of the 1,279 eligible claims.

A total of $13,194 has been approved for 1963 on the 737 of the 1,098 eligible claims.

In other business, the board, sitting as a Board of Equalization, heard requests from nine Lincoln churches for tax exemption on property on which they were given the opportunity to refile for exemption in view of recent court decisions.

Kaar Service Is Ordered To Pay Overtime To Six

Federal District Judge Robert Van Pelt has ordered Lincoln auto repair firm to pay six employes more than $2,300 in overtime wages.

The order was entered against Kaar Service, owned by Kenneth Kaar, under provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

Kaar agreed there was a dispute and entered into a stipulation with the complaining parties.

The judgment included $599 to Gordon Gell; $595.79 to Willard Wallace; $68.10 to Roy Patton; $125.36 to Richard D. Rand; $312.36 to John Feutz and $732.18 to Francis J. Patterson.

Here is a practical little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your future. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 5 or more, subtract 1. If the number is less than 6, add three. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures gives you. Palmer Predicts Wedge Will Win U.S. Open Tourney Instead Of Driver

San Francisco (AP)—The wedge and not the driver will win the 66th U.S. Open Golf Championship, predicts Arnold Palmer, who contradicts himself by conceding an edge to the biggest hitter of them all, Jack Nicklaus.

"Jack hits a high, towering ball," Palmer said Tuesday as the full field of 151 checked in for the blue ribbon tournament starting Thursday. "It takes a soft lob shot to hold these small greens. Nobody hits that shot better than Nicklaus."

Another solid vote for the 210-pound Nicklaus came from the little defending champion, Gary Player of South Africa, who acknowledged:

"If there is one individual favorite, it has to be Jack," the pride of Johannesburg said. "He has a game for this course—well let's face it, he has the game for any course, but this one particularly.

The 6,727-yard par-70 Olympic Country Club Course, which the world's best golfers attack for four rounds through Sunday, is generally proclaimed to be one of the toughest and fairest layouts on which the Open has ever been played.

Its gun-barrel fairways are flanked by 43,000 eucalyptus, pine and cedar trees, creating virtual tunnels for the driving pundits say competitors and caddies must walk them single file Indian fashion. And the greens are so small the ball cannot be marked with a coin larger than a dime.

The rough is thick and knotty and the grass around the greens is a fluffy, jelly-like substance which confounds even the best of the chipping specialists.

Responsing to the anguished cries of rector of the U.S. Golf Association, orthe early testers, Joe Dey, executive dirdered Tuesday that all rough be cut back to four inches. It had been allowed to grow to knee length.

"It's very tenancious rough, like steel wire," Dey explained. "It grabs a ball and holds it."

Ben Hogan, at 53, shooting for his fifth National Open over a course where he lost in a playoff to little-known Jack Fleck 11 years ago, calls the rough the most formidable he has ever seen.

"Maybe some of the muscle boys can do it, but I can't reach the green from this rough," he protested.

Palmer, record leading money winner, who is striving for a comeback after two lean years, said the championship would be won around the greens.

"Some say this is a drivers' course," the capitalist from Latrobe, Pa., added. "It's true, as in any tournament, you must drive well, but I think that driving here is less a factor then in any Open I have played."

Palmer said that the grass fringing the greens was so delicate that it was hard to get bite on the ball. "You can play two great shots to get to the green area and then get three getting down," he said.

Palmer said Hogan should play the course very well but added that Nicklaus should have a distinct advantage because of the loft of his shots. He also named as threats such fine iron players as Tony Lema and Ken Venturi and adroit chippers, Julius Boros and Billy Casper.

The field will consist of 133 professionals and 18 amateurs, the latter group led by National Champion Bob Murphy and two-time winner Deane Beaman.

For the past few days the San Francisco area has sweltered in near-100 degree heat, the hottest in 92 years, but a break is expected before the 7:30 a.m. PDT 10:30 a.m. EDT tee-off Thursday.

Then the fog is expected to roll in and the wind blow off the ocean. It becomes a new ball game.

CWS Jottings

Omaha — College World Series jottings while waiting for the first rain-out of the 20th Annual Series:

Only two states — California and Oklahoma — have had more than one team win the College World Series . . . Southern California (4 times) and California represented the Golden Bear State . . . Oklahoma and Oklahoma State are the Sooner State representatives.

Texas is the only team ever to win back to back College World Series titles (1949-50) and Southern California has captured the most championships (4 — 1948, 1958, 1961, 1963) . . . Only three teams in the 19-year-old College World Series have lost their first game, then recuperated to win the championship . . . the three — Texas in 1950, USC in 1958 and USC in 1963.

Jackie Jensen, former Boston Red Sox outfielder, was on the mound during both of California's games in 1947 before signing with the Red Sox . . . He relieved in the first game and started the second . . . The champion of District 1 never has won a College World Series title . . . District 2 with Holy Cross in 1952 and District 7 with Arizona State in 1965 have each won only once.

Widest Margin

The widest margin of victory in the College World Series is a 23-2 lashing Notre Dame gave Colorado State College in 1957 . . . The Fighting Irish scored 10 runs in the top of the first inning . . . Gene Duffy, new NCAA director of events and 1966 tournament supervisor, played centerfield for Notre Dame in that game, getting three hits in six at bats and scored three times . . . Duffy later played with the Lincoln Chiefs at Sherman Field.

Another former Lincoln Chiefs player, Joel Horlen who now pitches for the Chicago White Sox, won two games for Oklahoma State in the 1959 College World Series despite a broken hand . . . The Cowboys won the team championship that year . . . Jim Wixson of Oklahoma State owns the best earned run average in College World Series play . . . In 1960 Wixson pitched 11 innings without allowing a run or a hit.

Nine of the 19 championship finals games have been settled by one run, including two 1-0 thrillers . . . Two others were decided by two runs . . . USC and Minnesota met three times in the 1960 Series and all three games were decided by one run in extra innings . . . In the third round, Minnesota took a 12-11 slugfest in 10 innings . . . The fifth round saw USC triumph, 4-3, in 11 frames . . . In the finals, Minnesota captured a 10-inning, 2-1 victory.

Gary Moore, Texas' ace pitcher, is the starting safety on the Longhorn football team . . . Moore throws a football right-handed and a baseball left-handed . . . Texas has won or shared 41 Southwest Conference baseball championships in 51 years.

16 Million Viewers

Abe Chanin, editor of COLLEGIATE BASEBALL, estimates that 16 million fans watch college baseball games each year and that the number increases annually . . . Oklahoma State Stays Alive In College World Series, 5-1

St. John's, Arizona Take Second-Round Victories

. . . OHIO STATE UPSETS SOUTHERN CAL, 6-2

By HAL BROWN
Star Sports Editor

Omaha — Ohio State won a duel of the two top-ranked teams in collegiate baseball with a 6-2 victory over No. 1 - rated Southern California here Tuesday night with 9,189 fans watching the 20th annual College World Series.

Oklahoma State's Big Eight champions broke out of a hitting slump with a 10-hit attack for a 5-1 victory over North Carolina Tuesday afternoon before 2,593 fans to keep the Cowboys' chances alive in the Series and eliminate the Tar Heels.

In other games Tuesday, St. John's shut out Texas, 2-0, and Arizona ousted Northeastern, 8-1.

Tuesday's results left Ohio State and St. John's the only unbeaten teams in the Series. They will meet at 8:30 Wednesday night.

Oklahoma State will meet Texas in the 6 o'clock game Wednesday.

Big ten champion Ohio State, the nation's second-ranked team, topped the Trojans behind the three-hit pitching of All American Steve Arlin, who came in Monday night to save the Buckeyes' win over Oklahoma State.

Arlin struck out 12 in picking up his 10th win against one loss this season. One of the three USC hits was a two-run homer over the right-field fence by Buddy Gordon in the sixth inning.

His Ohio State teammates gave Arlin more than the runs he needed with a six-run effort in the second inning, sending 11 batters to the plate.

Ohio State had only one extra-base hit in the big inning, a leadoff triple by Bob Baker, but five singles and a couple of USC errors plus two walks produced the six runs.

St. John's tied a College World Series record with four double plays, that helped right-handed Walt Witowski record his fourth win against a single loss this season.

Oklahoma State bounced back for the victory after suffering a 4-2 loss to Big Ten champion Ohio State Monday night and after trailing North Carolina, 1-0, early in the Tuesday afternoon game.

The Cowboys, who had scored both their runs Monday night on six walks and without benefit of a base hit, also accepted a gift run from the Tar Heels Tuesday afternoon to tie the game at 1-1 in the fourth.

However, the Oklahoma State attack came to life in the eighth when the Cowboys scored three times on four hits to back up right-hander Dick Frank's mound effort.

Frank, who had blanked Nebraska during the Big Eight season, went the distance to pick up his sixth win of the season against two losses. He allowed nine hits, but walked only two and struck out five.

The only run Frank allowed came in the third inning when opposing pitcher Mike Flanagan led off with a single, moved to second in a sacrifice, to third on an infield single, and scored on a single to center by Bob Bonczek.

Frank pitched out of a bases-loaded jam in the sixth when he struck out Mc-Laughlin. North Carolina put runners on first and second with one out in the top of the ninth, but Frank got the next two hitters to fly out to center fielder Alan Johnson.

After having one runner on base in both the second and third innings, Oklahoma State tied the game in the fourth when North Carolina right fielder Bonczek dropped Johnson's fly ball for a three-base error and Bob Toney lifted a sacrifice fly to center field.

The Cowboys went ahead in the seventh with Tracy Freeny leading off with a walk, moving to second on Frank's single, to third on a fielder's choice and scoring when Tar Heel second baseman Charlie Thomas threw wild to first trying to complete the double play.

Oklahoma State hadn't been able to get more than one hit in any one inning during the series until the eighth frame Tuesday when four hits led to three runs.

Toney started the inning with a single, but was forced at second by Wayne Weatherly. Don Kuykendall singled Weatherly to second and Gary Howard's single scored Weatherly, moving Kuykendall to second. Freeny drove both Kuykendall and Howard home with a double to left field.

Arizona's victory was its 40th of the season against 14 losses and the Wildcats scored virtualy at will against Northeastern in the 8-1 win.

Arizona left-hander Mike Paul held the losers to four hits while striking out 11 and walking only 5.

St. John's win was its second straight in the Series with Witowski stopping the Longhorns on five scattered hits.

The shutout was only the second blanking for Texas since 1959.

St. Jonn's scored both its runs in the fourth inning with Matt Galante, a 5-6, 115-pound second baseman, leading off the inning with his second of three hits for the night.

Boston Swaps Wilson For Detroit's Demeter

EARL WILSON

Right-hander Earl Wilson, 30, the Sox's top pitcher with a 5-5 record in 15 games this year, was sent to Detroit in exchange for veteran outfielder Don Demeter and a minor leaguer to be named. In the same deal, Boston outfielder Joe Christopher was sent down to Syracuse, the Tigers' International League farm club.

That was the second deal in 12 hours. Monday night, Boston outfielder Jim Gosser and a pair of relievers—Ken Sanders and Guido Grilli — were ticketed for Kansas City. For them, the Sox got right-hander Rollie Sheldon, record-holding reliever John Wyatt and outfielder Jose Tartabull.

Haywood Sullivan, Red Sox vice president, said "although we regret giving up Earl Wilson, we think we have obtained a great outfielder in Demeter, who has always hit well in Fenway Park."

Sullivan was confident Rollie Sheldon, once with the Yankees and traded to the Athletics in 1965, would fill Wilson's place in the starting rotation . . . "And Jose Tartabull gives us one of the fastest men in the league, a real threat on the basepaths, something we've lacked for some time."

Of Wyatt, 31, the Red Sox veep said "he gives us another big lift in the bullpen where we have had trouble this year." He appeared in 81 games for the Athletics last year and this season has an 0-3 record in relief

Demeter, 30, batted .212 in 32 gamed with Detroit this year, belted five homers and drove in 12 runs. He holds the AL record for the most errorless games for an outfielder—266 games from September, 1962 through July, 1965.

DON DEMETER

The sox gave away a .254 left-handed hitting outfielder in Gosger, who also has driven in 12 runs this year.

The Cuban-born Tartabull, a speedy centerfielder, has a .238 batting average.

Eddie Lopat, Kansas City vice president, talking about the deal with Boston, said Gosger was the key. He called him "a kid who looks like he has good potential . . . the bear-down type who impresses you with his hustle."

Kirkpatrick Lifts Angels With 2 HRs

Chicago (AP) — Ed Kirkpatrick smashed two homers and knocked in four runs Tuesday as the California Angels whipped the Chicago White Sox, 10-4, and pitcher Dean Chance ended a six-game losing streak despite 15 Chicago hits.

Home runs came early as Kirkpatrick lofted a solo shot in the second inning and Jose Cardenal did the same for his No. 7 in the third.

Kirkpatrick boosted his season total to five with a blast into the upper right field deck in the eighth after Norm Siebern had walked. Before the eighth was over, the Angels had scored again when Tom Satriano walked and Paul Schaal doubled.

Palmer Predicts Wedge Will Win U.S. Open Tourney Instead Of Driver

San Francisco (AP)—The wedge and not the driver will win the 66th U.S. Open Golf Championship, predicts Arnold Palmer, who contradicts himself by conceding an edge to the biggest hitter of them all, Jack Nicklaus.

"Jack hits a high, towering ball," Palmer said Tuesday as the full field of 151 checked in for the blue ribbon tournament starting Thursday. "It takes a soft lob shot to hold these small greens. Nobody hits that shot better than Nicklaus."

Another solid vote for the 210-pound Nicklaus came from the little defending champion, Gary Player of South Africa, who acknowledged:

"If there is one individual favorite, it has to be Jack," the pride of Johannesburg said. "He has a game for this course—well let's face it, he has the game for any course, but this one particularly.

The 6,727-yard par-70 Olympic Country Club Course, which the world's best golfers attack for four rounds through Sunday, is generally proclaimed to be one of the toughest and fairest layouts on which the Open has ever been played.

Its gun-barrel fairways are flanked by 43,000 eucalyptus, pine and cedar trees, creating virtual tunnels for the driving pundits say competitors and caddies must walk them single file Indian fashion. And the greens are so small the ball cannot be marked with a coin larger than a dime.

The rough is thick and knotty and the grass around the greens is a fluffy, jelly-like substance which confounds even the best of the chipping specialists.

Responsing to the anguished cries of rector of the U.S. Golf Association, orthe early testers, Joe Dey, executive didered Tuesday that all rough be cut back to four inches. It had been allowed to grow to knee length.

"It's very tenancious rough, like steel wire," Dey explained. "It grabs a ball and holds it."

Ben Hogan, at 53, shooting for his fifth National Open over a course where he lost in a playoff to little-known Jack Fleck 11 years ago, calls the rough the most formidable he has ever seen.

"Maybe some of the muscle boys can do it, but I can't reach the green from this rough," he protested.

Palmer, record leading money winner, who is striving for a comeback after two lean years, said the championship would be won around the greens.

"Some say this is a drivers' course," the capitalist from Latrobe, Pa., added. "It's true, as in any tournament, you must drive well, but I think that driving here is less a factor then in any Open I have played."

Palmer said that the grass fringing the greens was so delicate that it was hard to get bite on the ball. "You can play two great shots to get to the green area and then get three getting down," he said.

Palmer said Hogan should play the course very well but added that Nicklaus should have a distinct advantage because of the loft of his shots. He also named as threats such fine iron players as Tony Lema and Ken Venturi and adroit chippers, Julius Boros and Billy Casper.

The field will consist of 133 professionals and 18 amateurs, the latter group led by National Champion Bob Murphy and two-time winner Deane Beaman.

For the past few days the San Francisco area has sweltered in near-100 degree heat, the hottest in 92 years, but a break is expected before the 7:30 a.m. PDT 10:30 a.m. EDT tee-off Thursday.

Then the fog is expected to roll in and the wind blow off the ocean. It becomes a new ball game.

Omaha — College World Series jottings while waiting for the first rain-out of the 20th Annual Series:

Only two states — California and Oklahoma — have had more than one team win the College World Series . . . Southern California (4 times) and California represented the Golden Bear State . . . Oklahoma and Oklahoma State are the Sooner State representatives.

Texas is the only team ever to win back to back College World Series titles (1949-50) and Southern California has captured the most championships (4 — 1948, 1958, 1961, 1963) . . . Only three teams in the 19-year-old College World Series have lost their first game, then recuperated to win the championship . . . the three — Texas in 1950, USC in 1958 and USC in 1963.

Jackie Jensen, former Boston Red Sox outfielder, was on the mound during both of California's games in 1947 before signing with the Red Sox . . . He relieved in the first game and started the second . . . The champion of District 1 never has won a College World Series title . . . District 2 with Holy Cross in 1952 and District 7 with Arizona State in 1965 have each won only once.

Widest Margin

The widest margin of victory in the College World Series is a 23-2 lashing Notre Dame gave Colorado State College in 1957 . . . The Fighting Irish scored 10 runs in the top of the first inning . . . Gene Duffy, new NCAA director of events and 1966 tournament supervisor, played centerfield for Notre Dame in that game, getting three hits in six at bats and scored three times . . . Duffy later played with the Lincoln Chiefs at Sherman Field.

Another former Lincoln Chiefs player, Joel Horlen who now pitches for the Chicago White Sox, won two games for Oklahoma State in the 1959 College World Series despite a broken hand . . . The Cowboys won the team championship that year . . . Jim Wixson of Oklahoma State owns the best earned run average in College World Series play . . . In 1960 Wixson pitched 11 innings without allowing a run or a hit.

Nine of the 19 championship finals games have been settled by one run, including two 1-0 thrillers . . . Two others were decided by two runs . . . USC and Minnesota met three times in the 1960 Series and all three games were decided by one run in extra innings . . . In the third round, Minnesota took a 12-11 slugfest in 10 innings . . . The fifth round saw USC triumph, 4-3, in 11 frames . . . In the finals, Minnesota captured a 10-inning, 2-1 victory.

Gary Moore, Texas' ace pitcher, is the starting safety on the Longhorn football team . . . Moore throws a football right-handed and a baseball left-handed . . . Texas has won or shared 41 Southwest Conference baseball championships in 51 years.

Oklahoma State Stays Alive In College World Series, 5-1

St. John's, Arizona Take Second-Round Victories

. . . OHIO STATE UPSETS SOUTHERN CAL, 6-2

By HAL BROWN
Star Sports Editor

Omaha — Ohio State won a duel of the two top-ranked teams in collegiate baseball with a 6-2 victory over No. 1 - rated Southern California here Tuesday night with 9,189 fans watching the 20th annual College World Series.

Oklahoma State's Big Eight champions broke out of a hitting slump with a 10-hit attack for a 5-1 victory over North Carolina Tuesday afternoon before 2,593 fans to keep the Cowboys' chances alive in the Series and eliminate the Tar Heels.

In other games Tuesday, St. John's shut out Texas, 2-0, and Arizona ousted Northeastern, 8-1.

Tuesday's results left Ohio State and St. John's the only unbeaten teams in the Series. They will meet at 8:30 Wednesday night.

Oklahoma State will meet Texas in the 6 o'clock game Wednesday.

Big ten champion Ohio State, the nation's second-ranked team, topped the Trojans behind the three-hit pitching of All American Steve Arlin, who came in Monday night to save the Buckeyes' win over Oklahoma State.

Arlin struck out 12 in picking up his 10th win against one loss this season. One of the three USC hits was a two-run homer over the right-field fence by Buddy Gordon in the sixth inning.

His Ohio State teammates gave Arlin more than the runs he needed with a six-run effort in the second inning, sending 11 batters to the plate.

Ohio State had only one extra-base hit in the big inning, a leadoff triple by Bob Baker, but five singles and a couple of USC errors plus two walks produced the six runs.

St. John's tied a College World Series record with four double plays, that helped right-handed Walt Witowski record his fourth win against a single loss this season.

Oklahoma State bounced back for the victory after suffering a 4-2 loss to Big Ten champion Ohio State Monday night and after trailing North Carolina, 1-0, early in the Tuesday afternoon game.

The Cowboys, who had scored both their runs Monday night on six walks and without benefit of a base hit, also accepted a gift run from the Tar Heels Tuesday afternoon to tie the game at 1-1 in the fourth.

However, the Oklahoma State attack came to life in the eighth when the Cowboys scored three times on four hits to back up right-hander Dick Frank's mound effort.

Frank, who had blanked Nebraska during the Big Eight season, went the distance to pick up his sixth win of the season against two losses. He allowed nine hits, but walked only two and struck out five.

The only run Frank allowed came in the third inning when opposing pitcher Mike Flanagan led off with a single, moved to second in a sacrifice, to third on an infield single, and scored on a single to center by Bob Bonczek.

Frank pitched out of a bases-loaded jam in the sixth when he struck out Mike McLaughlin. North Carolina put runners on first and second with one out in the top of the ninth, but Frank got the next two hitters to fly out to center fielder Alan Johnson.

Afer having one runner on base in both the second and third innings, Oklahoma State tied the game in the fourth when North Carolina right fielder Bonczek dropped Johnson's fly ball for a three-base error and Bob Toney lifted a sacrifice fly to center field.

The Cowboys went ahead in the seventh with Tracy Freeny leading off with a walk, moving to second on Frank's single, to third on a fielder's choice and scoring when Tar Heel second baseman Charlie Thomas threw wild to first trying to complete the double play.

Oklahoma State hadn't been able to get more than one hit in any one inning during the series until the eighth frame Tuesday when four hits led to three runs.

Toney started the inning with a single, but was forced at second by Wayne Weatherly. Don Kuykendall singled Weatherly to second and Gary Howard's single scored Weatherly, moving Kuykendall to second. Freeny drove both Kuykendall and Howard home with a double to left field.

Arizona's victory was its 40th of the season against 14 losses and the Wildcats scored virtualy at will against Northeastern in the 8-1 win.

Arizona left-hander Mike Paul held the losers to four hits while striking out 11 and walking only 5.

St. John's win was its second straight in the Series with Witowski stopping the Longhorns on five scattered hits.

The shutout was only the second blanking for Texas since 1959.

St. Jonn's scored both its runs in the fourth inning with Matt Galante, a 5-6, 115-pound second baseman, leading off the inning with his second of three hits for the night.

with a marked deck in a desperate effort to put together a winning combination.

Right-hander Earl Wilson, 30, the Sox's top pitcher with a 5-5 record in 15 games this year, was sent to Detroit in exchange for veteran outfielder Don Demeter and a minor leaguer to be named. In the same deal, Boston outfielder Joe Christopher was sent down to Syracuse, the Tigers' International League farm club.

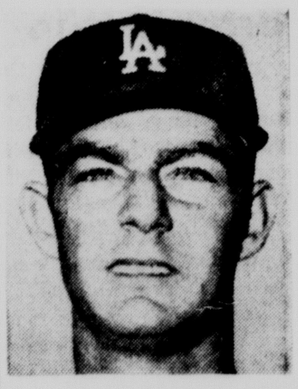

That was the second deal in 12 hours. Monday night, Boston outfielder Jim Gosser and a pair of relievers—Ken Sanders and Guido Grilli — were ticketed for Kansas City. For them, the Sox got right-hander Rollie Sheldon, record-holding reliever John Wyatt and outfielder Jose Tartabull.

Haywood Sullivan, Red Sox vice president, said "although we regret giving up Earl Wilson, we think we have obtained a great outfielder in Demeter, who has always hit well in Fenway Park."

Sullivan was confident Rollie Sheldon, once with the Yankees and traded to the Athletics in 1965, would fill Wilson's place in the starting rotation . . . "And Jose Tartabull gives us one of the fastest men in the league, a real threat on the basepaths, something we've lacked for some time."

Of Wyatt, 31, the Red Sox veep said "he gives us another big lift in the bullpen where we have had trouble this year." He appeared in 81 games for the Athletics last year and this season has an 0-3 record in relief.

Demeter, 30, batted .212 in 32 gamed with Detroit this year, belted five homers and drove in 12 runs. He holds the AL record for the most errorless games for an outfielder—266 games from September, 1962 through July, 1965.

DON DEMETER

The sox gave away a .254 left-handed hitting outfielder in Gosger, who also has driven in 12 runs this year.

The Cuban-born Tartabull, a speedy centerfielder, has a .238 batting average.

Eddie Lopat, Kansas City vice president, talking about the deal with Boston, said Gosger was the key. He called him "a kid who looks like he has good potential . . . the bear-down type who impresses you with his hustle."

Kirkpatrick Lifts Angels With 2 HRs

Chicago (AP) — Ed Kirkpatrick smashed two homers and knocked in four runs Tuesday as the California Angels whipped the Chicago White Sox, 10-4, and pitcher Dean Chance ended a six-game losing streak despite 15 Chicago hits.

Home runs came early as Kirkpatrick lofted a solo shot in the second inning and Jose Cardenal did the same for his No. 7 in the third.

Kirkpatrick boosted his season total to five with a blast into the upper right field deck in the eighth after Norm Siebern had walked. Before the eighth was over, the Angels had scored again when Tom Satriano walked and Paul Schaal doubled.

Fras' One-Hitter Leads Gerry's To Elks Victory

Gerry's Sport Shop initiated the Elks baseball season with a 4-2 victory over Bonebright behind the one-hit pitching of Wally Fras at Elks Field Tuesday night.

Fras struck out 15 in going the route for the winners. Tom Thompson homered in the three-run Gerry's first. A double by Mark Fredstrom in the fifth was the only Bonebright safety.

Cincy Edges Pirates, 3-0

Pittsburgh (AP) — Jim Maloney fired a three-hit shutout Tuesday night as the Cincinnati Reds edged the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-0.

Maloney didn't walk a batter and struck out seven in winning his seventh game against two defeats.

He was tagged for a single by Bill Mazeroski in the third and another by Roberto Clemente in the fourth, then set down nine Pirates in a row before Willie Stargell singled in the seventh.

The Reds gave Maloney the only run he needed in the fourth off Pirate southpaw Woody Fryman, who lost his second game after winning his first four.

Pete Rose led off with a single, Vada Pinson doubled him to third and Tony Perez singled home the run. Pinson was cut down at the plate trying to score on the same play.

Hinman Sparks Gerry's

George Hinman, a first-year man in the American Junior Legion baseball league, led Gerry's to a 3-2 victory over Columbus, tossing a five-hitter at the visitors and batting two for three.

Hinman's mound victory was his third against no losses this season and his second in league play. He struck out 11 and walked none.

Gerry's got what proved to be the winning run in the fifth inning when Steve McKelvey's single scored Mike Voss from third, giving Gerry's the 3-2 victory margin.

Hinman singled home the tying run moments earlier.

Columbus, trailing 1-0 going into the fifth inning, scored twice to take a 2-1 lead before the Gerry's tallies.

Gerry's is now 5-1 over-all and 3-1 in league play and will play at Hastings tonight.

Aparicio's Single Brings 2-1 Triumph For Baltimore '9'

. . . ORIOLES RALLY IN EIGHTH

Baltimore (AP)—Andy Etchebarren tripled home the tying run and then scored the winning tally on Luis Aparicio's single in the eighth inning as Baltimore rallied for a 2-1 victory over New York Tuesday night.

Jim Bouton attempting a comeback, was cruising along on a four-hitter and leading 1-0 going into the eighth. But Clete Boyer's two-base throwing error on Dave Johnson's roller opened the gates for the Orioles.

Etchebarren followed with a hit to center and when the ball got past Joe Pepitone, the rookie catcher wound up at third base. Aparicio's single to left delivered Etchebarren with the winning run.

Boyer's sixth home run of the season gave New York its only run. That came in the fifth inning against Oriole starter Dave McNally.

Bouton, sidelined with arm trouble for almost two months, protected the margin until the error got him in trouble.

Beatrice Tips Optimists, 11-9

Beatrice — Three seventh-inning runs sent Beatrice to an American Legion Junior baseball victory over the Lincoln Optimists, 11-9, Tuesday night.

Trailing, 7-6, after six complete innings, two walks coupled with a double by Larry Goodenough and a single put Beatrice ahead, 9-7.

The Optimists got one run back in the eighth, but Jeff Shafer's eighth-inning home run added two Beatrice runs and put the game out of reach.

After leading, 4-3, after two innings, Beatrice exploded for three third-inning runs and a 6-5 margin.

Cincy Edges Pirates, 3-0

Pittsburgh (AP) — Jim Maloney fired a three-hit shutout Tuesday night as the Cincinnati Reds edged the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-0.

Maloney didn't walk a batter and struck out seven in winning his seventh game against two defeats.

He was tagged for a single by Bill Mazeroski in the third and another by Roberto Clemente in the fourth, then set down nine Pirates in a row before Willie Stargell singled in the seventh.

The Reds gave Maloney the only run he needed in the fourth off Pirate southpaw Woody Fryman, who lost his second game after winning his first four.

Pete Rose led off with a single, Vada Pinson doubled him to third and Tony Perez singled home the run. Pinson was cut down at the plate trying to score on the same play.

Hinman Sparks Gerry's

George Hinman, a first-year man in the American Junior Legion baseball league, led Gerry's to a 3-2 victory over Columbus, tossing a five-hitter at the visitors and batting two for three.

Hinman's mound victory was his third against no losses this season and his second in league play. He struck out 11 and walked none.

Gerry's got what proved to be the winning run in the fifth inning when Steve McKelvey's single scored Mike Voss from third, giving Gerry's the 3-2 victory margin.

Hinman singled home the tying run moments earlier.

Columbus, trailing 1-0 going into the fifth inning, scored twice to take a 2-1 lead before the Gerry's tallies.

Gerry's is now 5-1 over-all and 3-1 in league play and will play at Hastings tonight.

Aparicio's Single Brings 2-1 Triumph For Baltimore '9'

. . . ORIOLES RALLY IN EIGHTH

Baltimore (AP)—Andy Etchebarren tripled home the tying run and then scored the winning tally on Luis Aparicio's single in the eighth inning as Baltimore rallied for a 2-1 victory over New York Tuesday night.

Jim Bouton attempting a comeback, was cruising along on a four-hitter and leading 1-0 going into the eighth. But Clete Boyer's two-base throwing error on Dave Johnson's roller opened the gates for the Orioles.

Etchebarren followed with a hit to center and when the ball got past Joe Pepitone, the rookie catcher wound up at third base. Aparicio's single to left delivered Etchebarren with the winning run.

Boyer's sixth home run of the season gave New York its only run. That came in the fifth inning against Oriole starter Dave McNally.

Bouton, sidelined with arm trouble for almost two months, protected the margin until the error got him in trouble.

Beatrice Tips Optimists, 11-9

Beatrice — Three seventh-inning runs sent Beatrice to an American Legion Junior baseball victory over the Lincoln Optimists, 11-9, Tuesday night.

Trailing, 7-6, after six complete innings, two walks coupled with a double by Larry Goodenough and a single put Beatrice ahead, 9-7.

The Optimists got one run back in the eighth, but Jeff Shafer's eighth-inning home run added two Beatrice runs and put the game out of reach.

After leading, 4-3, after two innings, Beatrice exploded for three third-inning runs and a 6-5 margin.

Boston HRs Bring Split With Indians

. . . RED SOX BOMB SIEBERT IN OPENER

Cleveland (AP) — George Thomas and George Scott hammered ninth inning home runs that earned Boston an 11-7 victory and a split of its twi-night doubleheader against Cleveland Tuesday night. Whitfield drove in five runs as the Indians won the opener, 8-7.

Rocky Colavito's grand slammer in the eighth inning had tied the nightcap at 7-7, but Thomas broke the deadlock with his second home run of the season. After Carl Yastrzemski walked and Tony Conigliaro singled, Scott whacked his second home run of the game and 16th of the season, wrapping it up.

Sonny Siebert, who pitched a no-hitter in his last appearance Friday night, picked up his sixth victory in the opener, although he was knocked out in the seventh inning by a four-run Boston rally.

Whitfield hit a three-run homer and a two-run single in the first game and came back with a homer-his eighth-and two singles in the nightcap.

Homers by George Smith and Scott helped the Red Sox to an early lead in the second game.

Whitfield's second - inning homer, and a two-run homer by Chico Salmon gave Cleveland their only runs until the eighth. Then Jim Landis blooped a double to right, Max Alvis singled and Solmon walked to set the stage for Colavito's grand slammer.

Houston Ends Koufax' Win Streak At Eight

Los Angeles (AP) — Houston ended Sandy Koufax' eight-game winning streak and handed the Los Angeles ace his second loss in 13 decisions this season, beating the Dodgers 3-0 Tuesday night on Larry Dierker's five-hitter.

Chuck Harrison, brought up only Monday from the Pacific Coast League, broke up a scoreless duel between Koufax and Dierker with a bases-loaded single on the sixth inning.

Infield hits by Sonny Jackson and Dave Nicholson and a single to center by Joe Morgan loaded the bases before Harrison drove in two runs with his big hit.

Dierker, 3-1, struck out four and retired 13 out of 14 Dodgers at one stretch.

It was Houston's first victory over Koufax since April 14, 1963. The Dodger lefthander had beaten the Astros 11 times in a row since then.

The sweep of the two-game series gave the Astros a 5-3 edge over Los Angeles this season and knocked the second-place Dodgers two games behind San Francisco in the National League race.

The loss was the first for Koufax since Cincinnati beat him 3-1 here April 30 and gave him the same record as Juan Marichal of San Francisco.

Nats Down Detroit, 3-2 To End Losing String

Detroit (AP) — Willie Kirkland drove in the winning run with a seventh-inning single as Washington snapped an eight-game losing streak with a 3-2 victory over the Detroit Tigers Tuesday night.

The Senators broke a 2-2 tie in the seventh when Fred Valentine was hit by a pitch. Don Lock's third hit of the game moved Valentine to third, and Kirkland's single to left brought him home.

The Tigers nicked Phil Ortega for a run in the first on Dick McAuliffe's pop fly double and Al Kaline's single.

Washington moved ahead in the sixth when hits by Jim King and Lock, a sacrifice and Ken McMullen's single produced two runs.

McAuliffe tied it in the Tiger sixth with a solo homer.

Ortega had limited the Tigers to two hits after the first but when Bill Freehan singled with two out in the ninth, Dick Lines came on to get the last out.

Tiger starter Bill Monbouquette missed his 100th victory for the fourth time but did pass one milestone. His strikeout of Ed Brinkman in the second inning was the 1,000th of his career.

Cards Stop NY Mets, 9-2

New York (AP) — St. Louis knocked out Dick Rusteck, a shutout winner Friday in his first major league start, and scored six runs in the second inning Tuesday on the way to a 9-2 victory over the New York Mets.

Eleven Cards went to the plate in the second when Jerry Buchek hit a two-run homer. There were five singles, a walk, an interference call against catcher John Stephenson and a double steal in the inning.

Rusteck, who had blanked Cincinnati in his first appearance after his recall from Jacksonville, never got anybody out this time. Lou Brock led the Cards' attack with a homer, double, two singles and two stolen bases.

Tracy Stallard, making his second start, held his old mates scoreless until Ed Kranepool homered in the sixth. Joe Hoerner took over in the 90-degree heat when Stallard wavered in the eighth.

Battey Lifts Twins Past KC By 6-3

Kansas City (AP)—Earl Battey doubled home a run in the eighth and singled another across in the ninth, sparking Minnesota to a 6-3 victory over Kansas City Tuesday night.

Battey broke a 3-3 tie in the eighth and knocked in the second of two runs the Twins scored in the ninth.

Battey's one-out double off Jack Aker in the eighth pinned the loss on Chuck Dobson and gave the victory to Dave Boswell, who limited Kansas City to five hits.

Boswell, now 3-4, struck out 11 and walked only one. Dobson gave up eight hits, struck out six and walked five during his 7 1-3 innings. Dobson left in the eighth after Jimmy Hall walked with one out and went to second on a wild pitch.

Catcher Phil Roof hit his second home run of the season in the fifth, pulling the Athletics even after Bernie Allen and Cesar Tovar put together doubles in the fourth for a 3-2 Minnesota edge.

Boston HRs Bring Split With Indians

. . . RED SOX BOMB SIEBERT IN OPENER

Cleveland (AP) — George Thomas and George Scott hammered ninth inning home runs that earned Boston an 11-7 victory and a split of its twi-night doubleheader against Cleveland Tuesday night. Whitfield drove in five runs as the Indians won the opener, 8-7.

Rocky Colavito's grand slammer in the eighth inning had tied the nightcap at 7-7, but Thomas broke the deadlock with his second home run of the season. After Carl Yastrzemski walked and Tony Conigliaro singled, Scott whacked his second home run of the game and 16th of the season, wrapping it up.

Sonny Siebert, who pitched a no-hitter in his last appearance Friday night, picked up his sixth victory in the opener, although he was knocked out in the seventh inning by a four-run Boston rally.

Whitfield hit a three-run homer and a two-run single in the first game and came back with a homer-his eighth-and two singles in the nightcap.

Homers by George Smith and Scott helped the Red Sox to an early lead in the second game.

Whitfield's second - inning homer, and a two-run homer by Chico Salmon gave Cleveland their only runs until the eighth. Then Jim Landis blooped a double to right, Max Alvis singled and Salmon walked to set the stage for Colavito's grand slammer.

Houston Ends Koufax' Win Streak At Eight

Los Angeles (AP) — Houston ended Sandy Koufax' eight-game winning streak and handed the Los Angeles ace his second loss in 13 decisions this season, beating the Dodgers 3-0 Tuesday night on Larry Dierker's five-hitter.

Chuck Harrison, brought up only Monday from the Pacific Coast League, broke up a scoreless duel between Koufax and Dierker with a bases-loaded single on the sixth inning.

Dierker, 3-1, struck out four and retired 13 out of 14 Dodgers at one stretch.

It was Houston's first victory over Koufax since April 14, 1963. The Dodger lefthander had beaten the Astros 11 times in a row since then.

The sweep of the two-game series gave the Astros a 5-3 edge over Los Angeles this season and knocked the second-place Dodgers two games behind San Francisco in the National League race.

The loss was the first for Koufax since Cincinnati beat him 3-1 here April 30 and gave him the same record as Juan Marichal of San Francisco.

Battey Lifts Twins Past KC By 6-3

Kansas City (AP)—Earl Battey doubled home a run in the eighth and singled another across in the ninth, sparking Minnesota to a 6-3 victory over Kansas City Tuesday night.

Battey broke a 3-3 tie in the eighth and knocked in the second of two runs the Twins scored in the ninth.

Battey's one-out double off Jack Aker in the eighth pinned the loss on Chuck Dobson and gave the victory to Dave Boswell, who limited Kansas City to five hits.

Boswell, now 3-4, struck out 11 and walked only one. Dobson gave up eight hits, struck out six and walked five during his 7 1-3 innings. Dobson left in the eighth after Jimmy Hall walked with one out and went to second on a wild pitch.

Catcher Phil Roof hit his second home run of the season in the fifth, pulling the Athletics even after Bernie Allen and Cesar Tovar put together doubles in the fourth for a 3-2 Minnesota edge.

Cards Stop NY Mets, 9-2

New York (AP) — St. Louis knocked out Dick Rusteck, a shutout winner Friday in his first major league start, and scored six runs in the second inning Tuesday on the way to a 9-2 victory over the New York Mets.

Eleven Cards went to the plate in the second when Jerry Buchek hit a two-run homer. There were five singles, a walk, an interference call against catcher John Stephenson and a double steal in the inning.

Rusteck, who had blanked Cincinnati in his first appearance after his recall from Jacksonville, never got anybody out this time. Lou Brock led the Cards' attack with a homer, double, two singles and two stolen bases.

Tracy Stallard, making his second start, held his old mates scoreless until Ed Kranepool homered in the sixth. Joe Hoerner took over in the 90-degree heat when Stallard wavered in the eighth.

Governor Asks Information On 6 Counties' Tax

Gov. Frank Morrison said Tuesday he has requested the state tax commissioner and attorney general for additional information and legal advice on whether six Sandhills counties have violated Nebraska law in failing to adopt scientific property reappraisals.

Tax Commissioner George Dworak contends that Arthur, Blaine, Hooker, Grant, McPherson and Thomas Counties violated a 1963 law in failing to adopt the new appraisals approved by the tax commissioner.

Dworak reported earlier he's studying the possibility of withholding gas tax receipts from hose counties under a 1965 law

'Legally Complex'

Morrison said the situation is a "legally complex one" and there may be "a legal question whether there has been an actual violation of law."

Bearing on the matter and legal questions, Morrison said, is what effect the eight 1965 State Board of Equalization cases pending before the Supreme Court may have and whether the action taken by the county boards prior to May 31 is now out of their hands even though the tax commissioner might order the counties to restore the appraisal figures after a hearing.

"We need to study the existing laws and make sure they are enforceable," he said.

"Nebraska and the counties have expended $3 million in the scientific reappraisal program," he said. "Unless the reappraisals are going to be followed as a general rule, then we've thrown away $3 million."

The governor indicated he would move slowly in making sure the state is on solid legal grounds on any action taken.

Aside from the immediate legal questions involved, Morrison noted the 1966 State Board of Equalization can take in August such appropriate action as necessary to equalize the six Sandhills counties with the rest of Nebraska.

GENERAL MOTORS SOLE ONE AHEAD . . .

Car Sales Still Off '65 Pace

Detroit (AP) — New car sales in early June ran behind the 1965 pace with only General Motors topping its sales mark of a year ago.

Preliminary sales reports from the four U.S. auto makers Tuesday listed sales of 239,214 cars in the June 1-10 period. This trailed both the 251,477 cars sold in the comparable period last year and the 256,489 sold in the final 10 days of May.

It marked the fourth straight 10-day period in which industry sales trailed those of a year ago.

On a calendar year basis to date, however, sales continued to run well ahead of the 1965 pace.

Chrysler Corp. listed sales of 35,766 cars in the 10-day period compared with 43,924 for the comparable 10 days last year.

Ford Motor Co. listed 59,913 car sales compared with 65,582 a year go. Lincoln-Mercury Division had 9,588 sales, just about 100 ahead of last year's sales effort, but Ford Division was off.

American Motors sold 6,570 cars compared with 7,814 in the June 1-10, 1965 period.

Postal Receipts, Mail Increase

The Lincoln Post Office reports that the volume of outgoing mail and of postal receipts both show slight increases over last year.

Post office figures showed a 2.3% growth in the number of originating pieces of mail and a 4.5% increase in total postal receipts.

The Post Office also reports that postal money orders are down from a year ago.

Governor Asks Information On 6 Counties' Tax

Gov. Frank Morrison said Tuesday he has requested the state tax commissioner and attorney general for additional information and legal advice on whether six Sandhills counties have violated Nebraska law in failing to adopt scientific property reappraisals.

Tax Commissioner George Dworak contends that Arthur, Blaine, Hooker, Grant, McPherson and Thomas Counties violated a 1963 law in failing to adopt the new appraisals approved by the tax commissioner.

Dworak reported earlier he's studying the possibility of withholding gas tax receipts from hose counties under a 1965 law.

'Legally Complex'

Morrison said the situation is a "legally complex one" and there may be "a legal question whether there has been an actual violation of law."

Bearing on the matter and legal questions, Morrison said, is what effect the eight 1965 State Board of Equalization cases pending before the Supreme Court may have and whether the action taken by the county boards prior to May 31 is now out of their hands even though the tax commissioner might order the counties to restore the appraisal figures after a hearing.

"We need to study the existing laws and make sure they are enforceable," he aid.

"Nebraska and the counties have expended $3 million in the scientific reappraisal program," he said. "Unless the reappraisals are going to be followed as a general rule, then we've thrown away $3 million."

The governor indicated he would move slowly in making sure the state is on solid legal grounds on any action taken.

Aside from the immediate legal questions involved, Morrison noted the 1966 State Board of Equalization can take in August such appropriate action as necessary to equalize the six Sandhills counties with the rest of Nebraska.

Car Sales Still Off '65 Pace

Detroit (AP) — New car sales in early June ran behind the 1965 pace with only General Motors topping its sales mark of a year ago.

Preliminary sales reports from the four U.S. auto makers Tuesday listed sales of 239,214 cars in the June 1-10 period. This trailed both the 251,477 cars sold in the comparable period last year and the 256,489 sold in the final 10 days of May.

It marked the fourth straight 10-day period in which industry sales trailed those of a year ago.

On a calendar year basis to date, however, sales continued to run well ahead of the 1965 pace.

General Motors had the strongest sales report as its sales of 135,965 cars was a new high for the early June period. The old GM mark of 134,157 cars was set last year.

Chrysler Corp. listed sales of 35,766 cars in the 10-day period compared with 43,924 for the comparable 10 days last year.

Ford Motor Co. listed 59,913 car sales compared with 65,582 a year go. Lincoln-Mercury Division had 9,588 sales, just about 100 ahead of last year's sales effort, but Ford Division was off.

American Motors sold 6,570 cars compared with 7,814 in the June 1-10, 1965 period.

Postal Receipts, Mail Increase

The Lincoln Post Office reports that the volume of outgoing mail and of postal receipts both show slight increases over last year.

Post office figures showed a 2.3% growth in the number of originating pieces of mail and a 4.5% increase in total postal receipts.

The Post Office also reports that postal money orders are down from a year ago.

Dow Industrials Top 900 Level

New York (AP) — The stock market stretched its recovery drive through the third straight session Tuesday and topped the psychologically important 900 level in the Dow Jones industrial average.

Trading was fairly active, volume totaling 7.72 million shares compared with 7.6 million Monday.

The market had to absorb some profit taking in the morning and was down slightly in dull trading. Offerings were handled without weakening the list enough to attract heavy selling, however, and the relative firmness of many issues attracted additional buying.

The Dow industrials advanced 5.57 to 903.17.

The 900 lines has been a barrier to advance during the past several weeks of recovery and the question existed as to how much stock there was for sale at that level.

Another failure to get through this mass overhead resistance would have signaled the need for another test of the May lows — but the average pierced it and in quite active trading which carried some conviction with it. According to theorists, the market should now attack the next main upside hurdle represented by the area of 920 to 925 in the Dow.

Of 1,392 issues traded, 603 rose and 534 fell. New highs for the year totaled 26 and new lows 63.

Airlines, down in the morning, erased losses and moved ahead as pacemakers in the late advances.

Selective strength in blue chips, however, was really what put the Dow industrials over the 900 lines. Du Pont advanced 4¾. Anaconda 3¼ and United Aircraft 1¾. Many another key stock, however, was a loser. The rise was quite uneven.

This was reflected by the Associated Press average of 60 stocks which moved up only a minimal .1 to 227.5 with industrials up 1.0, rails off .1 and utilities off .7.

Ten of the 15 most active stocks rose, 3 declined and AT&T was unchanged.

The most active stock was Martin Marietta which rose 1¼ to 27½ on 171,100 shares.

Big gainers among the active issues included SCM Corp., up 5¼; Eastern Air Lines, Inc., Pan American World Airways, up 2; TWA, up 1¼; Burroughs, up 1¾, and Xerox, up 3¼.

More stocks declined than advanced on the American Stock Exchange but there were some sharp gains.

Dow Industrials Top 900 Level

New York (AP) — The stock market stretched its recovery drive through the third straight session Tuesday and topped the psychologically important 900 level in the Dow Jones industrial average.

Trading was fairly active, volume totaling 7.72 million shares compared with 7.6 million Monday.

The market had to absorb some profit taking in the morning and was down slightly in dull trading. Offerings were handled without weakening the list enough to attract heavy selling, however, and the relative firmness of many issues attracted additional buying.

The Dow industrials cleared 900 an hour before the close. This accomplishment instilled a new wave of enthusiasm and buyers jumped back into the market.

The Dow industrials advanced 5.57 to 903.17.

The 900 lines has been a barrier to advance during the past several weeks of recovery and the question existed as to how much stock there was for sale at that level.

Another failure to get through this mass overhead resistance would have signaled the need for another test of the May lows — but the average pierced it and in quite active trading which carried some conviction with it. According to theorists, the market should now attack the next main upside hurdle represented by the area of 920 to 925 in the Dow.

Of 1,392 issues traded, 608 rose and 534 fell. New highs for the year totaled 26 and new lows 63.

Airlines, down in the morning, erased losses and moved ahead as pacemakers in the late advances.

Selective strength in blue chips, however, was really what put the Dow industrials over the 900 lines. Du Pont advanced 4¾. Anaconda 3¼ and United Aircraft 1¾. Many another key stock, however, was a loser. The rise was quite uneven.

This was reflected by the Associated Press average of 60 stocks which moved up only a minimal .1 to 323.5 with industrials up 1.0, rails off .1 and utilities off .7.

Ten of the 15 most-active stocks rose, 4 declined and AT&T was unchanged.

The most-active stock was Martin Marietta which rose 1¼ to 27½ on 171,400 shares.

Big gainers among the active issues included SCM Corp., up 5⅞; Eastern Air Lines, 3⅜; Pan American World Airways, up 3⅜; TWA, up 4⅜; Burroughs, up 4⅜, and Xerox, up 3¾.

More stocks declined than advanced on the American Stock Exchange but there were some sharp gains.

The Associated Press average of corporate bonds declined.

EVERYBODY'S MONEY:

Fund Management Concept Changes Traced, Analyzed

By Merryle S. Rukeyser

Professional investment managers of pension trusts, mutual funds and portfolios of philanthropic ventures are currently on their mettle in this period of transition in Wall Street.

Rukeyser

The great structural change in the investment market has been the conversion of fund managers to faith in balanced investment structures including growth stocks.

This is a reversal of the concepts which prevailed up to the end of the first quarter of this century when conservative investment of other people's money in trust funds and related projects was limited to the purchase of high grade bonds. Up until the time Edgar Lawrence Smith in 1927 wrote his trend bucking volume "Common Stock as a Long Term Investment," it was accepted that the goal of investment was to conserve capital and assure regularity of interest income.

Today professional investors take a different view, and feel that in a dynamic national economy it is necessary to include prime stocks in order to keep apace of economic expansion and development. In addition, long time studies by Smith and his followers disclosed that good stocks over the long pull give superior returns as compared with bonds, which have come to be characterized as "no growth" issues.

Studies of extended behavior of stocks by the Center for Research of the University of Chicago revealed that the aggregate of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange, including the failure as well as the successes, between 1926 and 1960 showed a median return (based on annual compounding and the assumed reinvestment of dividends) of 9.8%.

Amended Laws

In recent years, various states have amended their laws governing fiduciary investments to include common stocks as well as bonds and mortgages. In the past quarter of a century, there has been a proliferation of stock-oriented mutual funds, and in recent years the voluntary corporate non-insured pensions funds have tended to increase their ratio of stock holdings.

It seems to this writer timely to reassess these new fashions now that the market is sharply below the peak prices attained by the averages earlier in the year. There is an unfortunate habit of stressing this long term constructive trend only when quotations are high and rising, and then, in the spirit of confusion, soft pedaling such awareness after the market has had a shakeout. If unsophisticated individual investors are to acquire stocks only when prices are elevated and still climbing, and then shun them after markdowns following a market reaction, they tend to be suckers.

Of course, the professional investors are supposed to know better, but even they are not entirely immune to mob psychology and emotions. In order to find out what the pros are thinking, "Fortune" conducted a survey among trust officers of banks that manage corporate pension funds. Twenty banks, which are believed to manage between 40% and 50% of all the assets in noninsured pension funds, indicate that as a long term objective they intend to increase their ratio of common stocks to total fund assets above existing levels. Five banks indicated that they would go to 70% or higher.

Further Change

This represents a further change of thinking. For until recent years, it was popular to indicate that the ceiling on common stocks in pension funds should be 50% of total assets. For six years the non-insured pension funds have been the largest single buyers of common stocks. In 1964, such funds put 46% of their new funds into stocks and in 1965 60%.

As a matter of fact, such funds have been investing in stocks faster than the shares have been created. The survey indicates that last year while pension funds put $3 billion net into stocks, individual investors were net sellers of $4 million (although this trend was offset by net purchases by individuals of $2 billion of mutual fund shares).

To the extent that professional investment managers of pension funds, investment companies, insurance enterprises, colleges and universities, and hospitals have become stock minded, the structure of the investment market has been modified. But it is a fallacy to assume, as some naive persons did, that institutional absorption of stocks had made the stock market slump proof.

(Mr. Rukeyser will be pleased to receive inquiries with stamped self-addressed envelope concerning their financial problems in care of The Lincoln Star. Questions of general interest will be answered in the column. Others, to the extent time permits, will be handled by mail.)

Choppers Transporting Food Ration To Guard Test Areas

By SP4 JOHN LEE

Camp Ripley, Minn. — The radio in the operations tent of the 167th Aviation Company crackled into a voice with the message "pick up for Company B 126th Engineer. Coordinates are 936-281; weight, 811."

That was the signal for two of the 30 helicopter pilots to swing into action. First Lt. Jim Kessler and Second Lt. Bud Musiel were ready with their flight suits on.

They walked to a waiting H-19, and, after a routine check of the craft, lifted it into the air above the forward landing strip, some three miles from the Camp Ripley cantonement area.

Perfect Landing

A short hop over the trees brought the cargo ship to a wide clearing and one of many perfect landings for the pilots of the Wahoo-based Nebraska National Guard Unit, until last November an air ambulance outfit.

A truck pulled alongside the chopper and servicemen from the ration breakdown detail started loading the cargo—811 pounds of fresh meat, potatoes, eggs, cereal, and other items to maeke up the "A ration" for the engineer company's evening meal and breakfast the following day.

In a few minutes the H-19 was again air-borne, carrying 200 pounds less than its half-ton capacity. Had this been a morning run, there would have been a sling under it loaded with up to 1,600 pounds of ice to preserve the food during the day.

The flight was moved, comfortably above the treetops and around over the east bank of the Mississippi River avoiding the live fire of the "war-games" area.

Lt. Kessler brought his ship down in a small clearing near the river—a spot he knew from earlier trips and that he had checked on a map before take-off by the radioed co-ordinates.

Another truck was waiting at that point—a few hundred yards behind the front at which an "aggressor force" was testing the combat capabilities of the Nebraska Guard Selective Reserve Force (SRF) unit.

Trucks Previously Used

Each day, in two series of air lifts, daily rations are being flown to the test area, amounting to 7,000 to 10,000 pounds of food per day. Trucks were used to transport the supplies the entire distance in previous years.

The 167th Aviation Company is getting a real workout in its new role, and everything is running "real smooth" in ideal weather, reports company commander Major William Cook.

The cargo successfully delivered, Lts. Kessler and Musiel guided their craft back to the landing strip via the same route and checked in, completing mission No. 120.

Cyclists Claim Their Civil Rights Violated

Omaha (AP) — Law enforcement officers in Douglas and Washington counties have been charged with violating the civil rights of a midwestern motorcycle club.

Gerald Smith, 24, an Omaha member of the club, said Negroes could march for civil rights in Omaha but members of his club could not ride their motorcycles in the city without being bothered.

"We can't even come into Omaha," Smith said. "Every time we come in, they kick us out."

Omaha police escorted members of the club, called El Forastero, to the Mormon Bridge and into Iowa May 1 after the club held a two-day party at Elk City.

The Washington County sheriff asked members of the club to leave a wooded area north of Omaha's Hummel Park Saturday.

Smith, 21, and Dennis Olofson, 23, said reports of destruction at Elk City were "exaggerated."

The town hall had been rented to a man who said it would be used for a dance Friday and Saturday nights, April 29-30. A group of motorcyclists held a dance on Friday night, resulting in extensive damage to the town hall.

After townspeople asked them to leave Saturday morning, it was reported that eight windows and two doors were broken, a stove torn from its mountings, some furniture and light bulbs broken, and old pictures on the walls torn up.

Smith and Olofson said the only damage their club did was the breaking of a couple of chairs and possibly the breaking of one window. He said the club members offered to "clean it up."

He said his fellow club members—from Omaha, Sioux City, Kansas City and Minneapolis — "chased off" members of a Wichita cycle club "who were causing the trouble" in Elk City.

He said a motorcycle gang which buzzed civil rights workers in Omaha Sunday is from Omaha but does not belong to El Forastero.

City Workers Seek 20 Pct. Pay Increase

Omaha (AP) — Omaha city employes formally requested a 20% pay increase and improved fringe benefits Tuesday.

After the hearing, the Personnel Board voted to study the matter and said it would announce its recommendations June 27.

The requests came from police, fire and civilian employes' unions.

The board's recommendations will go to the City Council. The 20% pay increase would amount to $1.8 million a year, $1,253,000 above the 5 to 10% increases recommended for 81% of Omaha's city workers by Personnel Director Ernest W. Howard at the board's May 31 meeting.

The unions also want the city to pay 50% of a proposed health, accident and life insurance program.

Zimmerman To New Anti-Poverty Program Position

Omaha (AP) — Robert Zimmerman, 32, Tuesday was named director of Omaha's anti-poverty program to retrain welfare recipients.

Zimmerman, with the program since it began last year, is a former director of education and employment for the Urban League.

He also has worked for the State Board of Health and the Immanuel Deaconess Institute in Omaha. He is a native of Seward and a graduate of the University of Omaha.

In the anti-poverty position, Zimmerman replaces John R. Fargher, who left Omaha for a job with the National Rehabilitation Association in Washington.

NATO Sites Out For Luxembourg

Luxembourg (AP) — Prime Minister Pierre Werner says Luxembourg can accommodate only minor elements in the forthcoming realignment of NATO headquarters sites.

"We cannot take up more important services," Warner told newsmen, "because of the small size of our territory."

Nurse-Author Dies

New York (UPI) — Mrs. Cordelia W. Kelly, 59, author of articles on nursing, died at Roosevelt Hospital here.

Elderly Woman Dies Of Burns

Omaha (UPI) — Omaha's tenth death by fire was recorded early Tuesday when a 90-year-old woman died of burns received in a fire Monday night.

Mrs. Emma Mae Franson suffered the burns when her clothing caught on fire, her son-in-law, William J. Hotten, reported.

Hooten went to Mrs. Franson's home when she failed to answer a phone call about 7 p.m. He said he looked in the window and saw her badly burned body on the floor.

He forced open a latched screen, opened the door with a key and called the rescue squad.

New Four-Story Apartment House For Elderly Due

Grand Island (UPI)—Plans were announced Tuesday for construction of a $1 million, four-story apartment building for the elderly. It will contain 74, one-bedroom apartments.

The plans were announced by the committee of the Golden Age Village here. The new structure will be called the "Centennial Towers" in observance of Nebraska's 100th anniversary next year.

The structure will be located across from the Golden Towers unit which was completed in 1965. The added 74 apartments will bring the total number of apartments in the village to 205, in addition to the 42-bed Baumann Home.

The architectural firm of George Clayton and Associates has been employed to prepare plans for the building. It is hoped groundbreaking can occur by March 1, 1967.

The Golden Age committee said it felt the new building was needed when it examined more than 75 applications for possible vacancies at Golden Towers.

'Peace Workers' Halt

Tokyo (UPI)—Two American "peace workers" wound up two weeks of teach-ins in Japan and Okinawa.

Commerce Chief Expects No Tax Increase In 1966

Washington (UPI) — Commerce Secretary John T. Connor said Tuesday that he does not expect the administration to ask for a tax increase this year.

Connor told a news conference that there were still some inflationary "pressures" around and President Johnson continued to consider the possibility of higher taxes to keep the lid on the economy.

But, he added, "my personal opinion would be, unless there is some drastic change, that no tax proposal will be advanced in this session of Congress."

7 Selected For NWU Religious Drama Workshop

Seven students will participate in Nebraska Wesleyan University's Summer Workshop in Religious Drama.

Prof. David Clark listed cast members for the summer program, which he described as unique to Nebraska Wesleyan, as:

Sally Anderson, Lincoln; Rollin Batten, Kearney State College student; Cricket Baxter, Middleport, N.Y., Jo Hill, Papillion; Dennis McClatchey, Des Moines; Rich Schroeder, Shelton, and Cheryl Young, Hersney.

Judy Gunda, Independence, Kans., a 1966 NWU graduate, will serve as assistant workshop director, Clark said.

Clark said the workshop group will tour in six midwestern states — Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, South Dakota and Colorado.

OFFICERS FOR NWU'S MODEL U.N. SELECTED

Officers for the 1967 model United Nations program at Nebraska Wesleyan University have been announced by Sam Seever, secretary-general.

Heading the important agenda committee are Laurel Mohler, Omaha, and Art Richardson, Yankton, S.D. Legal counsel for the mock general assembly sessions next March is Larry Ruth, Rising City. Secretary is Mary Richardson, Ainsworth, assisted by Linda Dlouhy, Omaha.

Other committee heads are: Larry Reed, Independence, Kans., sergeant-at-arms; Tom Surber, Norfolk, business manager; Susan Christensen, Minden, treasurer; Joe Johnson, Broken Bow, and Doug Evans, Lincoln, publicity; and Bobbie Bogue, Oakland, and Jim Kruse, Chambers, special committees.

Sen. Finds Origin Of 'Great Society'

Washington (UPI) — Sen. Karl Mundt, R-S.D., no friend of many administration domestic programs, gave this version Tuesday of the origin of the term "Great Society".

"James Madison, one of our nation's founding fathers and our fourth president, reported that during the debates in the federal convention of 1787 one gentleman wanted to abolish the states, which, he claimed 'would be a perpetual source of discord,' and he wanted one national government.

"This foe of state governments declared, and I quote: 'There can be no cure for this evil but in doing away with states altogether and uniting them into one great society.'"

Choppers Transporting Food Ration To Guard Test Areas

By SP4 JOHN LEE

Camp Ripley, Minn. — The radio in the operations tent of the 167th Aviation Company crackled into a voice with the message "pick up for Company B 128th Engineer. Coordinates are 936-281; weight, 811."

That was the signal for two of the 30 helicopter pilots to swing into action. First Lt. Jim Kessler and Second Lt. Bud Musiel were ready with their flight suits on.

They walked to a waiting H-19, and, after a routine check of the craft, lifted it into the air above the forward landing strip, some three miles from the Camp Ripley cantonement area.

Perfect Landing

A short hop over the trees brought the cargo ship to a wide clearing and one of many perfect landings for the pilots of the Wahoo-based Nebraska National Guard Unit, until last November an air ambulance outfit.

A truck pulled alongside the chopper and servicemen from the ration breakdown detail started loading the cargo—811 pounds of fresh meat, potatoes, eggs, cereal, and other items to maeke up the "A ration" for the engineer company's evening meal and breakfast the following day.

In a few minutes the H-19 was again air-borne, carrying 200 pounds less than its half-ton capacity. Had this been a morning run, there would have been a sling underneath loaded with up to 1,600 pounds of ice to preserve the food during the day.

The flight was moved, comfortably above the treetops and around over the east bank of the Mississippi River avoiding the live fire of the "war-games" area.

Lt. Kessler brought his ship down in a small clearing near the river—a spot he knew from earlier trips and that he had checked on a map before take-off by the radioed co-ordinates.

Another truck was waiting at that point—a few hundred yards behind the front at which an "aggressor force" was testing the combat capabilities of the Nebraska Guard Selective Reserve Force (SRF) unit.

Trucks Previously Used

Each day, in two series of air lifts, daily rations are being flown to the test area, amounting to 7,000 to 10,000 pounds of food per day. Trucks were used to transport the supplies the entire distance in previous years.

The 167th Aviation Company is getting a real workout in its new role, and everything is running "real smooth" in ideal weather, reports company commander Major William Cook.

The cargo successfully delivered, Lts. Kessler and Musiel guided their craft back to the landing strip via the same route and checked in, completing mission No. 120.

Cyclists Claim Their Civil Rights Violated

Omaha (AP) — Law enforcement officers in Douglas and Washington counties have been charged with violating the civil rights of a midwestern motorcycle club.

Gerald Smith, 24, an Omaha member of the club, said Negroes could march for civil rights in Omaha but members of his club could not ride their motorcycles in the city without being bothered.

"We can't even come into Omaha," Smith said. "Every time we come in, they kick us out."

Omaha police escorted members of the club, called El Forastero, to the Mormon Bridge and into Iowa May 1 after the club held a two-day party at Elk City.

The Washington County sheriff asked members of the club to leave a wooded area north of Omaha's Hummel Park Saturday.

Smith, 24, and Dennis Olofson, 23, said reports of destruction at Elk City were "exaggerated."

The town hall had been rented to a man who said it would be used for a dance Friday and Saturday nights, April 29-30. A group of motorcyclists held a dance on Friday night, resulting in extensive damage to the town hall.

After townspeople asked them to leave Saturday morning, it was reported that eight windows and two doors were broken, a stove torn from its mountings, some furniture and light bulbs broken, and old pictures on the walls torn up.

Smith and Olofson said the only damage their club did was the breaking of a couple of chairs and possibly the breaking of one window. He said the club members offered to "clean it up."

He said his fellow club members—from Omaha, Sioux City, Kansas City and Minneapolis — "chased off" members of a Wichita cycle club "who were causing the trouble" in Elk City.

He said a motorcycle gang which buzzed civil rights workers in Omaha Sunday is from Omaha but does not belong to El Forastero.

City Workers Seek 20 Pct. Pay Increase

Omaha (AP) — Omaha city employes formally requested a 20% pay increase and improved fringe benefits Tuesday.

After the hearing, the Personnel Board voted to study the matter and said it would announce its recommendations June 27.

The requests came from police, fire and civilian employes' unions.

The board's recommendations will go to the City Council. The 20% pay increase would amount to $1.8 million a year, $1,253,000 above the 5 to 10% increases recommended for 81% of Omaha's city workers by Personnel Director Ernest W. Howard at the board's May 31 meeting.

The unions also want the city to pay 50% of a proposed health, accident and life insurance program.

Zimmerman To New Anti-Poverty Program Position

Omaha (AP) — Robert Zimmerman, 32, Tuesday was named director of Omaha's anti-poverty program to retrain welfare recipients.

Zimmerman, with the program since it began last year, is a former director of education and employment for the Urban League.

He also has worked for the State Board of Health and the Immanuel Deaconess Institute in Omaha. He is a native of Seward and a graduate of the University of Omaha.

In the anti-poverty position, Zimmerman replaces John R. Fargher, who left Omaha for a job with the National Rehabilitation Association in Washington.

NATO Sites Out For Luxembourg

Luxembourg (AP) — Prime Minister Pierre Werner says Luxembourg can accommodate only minor elements in the forthcoming realignment of NATO headquarters sites.

"We cannot take up more important services," Warner told newsmen, "because of the small size of our territory."

Nurse-Author Dies

New York (UPI) — Mrs. Cordelia W. Kelly, 59, author of articles on nursing, died at Roosevelt Hospital here.

Elderly Woman Dies Of Burns

Omaha (UPI) — Omaha's tenth death by fire was recorded early Tuesday when a 90-year-old woman died of burns received in a fire Monday night.

Mrs. Emma Mae Franson suffered the burns when her clothing caught on fire, her son-in-law, William J. Hotten, reported.

Hooten went to Mrs. Franson's home when she failed to answer a phone call about 7 p.m. He said he looked in the window and saw her badly burned body on the floor.

He forced open a latched screen, opened the door with a key and called the rescue squad.

New Four-Story Apartment House For Elderly Due

Grand Island (UPI)—Plans were announced Tuesday for construction of a $1 million, four-story apartment building for the elderly. It will contain 74, one-bedroom apartments.

The plans were announced by the committee of the Golden Age Village here. The new structure will be called the "Centennial Towers" in obersvance of Nebraska's 100th anniversary next year.

The structure will be located across from the Golden Towers unit which was completed in 1965. The added 74 apartments will bring the total number of apartments in the village to 205, in addition to the 42-bed Baumann Home.

The architectural firm of George Clayton and Associates has been employed to prepare plans for the building. It is hoped groundbreaking can occur by March 1, 1967.

The Golden Age committee said it felt the new building was needed when it examined more than 75 applications for possible vacancies at Golden Towers.

'Peace Workers' Halt

Tokyo (UPI)—Two American "peace workers" wound up two weeks of teach-ins in Japan and Okinawa.

7 Selected For NWU Religious Drama Workshop

Seven students will participate in Nebraska Wesleyan University's Summer Workshop in Religious Drama.

Prof. David Clark listed cast members for the summer program, which he described as unique to Nebraska Wesleyan, as:

Sally Anderson, Lincoln; Rollin Batten, Kearney State College student; Cricket Baxter, Middleport, N.Y., Jo Hill, Papillion; Dennis McClatchey, Des Moines; Rich Schroeder, Shelton, and Cheryl Young, Hershey.

Judy Guida, Independence, Kans., a 1966 NWU graduate, will serve as assistant workshop director, Clark said.

Clark said the workshop group will tour in six midwestern states — Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, South Dakota and Colorado.

Commerce Chief Expects No Tax Increase In 1966

Washington (UPI) — Commerce Secretary John T. Connor said Tuesday that he does not expect the administration to ask for a tax increase this year.

Connor told a news conference that there were still some inflationary "pressures" around and President Johnson continued to consider the possibility of higher taxes to keep the lid on the economy.

But, he added, "my personal opinion would be, unless there is some drastic change, that no tax proposal will be advanced in this session of Congress."

OFFICERS FOR NWU'S MODEL U.N. SELECTED

Officers for the 1967 model United Nations program at Nebraska Wesleyan University have been announced by Sam Seever, secretary-general.

Heading the important agenda committee are Laurel Mohler, Omaha, and Art Richardson, Yankton, S.D. Legal counsel for the mock general assembly sessions next March is Larry Ruth, Rising City. Secretary is Mary Richardson, Ainsworth, assisted by Linda Dlouhy, Omaha.

Other committee heads are: Larry Reed, Independence, Kans., sergeant-at-arms; Tom Surber, Norfolk, business manager; Susan Christensen, Minden, treasurer; Joe Johnson, Broken Bow, and Doug Evans, Lincoln, publicity; and Bobbie Bogue, Oakland, and Jim Kruse, Chambers, special committees.

Sen. Finds Origin Of 'Great Society'

Washington (UPI) — Sen. Karl Mundt, R-S.D., no friend of many administration domestic programs, gave this version Tuesday of the origin of the term "Great Society".

"James Madison, one of our nation's founding fathers and our fourth president, reported that during the debates in the federal convention of 1787 one gentleman wanted to abolish the states, which, he claimed 'would be a perpetual source of discord,' and he wanted one national government.

"This foe of state governments declared, and I quote: 'There can be no cure for this evil but in doing away with states altogether and uniting them into one great society.'"

Spain Sentences Student To Jail

Madrid, Spain (AP) — The National Court of Public Order Tuesday sentenced Jorge Gonzalez Aznar, described as a student of journalism, to two years and four months in prison for possessing illegal propaganda. He was fined 10,000 pesetas ($140).

The prosecutor said numerous Communist pamphlets were found in Gonzalez' home April 10. The defense contended he had the material because of his studies in journalism and not for clandestine distribution.

Wesleyan's 5th Fraternity To Be In Full Operation

Nebraska Wesleyan University's fifth fraternity will be in full operation this fall, according to Dr. Milton Evans, dean of students.

The fraternity, a local organization at present, is known as Phi Sigma Rho. President is Steve Bell, David City.

Other charter members of the group are Jack Layten, Omaha, vice president; Clyde Frank, Aurora, recording secretary; George Ward, Lincoln, corresponding secretary; Jim Comstock, Kearney, house managre; Gary Christensen, Plattsmouth, treasurer, and Landis Hendricksen, Kearney, rush chairman.

Robert Putman, Ogallala; Jim Calder, Utica; Steve Ratzlaff, Henderson; Earle Abels, Ogallala; Ken Allard, Omaha; Charles Leypoldt, Albion; Ralf Ford, Norfolk; John Charles, Omaha; Tom Basset, Hastings; George Moravek, Guide Rock and Scott Hayman, Holland.

The group hopes to seek national affiliation next year.

Spain Sentences Student To Jail

Madrid, Spain (AP) — The National Court of Public Order Tuesday sentenced Jorge Gonzalez Aznar, described as a student of journalism, to two years and four months in prison for possessing illegal propaganda. He was fined 10,000 pesetas ($140).

The prosecutor said numerous Communist pamphlets were found in Gonzalez' home April 10. The defense contended he had the material because of his studies in journalism and not for clandestine distribution.
